MRS. JOHN E. MULLIGAN

The death of Mrs. John E. Mulligan occurred at her home in Emerald on November 11. The deceased (nee Margaret Duffy) was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Duffy of Kinkora.

When a young woman she married to Haverhill, Mass., where she married John E. Mulligan, returning to P. E. I. 30 years ago. She was a devoted and loving wife, a constant companion and help-mate, and a good friend and neighbour. She was a devout member of the Roman Catholic Church and for many years promoter of the Sacred Heart Society. She faithfully attended her religious duties up until her last illness when, on the above date and fortified by the "last rites" of the Roman Catholic Church, her soul took its flight to meet its Maker.

Besides her bereaved husband, there are left to mourn her loss, two sons and one daughter, namely, Mary, (Mrs. St. Clair Croken), Emerald; Gregory of Norboro and Emily at home, also nine grandchildren and one sister, Elizabeth Duffy of Haverhill, Mass. The funeral, largely attended by relatives, friends and neighbors was held from her home on November 3, to St. James Church, Summerfield, where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. E. L. Murray. Fr. Harold Croken was present in the Sanctuary. The burial took place in the adjoining cemetery where all that was mortal of a devoted wife and mother was laid to rest to await a glorious resurrection.

Pall-bearers were Everett Reeves, John T. Murtagh, Walter McCourt, Elmer Reeves, Upton Jones and John White.

Mass Cards, letters and cards of sympathy were many and bore silent tribute to the memory of the deceased. The following are the Mass cards, letters and cards of sympathy.
