

VARIETIES.

Gold.—'Gold well gotten is bright and fair; but there is gold which rusts and can't be used. The gold which rusts does not walk according to the will of God, but under a special blessing; but the stores which have been unjustly gathered are accused. "Your gold and your silver is cankered, and the rust of them shall be as the rust against you, and shall be upon your flesh as gold which will not cure upon it. Far better let cold pinch this frame, or hunger gnaw it, than the rust of illgotten gold should eat it up as fire."

BEAUTIFUL.—There is a deep and beautiful meaning in the saying of the Angel, Duke of Lithuania. Some peasants coming to her in a coach complained that the servants of the King, her husband, had carried off their cattle. She went to her husband, and obtained instant redress. "Your cattle have been restored to them," said the Queen. "But what is the meaning of the saying?"

BONAFAITE ON NOVEL READING.—No works were read but those of real value. By common consent all novels were banished from the circle, as Napoleon invariably abominated everything of the kind. If he happened to find a novel in the hands of one of the attendants, he would unhesitatingly toss it into the fire, and soundly lectured the reader upon her waste of time. If Josephine had been a novel reader she never could have acquired that mental energy which enabled her to do so much dignified and useful work in her own position she was called to occupy.—Doyle's History of Josephine.

WESLEY'S ARGUMENT.—I beg leave to propose a short, clear, and strong argument to prove the Divine inspiration of the Holy Scriptures. The Bible must be the invention either of good men or angels, or of the attendants of the King; could not be the invention of good men or angels, for they neither would nor could make a book, and tell lies all the time they were writing it, saying, "Thus said the Lord," when it was their own invention. It could not be the invention of good men, or devils, for they would not make a book which commands all duty, forbids all sin, and condemns their souls to hell and to all eternity. I therefore draw this conclusion, that the Bible must have been given by Divine inspiration.

"Mike, why don't you get those ducks?—I know you can't get the milk before your gun?" "I know I had, but you see, when I gets a good animal one, two or three others will swim right 'twixt it and me."

"Why are country girls' cheeks like wax printed cotton? Because they were wanted to wash and keep their color."

We overheard a queer thing from a little fellow about six years of age, a short time ago. The subject of "wedding cake" had been introduced in the course of conversation, in which the father was taking part. "Father," said the little fellow, after having apparently reflected intently on something, "I shan't send you any of my wedding cake when I get married."

"Why so?" was the inquiry. "Because I am sure you will little-fellow 'd sent me any of yours."—Knickerbocker.

A magistrate pursued a thief, who took refuge on a stump in a swamp. The justice reported the fact as follows: "Sightable felon—non est come ad stabile—in swamp—up stump—raio!"

As Father Morris was walking through a parish famous for its profanity, he was stopped by a whole flock of the youthful reprovers of the place. "Father Morris," said the first, "isn't the devil's devil?" "Yes," said the old man, benignly laying his hand on the head of the nearest urchin, "you poor foolish children!"

"Mister, how do you sell your pig?" "I sell 'em for a pound." "Fourteen cents, eh?—have you got a heart?" "No, just sold 'em." "Well, I know'd you couldn't have a heart, and fourteen cents for 'em?"

A fellow went to Saratoga for his health, —to pick up a little, and picked up enough to send him to the State Prison for three years. This is recruiting, with a vengeance.

An omnibus upset in Broadway last Monday. One man was struck with an idea, but was not seriously injured; and a young lady was carried away by her own feelings, but she brought back on a wheelbarrow.

"Clara, my dear, what a beautiful sky; how I admire it!" "Yes, Charlie; I sometimes wish I was a sky."

Mrs. Partridge says she never cared but how much grand speculations she could make, but she would like to have seen—the inoculation of Frank Pierce and the corporation of Queen Victoria.

A buck, while being measured for a pair of boots, observed: "Make them cover the calf." "Here's a fellow," said the shoemaker, surveying his customer from head to foot, "I have no leather enough!"

The pride which dines on vanity will sup on contempt.
