ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. [April 1 '88

Lines Written by a P. E. Islander in the Northwest.

Four thousand miles away from here,
Where I was born and bred,
There are my kindred, fond and dear,
The living and the dead.
I dream of them at dead of night,
I think of them by day,
And home my spirit takes its flight,
Four thousand miles away.

The land I'm living in is fair,
And broad, and rich and free,
But sweet enjoyment comes not where
Affection cannot be.
Oh! how my spirit ever yearns,
While sadly lingering day by day,
Far from my own, my native Isle,
Four thousand miles away.

How fair the scene, how fond the friends,
My happy boyhood knew,
Seen through the lapse of time, that lends
Enchantment to the view.
The very grapes are blooming where
The dear departed lie,
Whose love and care I used to share,
To whom I've said good-bye.

And tho' the land I'm living in
Is broad, and rich, and free,
I can't forget my Island home,
My country by the sea.
Oh! how my thoughts so often turn
To hill and dale so fair,
Till all my wishes fondly yearn
Once more more to breathe thy air.

Cardigan Notes.

The first showers of rain this week have had a wonderful effect on the general appearance of the country. The trees are in full bloom; even the slow old oak tree has put forth its foliage, and this part of the Island is looking extra fine just now.

The farmers have been very busy getting their planting finished, and almost every one appears to have a greater acreage than usual under crop. Grass and early grain looks well and promises an abundant yield.

Another shipment of cattle was made by the schr. Cardigan on the 1st inst., and the same vessel is now on the way back for her third trip. The schr. Lochiel is fitting out for a trading voyage on account of Captain Bisset, and several schooners are engaged in carrying coal and limestone for this port.

Business at the shops has been fairly good, but the planting has kept the farmers so busy that the rush for new goods is only just beginning.

A great many stock horses make Cardigan one of their principal stands, as it is the centre of a large and intelligent farming district. Among the draft stallions are old Brown Stout, whose stock getting qualities are well known, Hepburn Clyde, imported from Canada this spring, and a magnificent animal he is. His success is assured. Young Royal Tom is a fine sized horse, but not so great a favorite, owing to his vicious temper, he having seriously injured his groom at New Perth the other day. Young Brown Stout, a magnificent jet black horse, four years old, from Old Brown Stout, and a Black Knight mare is one of the best of our Island bred cart horses that travel this way, his weight being some 1500 pounds, and his form and points remarkably good. We congratulate Mr. Brothers, his owner, on his success as a breeder, and trust his enterprise will be duly appreciated by the farmers who want good general purpose animals. Mr. J. McMillan's young cart stallion, sired by Oaks Heart, is one of the best of that stallion's get, and bids fair to be a much better horse than his sire. In carriage horses a number of very fair Island bred colts are competing for patronage, among the best of which we noticed Callaghan's Young Hernando and Shaw's Black Pilot, both remarkably good style. The good blood of Hernando and Black Pilot in them should make marked improvement. These horses are young, sound and handsome, and all they want is greater age and a record to place them among the best. Much disappointment was felt here when it was found out that All Right, owing to the inconvenient arrangement of the trains, could not come to Cardigan this season.

Another cause of complaint in this section is owing to the mails being carried on the slow trains. Why cannot the mails be carried on the express in King's County as well as in Prince and Queen Counties? We hope to see this matter rectified.

Mr. Peter Grant has leased Carvell Bros' store, lately occupied by Mr. Holbrook, and is opening out a general stock of merchandise.

The carriage builders and blacksmiths are busy, and Mr. J. Lewis, house painter, has all he and his assistants can do.

Boston Prices.

POTATOES.—Receipts for the last six days 45,500 bush, previous six days 94,000 bush. Receipts have fallen off a good deal but are still more than enough for the trade. The weather has been hot and stock is sprouting badly. Prices are irregular. Quotations merely represent the asking prices for best hard stock, but rather than lose a sale, most receivers will make very liberal concessions. No further shipments should be made without making special inquiry by mail or telegram as to the prospect for placing stock.

Letter of Condolence

To the Widow and Family of the late George Seaman:

DEAR FRIENDS,—Since it has pleased the Almighty God to call from you your loving husband and father, we, the undersigned, in the behalf of the members of Banner Division, feel that we cannot permit this opportunity to pass without expressing to you our profound sympathy for the deep and irreparable loss that you have sustained, in the removal from among you by the hand of death of one whom you loved and in whom you confided.

Scarcely were you aware of his dangerous condition when death, the golden key of heaven, unlocked to him the mansions of God's palace, leaving you to mourn the loss of a loving husband and a kind and affectionate father.

And we further wish to state that during the time he was a member of our Division, we esteemed him very highly, on account of his ever willingness to do all in his power to promote the cause which to us is so dear; and we feel that in his death we have lost a faithful brother, a good, kind and obliging neighbor.

And now that the solemn procession is over, and his remains are carefully laid to rest in the bosom of its mother earth, we implore you to bury your sorrow and to seek a further enjoyment of Him in whom there is fullness of joy, and at whose right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

(Signed) J. W. GODFREY,
DA. THOMPSON,
ELIJAH GODFREY,
ISAAC THOMPSON,
DAVID HARPER.

Stray Notes.

Among our farming population there is a growing desire to procure the best breeds of all kinds of stock. Improved horses, bulls, rams, etc., are now introduced into our Province and a very superior grade may be seen in almost every barn yard throughout the country. Recently we had the pleasure of visiting the farm of Mr. D. A. Hunt, of Darnley, where some handsome animals are being raised. A pair of fine foals from the celebrated horse Administrator, imported by Mr. James A. Gourlie, Summerside, may be seen on the above premises, where horses and cattle of various kinds are raised. This locality and the adjoining settlement of Malpeque have not only improved stock but the latest improvements in agricultural implements of every variety. The residences throughout this section are of a superior order and the inhabitants are a highly educated and intelligent people.

Along the shores on the north side of our Island there are some of the finest farms that can be found in any country in the world, and with the facilities offered for fishing, fowling, boating, bathing, etc., the north shore should become the summer resort for tourists and all in search of invigorating food, air and exercise. A drive from Malpeque to Rustico along the shore road presents such variety of scenery as would repay the traveller who loves the green fields and wooded slopes of our beautiful Island home.
