

Will I Be Like You, Papa?

Papa had come home, and the children were glad to see him, for he played delightful games with them, and he told them wonderful stories. He loved his family, and though he had learned to look upon the wine when it was red, yet he was a kind and tender father to his children.

TAKES 1000 people to buy Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, at 50 cents a bottle to make up $500. One failure to cure would take the profit from 4000 sales. Its makers profess to cure "cold in the head," and even chronic catarrh, and if they fail they pay $50 for their over-confidence. Not in newspaper words but in hard cash! Think of what a mean it takes to put that in the paper, and mean it. Its makers believe in the remedy. Isn't it worth a trial? Isn't any trial preferable to catarrh?

After all, the mild agencies are the best. Perhaps they work more slowly, but they work surely. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are an active agency but quiet and mild. They're sugar-coated, easy to take, never shock nor derange the system, and their power is the mild way in which their work is done. Smallest, cheapest, easiest to take. One a dose. Twenty-five cents a trial. Of all druggists.

Pointers To Advertisers

HE LEARNED TO ADVERTISE. I wanted a situation, Even though wondrous wise, A year was spent in idleness; I did not advertise. I started out in business, And boomed it to the skies, But never made a dividend; I did not advertise. Then an advertising merchant, With business in his eyes, Asked me a simple question, "Why don't you advertise?" He told me his experience, My hopes began to rise When I saw the brilliant prospect, If I should advertise. My ad. went in the papers, and I found he told no lies. Business soon was booming, when I began to advertise. I have told my story briefly, To all I should advise, If you wish to be successful, Go in and advertise. H. L. DAWES.

The old in advertising is most always good. It is pretty sure to attract attention. But understand me that I do not mean by the old in advertising, the mean by the old in advertising, the mean by the old in advertising, the mean by the old in advertising.

Borders in advertising have come in style recently. They are very effective. They are good taste. They serve to make an advertisement distinctively artistic.

But then, what is the use of talking? The final test of the success of an advertisement is the demand it creates for the article advertised.

You cannot expect people to have confidence in what you sell if you have not confidence enough in your goods to advertise them.

In writing advertisements, make the first line either their most pertinent point, or the entering wedge of a most seductive line of reasoning which will lead to that point.

Don't make your first line simply and purely a catch line with all there is after picked him into reading your advertisement.

WONDER IN WELLAND!

A Representative Farmer Speaks.

MR. C. C. HAUN.

The following remarkable facts are fully certified to as being undeniably correct in every particular. Mr. Haun is well known in the vicinity, having resided here over fifty years, and is highly respected as a man of the strictest honor, whose word is as good as his bond.

As will be seen from his letter, four physicians had attended him, and it was only after he had given up hope of recovery that he decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters on the recommendation of a neighbor who had been cured of a similar disease by its use. Mr. Haun writes as follows:

"Dear Sirs,—I think I have been one of the worst sufferers you have yet heard of, having been six years in the hands of four of our best doctors without obtaining permanent relief, but continuing growing worse, until I tried your Bitters and got relief in a few days. Every organ of my body was deranged, the liver enlarged, hardened and torpid, the heart and digestive organs seriously deranged, a large abscess in my right eye, followed by paralysis of the right leg, in fact the lower half of my body was entirely useless. After using Burdock Blood Bitters for a few days the abscess burst, discharging fully five quarts of pus in two hours. I felt as if I had received a shock from a powerful battery. My recovery after this was steady and the cure permanent, seeing that for the four years since I have had as good health as ever. I can think of no more remarkable case than what I have myself passed through, and no words can express my thankfulness for such perfect recovery."

C. C. HAUN, Welland, P.O.

In this connection the following letter from T. Cummins, Esq., a leading druggist of Welland, Ont., speaks for itself:

"GENTLEMEN,—I have been personally acquainted with Mr. C. C. Haun for the last 20 years, and have always found him a very reliable man. You may place the utmost confidence in anything he says with regard to your medicine. He has on many occasions within the last four years told me that it was marvellous the way that the Burdock Blood Bitters had cured him, and that he now felt as able to do a day's work as he ever felt in his life. Although quite well he still takes some B. B. B. occasionally, as he says, to keep him in perfect health."

Yours truly, THOMAS CUMMINS, Welland, Ont.

The steadily increasing sale of B. B. B. the length of time it has been before the people, and the fact that it cures so many ailments, are the sterling merit of this cure, and the people's favorite blood purifier, tonic and regulator.
