

Milwaukee Loses First Game Chicago Also Loses

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

A 10th-inning home run by rookie catcher Cal Neeman of the Chicago Cubs spilled Milwaukee's Braves 3-2 and the Cleveland Indians, behind Herb Score's four-hit pitching, trimmed the Chicago Sox 5-0 to unrock the last of the unbeatens in major league baseball Tuesday.

Neeman's first major league home run completed the Cubs' comeback from a 2-0 deficit. Lew Burdette, cleared by National League president Warren Giles of Cincinnati's "spitball" accusation earlier in the day, was the loser with Dick Littlefield the winner.

Milwaukee's first defeat in six starts dropped the Braves into a first place tie with the idle Brooklyn Dodgers.

Elsewhere in the senior loop the New York Giants defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 1-0 with rookie southpaw Pete Burnside permitting just three hits.

CLUTCH BLOW

In other American League action, Roy Siever's two-run homer in the ninth gave the Washington Senators a 3-1 decision over the New York Yankees; the Kansas City Athletics hit three home runs and beat Detroit 5-4; and the Boston Red Sox, with Ted Williams driving in two runs, defeated Baltimore 3-1.

A double by Walt Moryn and Gene Baker's single gave the Cubs a two-run lead in the sixth with the first earned run off Burdette this season. His string ran 14 1-8 innings. The Braves left 12 men stranded with Cub reliever Turk Lown retiring the side in the 10th with the bases loaded.

A single by Hank Sauer followed a double by Willie Mays to give the Giants and Burnside, making his third try to stick in the majors, the run they needed in the fourth inning. Ron Kline lost it.

Score, who lost to Billy Pierce and the Sox in 11 innings opening day, struck out seven and walked only two in gaining his first victory and squaring things with Pierce, who failed to last three frames. Rocky Colavito homered for the Tribe. Minnie Mi-noso singled twice for Chicago as the White Sox retained a half-game edge over the Yankees for first place with their first defeat in five games.

TED WALKS SEVEN

Siever's fourth home run of the season was the fifth safety off loser Johnny Kucks. Dick Hyde was the winner, in relief of Ted Abernathy, who allowed only five hits but walked seven in his eight innings. The Senators tied it one-all in the eighth when rookie Tony Kubek, playing his first game in left for the Yankees, lost a pop fly in the sun and it dropped for an RBI double.

Harry Simpson, Bob Cerv and Lou Skizas homered for the A's, with Skizas' shot snapping a 4-4 tie and Detroit rookie right-hander, Don Lee, son of former White Sox southpaw Thornton Lee. Virgil Trucks won in relief. Bill Tuttle and Ray Bonne homered for the Tigers.

Williams' homer came in the first inning. It was his 420th in the majors and sailed some 420 feet into the center field bleachers. His single capped a two-run fifth. Frank Sullivan won it with a four-hitter, losing his shutout in the ninth on George Kell's home run. Billy Loes was the loser.

Cincinnati was at St. Louis in the lone night game.

Giles Does Not Believe Burdette Throws Spit Ball

CINCINNATI (AP)—Warren C. Giles, president of the National League, said Tuesday neither he nor his veteran umpires believe pitcher Lew Burdette of Milwaukee Braves has been throwing a spitball.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts of Cincinnati Redlegs claimed Burdette used the illegal spitter in a 1-0 victory over his club last Thursday in Milwaukee. He said he supported the opinion with his 16½ years of catching experience.

In replying to a letter from Gabe Paul, general manager of the Redlegs, President Giles said: "There is nothing in the rule that I can interpret as prohibiting a pitcher from moistening his fingers if he does not apply the moisture (spit) to the ball. If a pitcher, after appearing, to moisten his fingers, wipes them off, that to me is sufficient evidence that the moisture (if any) there may have been in his fingers is not applied to the ball."

"As to your specific mention of Birdie Tebbetts' complaint about Burdette, I personally have watched Burdette and studied his actions and inquired of all our umpires, including veterans such as (Larry) Goetz, (Babe) Pinell, (Lee) Ballanfant, and others and neither I nor they are of the opinion that he has, up to now, violated the intent or language of rule 8.02."

"There may have been times when pitchers (and infielders) actually have rubbed the ball on his glove as I have seen hundreds of times over the years and which, by common practice, has been overlooked by the umpires."

"The intent of that portion of the rule is to prohibit discoloring a new ball put into play."

After reading Giles' letter, Paul issued a statement saying he was satisfied.

"We asked for a clarification and interpretation of rule 8.02 and we have received it," Paul said.

TAKE 1-0 SERIES LEAD

Whitby Dunlops Defeat Spokane Flyers 5-2

TORONTO (CP)—Whitby Dunlops, capitalizing on their opponents' penalties, Tuesday night defeated Spokane Flyers 5-2 to grab a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven series for the Canadian senior hockey championship and Allan Cup.

Dunlops scored three goals while Spokane was playing short because of penalties. The western Canada champions were no match for Whitby in the first two periods but recovered somewhat in the final frame to give indications that the series is far from over.

A crowd of 5,059 watched right-winger George Samolenko shoot Dunlops into a 2-0 lead midway through the first period with a pair of goals. Playing coach Bus Gagnon ran the score to 3-0 before Art Jones, Flyers' high-scoring centre, reduced the lead by a goal before the period ended.

Both teams battled through a scoreless second period. Left-winger Fred Etcher and right-winger Tom O'Connor scored Whitby's last two goals while left-winger Bob Kromm added the second Spokane goal.

Flyers appeared rusty after a two-week layoff while they were waiting for the Whitby-North Bay Trappers to complete their eastern Canada Championship series.

The westerners' passes failed to click and their shots were wide of the net almost constantly in the first 40 minutes. Whitby held a 28-15 shooting edge in those periods.

Spokane goaltender John Sofiak played a fine game, making 31 saves, including 14 in the second period. John Henderson of Whitby had 20 shots to handle and appeared shaky on Jones' goal, which zipped between his legs.

Both of Samolenko's goals were scored while Dunlops had a man advantage. He opened the scoring at 9:26 and five minutes later added his second goal. Gagnon, who rushed in on the Spokane goal with Flyers' Don McLeod draped over him, scored 10 seconds later and Jones 34 seconds after that.

Dunlops' fourth goal, by Etcher, was also scored while Flyers were short-handed. Kromm's goal came while both teams had a man in the penalty box.

World Champ Gonzales Is Tired Of Getting Pushed

NEW YORK (AP)—World professional tennis champion Pancho Gonzales said Tuesday he's tired of "getting pushed around" by promoter Jack Kramer and he may branch out for himself unless Kramer changes his attitude.

"So far Jack has been working for himself, and he's been greedy," the swarthy stylist from Los Angeles added. "As a player and a promoter Jack has made a lot of dough for himself. Now I figure it's time I got mine."

"I'm not a promoter and I don't particularly care to be one, but I'd do anything now to protect my interests—even if it called for setting up a tour myself. I'm the best player in the world. I am in a position to call the shots."

The first major rupture in the Kramer - Gonzales relationship, never a warm one, occurred early this month when big Pancho announced he planned to take a rest after the May 26 match at LaJolla, Calif.

SAYS CONTRACT VOID

Kramer, promoter of Gonzales' tour with Australia's Ken Rosewall, called Gonzales "stupid" and said he was "getting fed up with his popping off." Furthermore, Kramer said, Pancho was under contract and could not say "when or where he will quit the tour."

"That's where Jack is wrong," Gonzales countered Tuesday. "I had a five-year contract with Kramer, starting in 1955, with a year-to-year renewal option. Jack was supposed to renew the option last fall while we were in Australia but he forgot it. My lawyer says I'm free as a bird."

"If Jack wants to continue promoting, but give me my proper share of the money and a say in the operations, well and good. I think I can last longer if I don't have to worry about business details. But I'm not afraid to undertake this responsibility if necessary."

Remember When

Joe Jacobs, outstanding New York boxing manager and promoter, died of a heart attack 17 years ago today. He managed Max Schmeling who won the heavyweight title from Jack Sharkey in 1930, and at the time of his death was in charge of Tony Galento, who had lasted only four rounds against champion Joe Louis the previous year.

Newfoundland Team Arrives in Ont. For Canada Week

GODERICH, Ont. (CP)—The cream of Newfoundland's young hockey crop — 18 youngsters dressed in natty white jackets and sealskin wedge caps — were the toast of the town Tuesday when they arrived by train to compete in the Young Canada Week peewee hockey tournament.

Some 74 teams are entered, and the St. John's entry is slated to go into action tonight.

The Newfoundlanders were given a civic welcome at the railway station by Mayor John Graham and the Goderich pipe band loaded into convertibles and paraded through the main streets. Later they were tendered a dinner at the Canadian Legion Hall.

Among those with the team is Lorne Wakeling, manager of the St. John's Aces, and former manager of the Goderich Arena.
