Local and Other Items.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.—We learn that Lieutenant Governor McIntyre has appointed Mr. Jack Davies to be his Private Secretary. The selection is an eminently good one.

SCOTT ACT.—The Scott Act prosecution against J. G. Scrimgeour was further enquired into at Georgetown yesterday before Magistrate Blanchard. The summons was dismissed.

CELEDONIAN CLUB.—Members of the Caledonian Club are requested to meet at the club room at 2.30 p. m. tomorrow (Sunday) in plaid and bonnet, thence to proceed to the funeral of their late fellow clansman, John Andrew Macdonald.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.—Special music will be given at morning and evening service in the First Methodist Church tomorrow morning. "The Haven by Sir J. Barnby and "From Egypt's Bondage Come," by Arthur Page; evening service, Paul Rodneys "Sion" and Shelley's magnificent hymn-anthem, "Hark, Hark My Soul," Alto solo by Mrs. Watts, Soprano Solo and Obligato by Miss Temple.

EVANGELIST WHISTON.—The Evangelistic services at the Central Christian Church, Kindergarten Hall, will be continued one week longer. Mr. Whiston's strongest work and most helpful sermons come next week. Tomorrow he will occupy the pulpit three times. At 11 his subject will be "The Christian Life," at 3.45 p. m. he will speak upon "The Model" and at 7 p. m., "Absolute Certainties." It is expected that several out of town singers will assist in the singing tomorrow. Solos, "Life" Railway, "Saved only by Grace," duet, "One day nearer Home." Mr. Whiston will answer questions in the evening. These meetings will be of unexceptional interest. All are welcome.

CARNIVAL OF NATIONS.—Speaking of the coming production of the spectacular "Carnival of Nations" on being introduced to our correspondent Prof. McQuarrie said that he was very pleased with the manner in which the rehearsals were going. "They are perfection already," continued the Professor. "In justice to my pupils I must say that in all my professional career I have never met with a people so entirely free from the petty little strifes and jealousies which always attend the getting up of a production of this kind. Good will and a desire to do thoroughly what they are taught predominates, therefore you can see that my task is a comparatively easy one. Everybody from the smallest tot to the stately ladies of the minuet and the eccentric Dutchman with the orthodox wooden shoes have given their undivided attention to my instructions and all richly deserve the applause with which they will doubtlessly be received on Thursday and Friday of next week at the Opera House."

June Magazines are coming in thick and fast at Carters' Bookstore.

Local and Other Items

ARTILLERY.—No 2 Co will drill in uniform on Monday next at 8 p. m.

THE PROBS. Moderate to fresh south westerly to southerly winds, generally fair, but a few scattered showers.

POLICE COURT.—An assault case was this forenoon disposed of for a nominal fine, the prosecutor declining to prosecute.

ACCIDENT.—Garnet Huntley, in the employ of Jas. D. Taylor, printer, had the index finger of the right hand badly bruised in a paper cutter this forenoon.

APPOINTED INSPECTOR.—Police officer Campbell has been appointed inspector under the provisions of the tax act passed at the recent session of the Legislature.

RACES.—The annual races will be held on the Charlottetown Driving Park, on Wednesday and Thursday, the 13 h and 14th of September next. Particulars in a few days.

PRINCE OF WALES COLLEGE.—The commencement exercises take place in the Opera House on Wednesday evening. The programme is a choice one. Arrange to attend.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The funeral of the late John Andrew Macdonald will take place at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon instead of 3.30 as announced in the other papers.

A. O. H.—There will be a special meeting of Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, tomorrow at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating officers for the ensuing year. Every member will please be present.

MINOR ORDERS.—Rev. Theodore Gil-laut, of St. Dunstan's College, received minor orders at St. Dunstan's Cathedral this morning at seven o'clock. His Lordship Bishop Macdonald officiated, assisted by Dr. Monaghan and Dr. Curran.

A LABOR OF LOVE.—Johnson & Johnson, the well known Charlottetown drug firm, are interesting themselves in the work of directing the attention of tourists to the charms of P. E. Island as a summer resort. The island has no organized tourist association, and the Messrs Johnson are doing this work as a labor of love.—St John Sun.

GRACE CHURCH.—We would like to remind the numerous friends of the Rev. Dr. Sprague that he preaches at both services in Grace Church tomorrow. Special collection in behalf of the Conference funds will be taken. As Dr. Sprague leaves the Island this summer this will be the last opportunity you may have to hear him.

RUNAWAY.—Two horses, both attached to slovens, one belonging to Mr. D. L. Hooper, C. C., and the other to a countryman, started to run away at Dodd's Medical Hall corner to day at about 12 o'clock. Mr. Hooper's horse ran right down Queen Street, and was stopped on the wharf, while the other turned the London House corner and ran into Larter's yard.

B. Y. P. U.—The concert given last evening by the Junior Union of the Baptist church was greatly enjoyed by all present. "The Old Old Story" was cleverly told in song and recitation; and an address complimentary to the little ones participating was given by Rev. Geo. M. Campbell. The exercises opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Finlayson. The proceeds of the concert, including the mite box collection, amounted to $20, and is for the benefit of Foreign Missions.

LITERARY NOTE.—In the June number of the Pall Mall Magazine is an article of great personal and historic interest, by the Hon. William Waldorf Astor, on the founder of the family in America, John Jacob Astor. The article traces the stirring and tragic incidents which led to the adventurous settlement of Astoria, and many details are given of the foundation of the Astor family in America. The illustrations are from unpublished drawings, portraits, etc., a fine photographic reproduction of Gilbert Stuart's painting of John Jacob Astor forming the frontispiece to the number.
