

Perk-Up, Saints

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

ST. Dunstan's Varsity squad has first place all to itself in the Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey League. MacMillan made sure of this Saturday afternoon when he scored his half dozen goals for his first 65 minute shift. It was a big-point tussle and the Red and White were able to skate off richer by those four points.

However, the locals will need to be in better form when they host St. FX, UNB and St. Thomas. It looked Saturday as if MacMillan had an "off day" we hate to think what would have happened these four points. These Santamarians were a determined squad and they refused to be awed by Saint's reputation.

THIS doesn't mean that we have given up on Saints for their tough games ahead. No matter how bad they become, it would be next to impossible to lose to Tech. And that's four points more to add to the total.

We think, however, that in their remaining home games, the students from out the road will be up for these contests. We are sure that several of the fellows who merely posed as hockey players last Saturday will come through with performances which will be a credit to them. We aren't suggesting they must beat everybody from here in but we do think they have an excellent chance of doing just that if everybody does his share.

Chances Are Good

SAINTS lost two games this season and their biggest humiliation came at Chatham where the Tommies drubbed them 9-2. But Jack Kane and his boys must feel that they can still beat those Tommies once they get them over. After all, Dalhousie only lost 4-2 on the weekend at Chatham and Saints beat Dal' 5-3.

All we are wanting to see is the best effort the Saints can give. If they play to the best of their ability and then lose, they nobody should be the least bit upset. However, if they perform in a fashion similar to last Saturday they could well drop every remaining home game.

For the Tommies know how indifferent they were at times in that St. Mary's tussle. Nobody would spell out things for them. Perhaps some were more interested in wintering their mind activities than the hockey game. We're not sure but we do know that something was definitely wrong.

Saints should still be able to rise to the occasion and trounce these three visitors this month. The Xaverians must fail first and then the climax should come with the detests of UNB and St. Thomas.

How about it Saints?

On The Curling Scene

OUR congratulations to Roger Clair and his Montague rink on winning the provincial schoolboy curling championship and the right to represent this province at the Dominion championship in Regina later this month.

The Montague boys went right through the two-day competition without a setback and they came home to Montague to a rousing reception. The folks in their own town are extremely proud of their champions and well they might be. Perhaps some competitors in other parts of the province as they head west to fight it out in the Dominion finals.

PRINCE EDWARD Island women curlers are battling this week at Summerside Curling Club for a provincial championship to go to Edmonton to the Dominion finals.

This is one of the biggest fields ever to start out in the hunt for the provincial crown. The competition will be stiffened because a champion is crowned in the province.

However, before that championship is decided at Summerside, you can expect many upsets along the way. It's going to be a tough road, that, champions.

Mr. Dobry said praise for the treatment the boys have received in Quebec City.

Mike Sone On Out Bow

INNSBRUCK (CP) — Mike Sone, a Vancouver freestyle skier, was named to the Canadian team Monday night after spending nearly 24 hours in jail on the French second plane. A short while after, he dropped his bombshell with the announcement that he was renouncing his French citizenship, which he had acquired in 1952.

Police said he is to be tried Wednesday in a posting ball for an undisclosed amount. Sone also had to surrender his passport and his French citizenship to the police. The Canadian hockey reporter, there to cover the games, said that the Canadian hockey federation had to cover the games, which were held in the ice stadium Sunday night.
