Quiet Hour Thoughts.

Worry kills more people than hard work. As a rule, people who talk the most think the least. Humility is a Christian grace that every person admires. The man who rides a hobby always wants the whole road. Don't fail to keep up with your profession if you are going to follow it. Be the kind of a man that you would like to have your boy become. Seek the company of those whose influence will be the most helpful to you. He who cannot wait till the time comes to act will fail to gain the victory. It is vain to pray, 'Deliver us from evil,' unless we try to keep from sin. No matter what your situation in life may be, never be satisfied to do anything but your very best. It will not improve your own crop to sit on the fence and count the weeds in your neighbor's crop. It is vain to try to lead a Christian life if the heart is not right. No one who is in the place that God wants him to be but can find opportunities to do good. When God puts his children in the furnace, he will always be with them so that no harm comes to them. The man who sits down to plan how he can get money without earning it is on the very brink of ruin. The service of the Christian is always acceptable no matter how small it may be if it is the best he can do. The sermon never does the man much good who leaves his pocket-book at home for fear he will be asked to give something to help support the church. The man who has made a mistake and has learned of it has learned a valuable lesson; but the lesson will be of no value to him unless he seeks to correct his mistake.—Rev. J. W. Newman.

'Fear Not.'

(Kate Sumner Burr, in Safeguard.)
Though long thy pilgrimage may be,
Through weary, lonely days,
This promise plead, till God shall fill
The heart and lips with praise:
'My presence shall go with thee still,
And keep in all thy ways.
From fear thy soul hath been redeemed,
Thy name to God is known;
A ransom great for thee was paid
When Christ the Holy One,
Stooped low to suffer in thy stead—
Now thou art His alone.
Through waters deep, though thou should'st pass,
Though furnace heat appall,
Forth from each trial thou shalt come,
Triumphant over all—
The arm of God, thy sure defence,
Shall guard thee as a wall.
'Fear not!'—it is thy Lord's command;
Thou'rt 'precious' in his eyes;
For his beloved, his 'chosen' ones,
Springs in the desert rise,
And even though the wilderness
A royal highway lies.

The Boastful Spirit.

ing to do. We are lifted up with pride and conceit. We are saying: "Behold this great Babylon which we have builded." A little more modesty would not hurt our public speakers and writers on the platform and in the press. A greater recognition of God, and less American exaltation, would be more to the purpose. The Lord lifts up one nation, and pulls down another. We are only his instruments. While thankful that he uses us in accomplishing his will, let us not magnify our part to the detriment of his guidance and intervention.—The Presbyterian.

People who are loyal to their church are not swift to find fault with their pastor. An ounce of encouragement or friendly counsel is worth a ton of heartless criticism.

See that each hour's feelings and thoughts and actions are pure and true; then will your life be such. The wide pasture is but separate spears of grass: the sheeted bloom of the prairies but isolated flowers.—Beecher.

MEDICAL SCIENCE ADVANCES.

Positive Cure for Asthma Discovered

It has long been recognized by medical scientists throughout the world that nature has supplied all creation with some remedy in the vegetable or mineral kingdom where-with all forms of ailments can be cured, but it was not until the discovery by Stanley of the wonderful Kola plant along the Congo River in Africa that asthma was permanently curable. In fact, it was not until the investigations made by Dr. Clarke some years later that this disease was found curable; he found that by combining the extract of Kola Nut with other vegetable extracts that the compound obtained would permanently cure asthma. Clarke's Kola Compound was then tried on over 100 cases in different hospitals, with the marvelous result that over 95 per cent. were permanently cured in less than 60 days' treatment. Clarke's Kola Compound is now recognized to be the only permanent cure for this dreaded disease. Sold by all druggists. Free sample bottle sent to any person. Mention this paper.
