"Jesse James" Is Spectacular Hit

THE CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

The long-awaited Darryl L. Zanuck production, "Jesse James," 20th Century-Fox Technicolor epic which two years in the making, received a wildly enthusiastic welcome from audiences at the Capitol theatre yesterday when the spectacular drama of the most colorful law that ever lived thundered across the screen, utilizing all the magic of Technicolor to tell the epic story of a lawless era.

Although Hollywood had frequently spent as much as two years in making a movie, never before have the fruits of their labor been so apparent as they are in "Jesse James." It is undoubtedly Darryl F. Zanuck's greatest production, and a tribute, paid to the man who has made us "In Old Chicago" and "The Sign of the Cross" into the most brilliant characterizations presented by Henry Fonda in the role of Frank James, and Nancy as Zerkow, Jesse's wife. Randolph Scott is splendid as Marshall Wright and a fine supporting role he bit down to the last from a screen play by Nunn Johnson, who was also associate producer on the film.

HOLMAN'S Summerside NEAR ACCORD

Japan's blockade since June 14 of the French and British concessions and the present conference in Tokyo.

It was said the British also agreed to a joint Anglo-Japanese search for other terrorists in the concession.

While today's conference was going on 50,000 Japanese held two stormy anti-British meetings at which they attacked Britain's unyielding attitude on the currency question and charged she was back-tracking on the preliminary agreement to respect the special necessities of the Japanese Army in China.

Part of the demonstrators then marched to the British Embassy, singing and shouting, and carrying placards which read, "Punch the British in the nose," and "Let's All Knock Down the British."

The Home Office applied measures to discourage the anti-British movement, however, by causing a police to re-route sections of the marchers so that only about 15,000 of them reached the embassy.

The marchers were kept at a little distance from the iron gates of the embassy by a reinforced guard, and the demonstration went off without incident.

Authorities tonight also been removing anti-British posters which had plastered Tokyo for several days, and declined to permit others to be put up.

An even stronger control was exerted to prevent the anti-British campaign from developing into anti-American chants. Police were ordered to permit the printing of anti-American slogans, and none was posted anywhere in Tokyo.

Before a final attendance check-up was made tonight 110,000 persons had passed through the turnstiles and fully 50,000 saw the musical rite of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and heard the Saskatoon Girls Pipe Band, at the afternoon and evening performances in an open air stadium adjoining the Hall of Nations.

These two Canadian attractions were the headliners on the stadium program and so great has been their reception that Hon. James G. Gardiner, Canadian Minister of Agriculture, who was today's guest of honor at the Congress, arranged to have the Mounted Police and the band to Ottawa.

The Girls Pipe Band have also had their engagement extended for another day.

PARIS, July 31—Hips won their way to freedom in showing of new winter styles today.

Dresses and coats were hip-shirred and there were velvet day suits designed with flared pelpums.

The much-heralded tight skirts so far have failed to materialize. Widely-flared evening skirts appeared in stiff, outstanding satins, tulle and lace. Many were gold embroidered or spangled in vine and leaf designs.

The dahlia was the keynote of Chanel's collection. Dahlia pinks, purples and reds predominated.

P.E.I. Presbytery Holds Meeting

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island met in its regular quarterly session in the Keir Memorial Church, Malpeque, on Tuesday, July 18th and was opened in usual form by the moderator, Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, assisted by Rev. T. Owen Hughes.

Those present were: Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Moderator; Rev. W. O. Rhoad, clerk; Rev. T. O. Hughes, Rev. W. L. Dettlor, Rev. G. C. Webster, Rev. J. Keir Fraser, D.D., Rev. Wm. Verwolf, Rev. W. S. Robert McNutt, James Jardine, George Jardine, Fred Clark, Thomas Ramsay, J. J. England and Chas. E. MacDuff, elders.

After the minutes of the last two meetings had been approved, considerable correspondence was dealt with. The reports on the vacant congregations were given by the interim-moderators of these several fields, namely Rev. Wm. Verwolf for Tyne Valley, Alberton and West Point; Rev. W. O. Rhoad for Bradshaw and Tyne Valley; Rev. W. L. Dettlor for Malpeque; Rev. G. C. Webster for Canoe Cove and Clyde River; and Rev. R. Hensley Stavert for Murray River, Alberton and Peter's Road. All of these fields are being cared for as best as possible.

The Home Mission report was given by Rev. G. C. Webster. Four student catechists have been employed by the several vacant congregations and mission fields, as follows: Loyd Henderson, Canoe Cove and Clyde River; John Carson, Malpeque; John Murdoch, Tyne Valley; and R. Duncanson, Alberton and West Point. All are doing splendid work.

A very hearty and unanimous call was extended to Rev. Thos. W. Goodwill, Hillsburg, Ontario, by the congregation of Canoe Cove and Clyde River, Nine Mile Creek and Churchville. The call was ordered to be sent by the clerk of the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island to the clerk of the Presbytery of Orangeville, Ontario. It is hoped that Mr. Goodwill will see his way clear to accept this call.

Mr. Chas. E. McDuff reported for the Presbytery Fund. The funds are found to be in quite a healthy condition. Quite a number of other items of minor importance were dealt with.

The Presbytery adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator and clerk, and the meeting was closed with the benediction by the Moderator, Rev. R. Hensley Stavert.

At 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. the members of Presbytery attended the two meetings held in connection with the centenary of the founding of the Malpeque Bible and Missionary Society. The Moderator presided. At these meetings interesting and instructive addresses were given by Rev. J. Keir Fraser, Rev. W. O. Rhoad, D.D., Rev. G. C. Webster, Mrs. Rev. H. H. Burkwall, and Mr. John Carson.

All of the addresses were of a high order. The meetings were closed with the benediction by the Moderator of Presbytery, Rev. R. Hensley Stavert.

Gable Overpowers Youthful Intruder At His Ranch Home

VAN NUYS, Calif., July 31 — (AP)—Clark Gable, hero of many a brush with movie villains, modestly reported to police today he captured and disarmed a youthful intruder who confronted him with one of his own antique pistols and demanded money.

"I am sorry it happened," Gable said after turning over to officers 18-year-old William J. Brookie, a Polish transient. "He's only a boy who got off on the wrong foot. I hope he gets off without too much trouble."

Gable was alone at his ranch home when the episode occurred, his wife, Carole Lombard, having gone to the studio at 7 A.M. He said he had come from the yard where he was working and went into his room. When he saw a closet door move, he wheeled and commanded: "Come out of there!"

contrast with the so-called unification proposal for a railway monopoly which has repeatedly failed to stand the test of such examination by parliamentary bodies. He submitted it as a forward plan, contrasting with a program of defeatism and retreat, as a program for building Canada up in contrast with one for tearing the railway systems down. It is a plan designed to keep both railways in existence—to go far towards wiping out Canadian National deficit and to enable the Canadian Pacific to operate profitably. An essential condition of the plan is protection for railway workers who would lose their employment through co-operation.

Dr. Manion's plan clarifies the situation in respect to the railways in advance of the elections. Contrasting with it is the Mackenzie King Government's policy of leaving the railway situation to solve itself, of looking to chance and circumstance for a relief from the railway deficits. The government proposes to do nothing about the railways on the ground that business recovery will provide increased earnings; but it takes no steps to promote business recovery, while its makeshift policies and its lack of leadership discourage and impede it. The Conservative policy in advance of the elections, a proposal that denies the possibility of economic recovery and expansion for Canada in a degree requiring railway facilities considered necessary as far back as a quarter of a century ago.

With the experience of five years as Minister of Railways behind him, Dr. Manion's plan is the result of long and serious consideration. It is claimed by advocates of unification that co-operation has failed. As Dr. Manion declares co-operation has not failed because it has never been tried, Parliament provided for voluntary co-operation but the railways refused to carry it out. Dr. Manion proposes to make co-operation certain by making it compulsory under an independent body.

the minimum standard for the same in the other provinces of Canada requires at least two, and generally three years of study after passing Grade X. The Board of Education in this province, however, will leave it possible for another year for those students who are eighteen years of age, and who can make 65 percent in the examinations of the First Year course to obtain their license with but one year's attendance at the Prince of Wales College. To do this, however, only those candidates who have made at least 60 per cent at this present examination, can be expected to be successful, and consequently young and immature students making a low pass mark in this examination should hesitate to come at this stage to Prince of Wales College but if desirous of a teacher's license should remain another year at school, and obtain a better educational ground work before incurring the great expense of the course at College.

The public schools with six weeks' holidays will open on Tuesday, August 15. All other schools except those of Charlottetown and Summerside will open on August 29.

The two small sons of Mr. Teixeira de Mattos, of the Dutch Legation in London, have complete sets of British Life Guards uniforms and every day they watch the troops leave the Knights-bridge barracks for the Horse Guards Parade where the changing of the guard take place. Albert de Mattos, the elder son, keeps his sword rigidly at "the carry" while talking with Corporal Gibbons but little brother Edward apparently, is no disciplinarian even when at the Knights-bridge barracks. His sword gives him away.
