Jr. Farmers Say "New Deal" With Dad Needed To Combat Big-City Lure

"How're you going to keep them down on the farm" in face of big-city attractions is main topic of discussion among the 350 junior farmers from all parts of Ontario who are attending four-day convention in Toronto. Majority of the youthful delegates believe answer to this perennial problem is an improved father-son relationship. If young farmer could establish where he stands with his farm parents in farm work and earnings, fewer would seek the independence and higher wages of urban life. Delegates Albert Potts, left, of Norfolk, Diane Abbott Halton, and Don Carruthers, Northumberland, realize problem is serious, as 97,000 persons across Canada left farm work for big-city life in 1950.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WILLIAM CHOWEN

The funeral of the late Mrs. William Chowen, formerly Rebecca Jane Seller, daughter of the late Mr and Mrs. George Seller of Highfield and sister of the late Rev. George A. Seller, took place on January 12th from the Cutcliffe Funeral Home to Highfield Cemetery with the Rev. H. E. D. Ashford officiating.

Mrs. Chowen was a well known and respected resident of Charlottetown for a number of years, and a devoted member of Trinity United Church, and was frequently visited by her pastor during her long illness which she bore with great fortitude. She was a kind and devoted mother and loved by all who knew her.

She is survived by four sons and four daughters.

The pallbearers were: Joseph Curley, Frederick Gates, Benjamin Moore, Jack Bell, William McKinnon and Pope Tibone.

Flowers received were as follows:—

Pillows:
Three daughters from Boston, Mass.
Son, Mr William Chowen and wife, West Royalty.

Wreaths:
Sons, Regina, Saskatchewan, Grandchildren, Ralph, George, Paul and Shirley House, Charlottetown.

Sprays:
Mr. and Mrs Fred House, Charlottetown. Nieces, Mrs. William Johnson, Charlottetown. Mrs. John Bertram, Fredericton; Mrs. Alice Burke, Charlottetown, and Mrs. Lettie Crosby, Cornwall; West Royalty Women's Institute and Raymond's Associates of Boston, Mass.

IN MEMORIAM

ARCHIBALD R. MacKAY

Word has been received by Bert MacKay, Graham's Road, of the sudden passing of his brother Archibald R. MacKay, on November 21st, at his home at Belmont, Mass.

The deceased was the oldest son of John A and Charity "Campbell" MacKay of Graham's Road, where he spent the early part of his youth, moving to Clifton in 1887. He worked with Archie Campbell for four years, later going to Boston, where he met and married Edith Edmonds, to whom much sympathy is extended as she has been in the Hospital for some time and was unable to go home for her husband's funeral.

Besides his wife he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. George MacKay, Graham's Road Mrs. Dan Gething of New Bedford and Miss Pearl MacKay of Belmont. Also four brothers, James A., and Albert E., of California; William R. of Brackley, who had spent a few days with his brother and had left for Texas the day before he passed away, and Bert E., at the old homestead, Graham's Road.

A tailor by trade, Mr. MacKay was formerly associated with Continental and Jordan Marsh Stores of Boston.

He was a member of Mt. Carmel Lodge, Lynn and a valued member of Park St. Church, where he served as an usher for 38 years.

The funeral was held on Saturday, November 24th, with Dr. Harold John Ockings of the Presbyterian Park St. Church officiating. Interment was in Walnut Grove Cemetery, Methuen.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of the late Hilus Kodd, who passed away January 16th, 1942

They say time heals all sorrows
And helps us to forget
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss you yet.

God gave us strength to fight it
And courage to bear the blow,
But what it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know.

Lovingly Remembered by His Wife
Violet, Daughter Ines and Sons Bud and Wendal.

IN MEMORIAM

D. H. GORDON BROWN

It was a shock to relatives and friends when word was received from Boston that Gordon Brown, most commonly known as "Bob" had passed away on Christmas Day after a very short illness.

Arrangements were made by telephone by his son Carl to have the remains brought home for burial.

Gordon was born in York, the son of Ebenezer and Louise Brown and was in his sixtieth year.

In the first World War he and his older brother Ira M. joined the 105th Battalion on the same day. They remained together through almost four years of service and both were wounded with the 78th Winnipeg Fusiliers in September 1918. They were in the Hospital together in Redhill, Surrey, and later in convalescence house, the present home of Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh.

Gordon was one who could make friends wherever he went and his ready smile and hearty laugh will long be remembered by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn his sudden passing, one son, Carl James, of Chelmsford, Mass., and two brothers, Ira M., and Ollie H., both of Charlottetown.

The funeral under the direction of N. D. McLean, was held from York United Church on Monday, December 31st. Service in the Church and at the graveside was conducted by Rev. Mr Douglas. The Choir was under the leadership of Mr. H. T. Vessey. The Hymns used were "Forever With The Lord", "Abide With Me" and "What A Friend We Have In Jesus."

War Veterans in a body marched to the graveside where the Legion Burial Service was led by Comrade J. S. Walker, who with many others present had been with Gordon in the 105th. "Last Post" and "Reveille" were sounded by Bugler W. Chaisson.

The following were the pallbearers: A. O. F. Gill, Lloyd Crockett, Benjamin Mallett, Elmer Brown, Frank Watts and Frank Vessey.

Among the many floral tributes to his memory were:
A Basket of Mums from The Shell Oil Co., per G. T. Hopkins, Arlington, Mass.
Pillow from Ira and Ollie.
Sprays from: Carl and Cathy; Melville C. Brown, Campbellton, N. B.; Lloyd and Vesta; Louise and Jack; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Whitlock and Family; His Fellow Workers at Benson & Youngs, Cambridge, Mass.

In addition many Cards and Letters of Sympathy were received by his brothers here, for Gordon had many friends who will not soon forget.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
