PANTHERS WIN TWO

It now appears that the U.P.E.I. Panthers will begin to gain the respect due to them as they roll off of two wins this past weekend at the Charlottetown Forum.

Coach Jack Hynes lead the Panthers as they convincingly trounced the U.N.B. Red Devils both Saturday and Sunday by scores of 7-4 and 6-2 respectively. The Panthers showed promise as they outscored and outbattled the U.N.B. team. Both games were well played and full of excitement even if, from time to time the action was marred by an unruly few who weren't necessarily associated with either team. Generally it was the kind of hockey most fans enjoy to watch.

Saturday's game saw John Butler and Tony MacKenzie score 2 goals apiece while Darwin MacCathion helped set up 3 others. On Sunday's game Dave Currie got 2 goals and 1 assist and Terry MacKenna collected 4 points as the Panthers were all over the Red Devils. The U.N.B. team never even got on the scoreboard until Avalino Gomez's shutout was spoiled in the first minute of the third period.

The three Christmas recruits all figured on the scoring this weekend, and, I dare say, without them, the Panthers might have had a rougher time pulling off either win. Callie MacPhail played an exceptional game and Dave Currie seemed to have no problems adjusting from Junior Hockey to the faster, tougher university style. Darwin MacCutcheon, the tower of defence, seems to be just what the doctor ordered. He fills a gap in the "vacant defence", and now fans, forwards, and goal-tenders may begin to breath much easier when they notice the play being brought into the Panther end.

The U.P.E.I. Panthers are now in third place with 15 points. This is only three points less than the league leading Dalhousie Tigers and 1 less than the defending Canadian Champs at University de Moncton.

Panther Of The Week

Terry MacKenna, home from the pre-olympic team that played in Europe over the holidays is this week's "Player of the Week". Terry, not new for this recognition helped the Panthers win both games this weekend as he had 2 goals and 2 assists.
