Presentation At Cornwall

At the close of the monthly meeting of the Cornwall-York Point Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. Hazen Howard on Monday evening, October 1st, the President Mrs. Reginald MacEwen made reference to the fact that for the past seven years Mrs. Daniel Gass has been secretary-treasurer of Cornwall Community Hall, and the Institute members at this time wished to express their appreciation by presenting her with a gift. The president then called upon Mrs. Earl Lowther to read an address, and Mrs. Gordon MacEwen to make the presentation of a beautiful matching necklace and armband set. The following is the address:— Dear Mrs. Gass (Margaret): Owing to your proximity to the Cornwall Hall and also to your ability as treasurer, a few years ago, you were appointed as secretary-treasurer, and presented with a little old-fashioned hand-bag, containing a few receipts and old papers. You, as secretary, acted very kindly to all comers, and kept all details in good order. Since that time Cornwall-York Point and Meadow Bank communities took on the management and serving of meals during Old Home Week. This enterprise has proved a de-

IN MEMORIAM

MR. AUSTIN J. WALSH

The death occurred at the City Hospital on September 8th, 1951, of Austin J. Walsh, a highly respected resident of Charlottetown. The deceased was born at Stanley Bridge, October 6th, 1881, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Walsh. He had been in failing health for some time suffering from a heart condition, although during the summer he had shown some signs of improvement. In August he again entered the Hospital but this time all that Doctors and kind Sisters could do for him proved unavailing. God willed otherwise. Possessed of a pleasant and kindly manner he made many friends. During his illness he was visited many times by the kind clergy of the Holy Redeemer Parish of which church he was a member. His nephew Rev. Francis Bolger administered to him the last sacraments of the Catholic Church assisted by Rev. Father, Doyle. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, one daughter and three sons, Arthur, with the C.N.R., Charlottetown; Louis with the Department of Public Works, Charlottetown; Urban with the Department of Fisheries Biological Station, St. Andrews, N. B.; Marion (Mrs. Thomas Walsh) Wakefield, Mass. Three sisters, Angelina (Mrs. Richard Trahey, Tillie, Mrs. Edward Dixon) Wakefield, Mass.; Margaret (Mrs. Thomas Bolger), Hunter River and a number of grandchildren. The number of Mass Cards, Spiritual Bouquets, Cards of Sympathy also Floral Tributes bore silent testimony of many friends. In manifestation of the esteem in which the deceased was held was the large concourse of people in final tribute of respect, who formed the cortage which took place from his late residence on Saturday, September 8th, to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer where High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Francis Bolger who also conducted the service at the grave. Rev. James Smith was present in the Sanctuary. The pallbearers were: William

Murphy, Thomas Bolger, Frank LeClair, John Feavoyour, Harry McNevin and Herbert Carr. All that was mortal of a dear husband, father and brother were tenderly laid to rest in the Catholic Cemetery there to await the Resurrection. May his Soul rest in Peace. The funeral was under the dir-
