

Words of Wisdom.

Bad taste is a species of bad morals. Let them obey who know how to rule. No thoroughly occupied man was ever yet miserable. The man who pauses on his honesty Wants little of the villain. Ungratefulness is the poison of manhood. As every thread of gold is valuable, so is every minute of time. A room hung with pictures, is a room hung with thoughts. Knavery is supple, and can lend, but honesty is firm and upright, and yields not.

Too great refinement is false delicacy and true delicacy is solid refinement. Errors like straws upon the surface flow: He who would search for pearls must dive below. Devote each day to the object then in time, and every evening will find something done. In this wide world the fondest and the best Are the most tried, most troubled, and distressed.

Never let your zeal outrun your charity. The former is but human; the latter divine. He who is the most slow in making a promise, is the most faithful in the performance of it. Put this restriction on your pleasures: Be cautious that they injure no being which has life. No more promise is more noble, as there is none more holy, than that of a true obedience.

The heart that is soonest awake to the flowers, is always the first to be touched by the thorns. When any calamity has been suffered, the first thing to be remembered is, how much has been escaped. The way to avoid imputation of impudence is, not to be ashamed of what we do, but never do what we ought to be ashamed of.

There is not in nature A thing that makes man so deformed, so beastly, As doth intemperate anger.

Household Recipes.

Bread Steaks.—Add a little milk, pepper, salt, and spice to an egg and beat well together. Cut some slices of bread of even size and shape, and fry brown in butter or oil. Drain on paper, pile on a dish, and serve with tomato sauce.

Savory Rice.—Take some plain-boiled rice, put it into a saucepan with a lump of butter, and add as much tomato sauce as the rice will take up, and plenty of grated cheese. Mix well, and keep stirring on the fire till hot. Serve piled high on the dish.

Cottage Pudding.—One egg—the white and yolk beaten separately—half a pint of sweet milk, one tablespoon full of butter, half a teaspoon of sugar, and nearly a teaspoon of flour and half a teaspoon of baking powder. Bake and serve with wine sauce. By the way we have known some pretty strict temperance folks take very kindly to wine sauce.

Old-Fashioned Indian-Pudding.—Two quarts of skimmed milk, two-thirds cup of molasses, and salt to taste. Scald half the milk, add the milk by degrees, stirring briskly, scald a few moments, and add to the cold milk, molasses, etc. Bake slowly three or four hours. Eat with cream sauce. If you haven't cream milk is a very good substitute.

Ox-Cheek Pie.—Take the meat from the head previously to making the soup shape it in neat pieces; mix a saucer of flour, seasoned with salt and pepper, dip each piece of meat into the mixture and fill a pie-dish with it; pour in a little water; cover with suet crust made in the proportion of half pound of suet, finely chopped, to one pound of flour; bake for two hours.

Suet Pudding.—Chop fine one cup of raisins and one half-cup of suet (one cup, if wanted very rich), add two cups of sweet milk, one cup of sugar, four cups of flour, two teaspoonfuls of soda, and a little salt. Cover tight and steam or boil two hours. Leave room to swell. Porked chopped fine, or a little less in measure of pork fat, may be used. Eat with liquid sauce.

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodic Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhoea, or White's Excessive of watery Discharge, Green Sticks, Falling of the Womb, Stomach of the Uterus or Vagina, Hysteria, Pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very on-fetted conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of this remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create entire confidence in the remedy by insuring its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.

THE ONLY PERMANENT CURE.

Tamworth, April 13.

Gentlemen,—I was troubled with painful back, and could not retain my urinal secretion, from painful inflammation of the bladder. I have been treated by a dozen physicians to no purpose, but have worn your Special Pad six weeks. The pain, swelling and inflammation are gone and I am well. Your Pad is the only cure for kidney disease.
