

A Word to Clerks.

Very many young men employed as clerks are possessed of a laudable desire to start in business.

If, by long and close application to all the details of their duties as clerks, they have acquired a clear and thorough insight into their business, then let them try and start out on their own account.

Many clerks chafe under the necessary restraint placed upon them by their employers. Some deem their hours of work too long or their pay too small.

Still others, and this is the most deluded class of all, lay the flattering unction to their souls that their services are indispensable to "the boss."

Never become possessed of the idea that you are a mercantile Caesar or Napoleon, young man. No, not even if anyone is idiot enough to tell you so.

We are always glad to see young men get ahead and prosper. Remember this, however, to be successful as a merchant, you must be careful and hard-working as a clerk.

The Thimble.

The name of this little instrument is said to have been derived from "thumb-bell," being at first "thumble," afterwards "thimble."

In Paris gold thimbles are manufactured to a large extent. Thin sheets of sheet iron are cut into dies of about two inches diameter.

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "88 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 20, 1882. 'Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread over his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.

Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved.
