

Local and Other Items.

Go to the Market Hall to-night. The Northern Light is still in Picton. MAILS arrived at half-past three o'clock. BAND at the Roller Rink Friday evening. JUDGE KELLY and Mrs. Kelly are in town to-day. ORATORIO CONCERT next Monday in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. TRAVEL along the line of railway is beginning to look up. PHILIP CURLEY was to-day fined $50 for a breach of the Scott Act. A WOMAN was knocked down by a team on Grafton Street yesterday afternoon and slightly injured. A LARGE number of Catholic clergymen are in the city assisting at the celebration of St. Patrick's Day. The Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. McDonald have kindly consented to attend the Oratorio Concert Monday evening. Mr. A. E. MACDONALD, the genial pursuer of the Princess of Wales, leaves this evening to spend a few holidays in Boston. MAKE your engagements so as to spend to-morrow evening at the entertainment of the Second Methodist Sabbath School. MR. T. A. LE PAGE, of the Prince of Wales College, lectures before the Summerside Literary and Scientific Society next week. PLAN of the Hall for Oratorio Concert is now at Watson's Drug Store. Go and secure your seats at once, as only a limited number will be sold. THE entertainment of the Second Methodist Sabbath School to-morrow evening will be an evening of pleasure and profit. Don't fail to attend. A. G. McINNIS, Esq., Murray Harbor, and H. L. Macdonald, Esq., Cardigan, were at the Osborne this forenoon on route for County Line, where they "astonish the natives" to-night. MESSRS. ALAN MORRISON and Robert Fitzsimon, are discussing the merits of their trotters in the Summerside press. The matter could be more easily and effectually settled at a friendly meeting on the ice. THE Pioneer says—On Friday last two barns belonging to Mr. Doyle, of Lot 4, were burnt. The fire is supposed to have been caused by careless handling of matches. Loss estimated at $1000. No insurance. ST. GEORGE'S Literary and Dramatic Society spent last evening in the discussion of Irish Poetry. Mr. Mallally introduced the subject in an interesting address on its historical aspects; and selections from Irish authors were read by Messrs. McNeill, Murphy, McDonald, Moore and others. AT a recent meeting of the Summerside branch of St. Vincent de Paul Society, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:— President—John B. Strong. 1st Vice-President—Wm. Shea. 2nd Vice-President—Wm. Wickham. Treasurer—M. A. McInnis. Secretary—John Shea. Corresponding Secretary—Chas. Murphy. THE inexhaustible mine from which the Patriot has been obtaining its supply of local news, has apparently given out. Having used up the "number of widows, widowers, etc., in Charlottetown; carpenters, blacksmiths, lime-kilns, etc., in the Island," it is obliged as a dernier resort, to go back five years in its dates, as witness: "Five years ago there were 215 shipbuilders in P. E. Island." The census was published somewhere about that time. It is a singular fact that the cheapness of an article should ever temporarily retard its sale, and yet that was the experience of Messrs. Tuckett & Son in the introduction of their now celebrated "Myrtle Navy" tobacco. People who had been in the habit of smoking the finest Virginia tobacco, could not for a time be made to believe that they were offered the same article at about one half the price, and it was only by slow degrees that they were induced to put the question to the test of an actual trial. When they did adopt that test, however, it never failed to satisfy them. HEALTH RESOLUTIONS.—The Health Committee and Trustees of the Black Bush School passed the following resolutions on Friday evening last: Whereas, All danger of the infectious disease prevalent in the District is now over, They are Resolved, That the school, which has been closed by order of the Board since the 21st ult., be opened on Monday next, 15th inst. HERMAN MORRISON, Chairman. JOSEPH McPHEE, Secretary. HERMAN McDONALD, Health Com. HERMAN McDONALD, Chairman Trustees. Weather Bulletin. Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the Maritime Provinces. DOMINION PARLIAMENT

The Riel Question!

OTTAWA, March 16. The House met at three o'clock. The introduction of public bills and Government orders were passed over. On public bills and orders being called, Mr. Allan moved the second reading of the act to extend the jurisdiction of the Maritime Court of Ontario. Sir Hector moved in amendment that the House proceed to Landry's resolution. Mr. Blake objected that Allan's bill would be dropped if the amendment succeeded. Hon. Mr. Langevin said that if Allan would withdraw his bill he would withdraw his amendment, provided the Leader of the Opposition agreed to make no objection to the House going at once to the Riel resolution. This was agreed to by Mr. Blake. Rykert then spoke on the Riel resolution. He referred to the charges against the Government for moving the previous question, and showed that the effect of it, under the rules of the House, was to bring about a direct vote on the resolution of censure of the Government. There could now be no shirking of the vote by the Opposition, while the fullest opportunity was afforded for the discussion of the resolution. Mr. Rykert complained that Blake, as usual, had not given expression to his views on this subject. He showed that the McDonald-Carter Government never proposed an amnesty for Riel in the first rebellion, and that Riel came on the second occasion into Canada for mercenary motives. Quoting from Girouard's speech of last session, he showed there were no grounds for the rebellion among the Metis. Quoting Mr. Mackenzie's speech of some years ago, he showed that Mackenzie took the broad principle that no acts of the Government justified rebellion, and that Sir Richard Cartwright had declared no man could have sympathy with a rebel who should start a rebellion in an Indian country. He followed the Opposition from point to point in various attitudes they had assumed toward the Riel matter, and showed that one and all had wanted Riel hanged, when they thought the Government was not going to hang him, but had turned sharply round when the Government had vindicated law and order by allowing these things to take effect, and condemned the Government for the execution. After Rykert closed, Bouchard spoke a short time. He admitted that the Rouges could not rely upon the recalcitrant Bleus, who, he doubted not, would go back to the Tory party. The question being called, and no one rising, the Deputy Speaker rose to put the question. Laurier sprang up at the last second amidst much laughter and spoke to the question.

A Conflict of authorities

NEWCASTLE, March 16. Considerable excitement was created here to-day on arrest of Chief of the Police, Stewart, of Hamilton, who arrived here with Cadley, the forger. The warrant to arrest Stewart was issued by Justice Wortman, of Moncton, for contempt. Upon examination the warrant was declared incomplete and insufficient to detain the Chief, who was at once released. Judge Sinclair, of Wentworth, telegraphed Stewart that the New Brunswick authorities have no jurisdiction, and to proceed with his prisoner to Hamilton, where the original papers for the arrest of Cadley are. Marshal Tibbadeau, of Moncton, re-arrested Stewart, when Stewart got on board the train and told the officers he would not go with them and dared them to take him. They pulled him off the train. A special was then hired and the party left for Moncton.

Shipping Disaster.

NEW LONDON, Conn., March 16. This evening tugs brought in the schooner Royal Arcanum, of St. John, N. B., with coal, in a disabled condition. The Captain reports that he was run into by an unknown three-masted schooner, which continued on her course and did not offer assistance.

Briefs.

LONDON, March 17. The Earl of Chichester is dead, aged 81. Parnell is in poor health, and cannot speak at the London national festival to-day. A Rome despatch officially confirms the report that Archbishop Taschereau of Quebec will be created Cardinal April 12th. There is much speculation as to who will succeed Chamberlain and Trevelyan in the Cabinet.
