Successful Supper At Church Hall

Last night the Beaver Club Hall, Montague, was filled to capacity when the ladies of St. Mary's Church sponsored and served a delicious chicken and ham supper which proved to be an excellent success.

It is estimated that supper was served to approximately 350 people. The congenial atmosphere, pleasant associations, and the sumptuous supper served to welcome the guests who attended from Montague and vicinity, and also from Charlottetown.

The supper was graced by the presence of His Excellency, James Boyle, Bishop of Charlottetown, who arrived early in the evening, accompanied by Rev. P. J. MacDonald, and were welcomed by Rev. W. J. McCardie, P.P.

The tables, which were beautifully decorated with lovely cakes, were bountifully filled with exquisite dishes prepared by the ladies of the church, and during the hours of serving from 5:00 p. m. to 7:30 p. m. were constantly filled.

During the supper a pleasant interlude of music was rendered by Mrs. Hugh Buchanan of Moncton, who is at present in Montague visiting Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nelson.

Following the supper the sale of cakes took place, auctioned by Mr. Guy Nelson, who so generously gave of his time to assist.

The sumptuous supper, combined with the large attendance, contributed highly to the great success of the supper.

The ladies are to be commended on the splendid manner in which the evening's program was carried out, and for the time which they spent in organizing and preparing this supper in order to make it such a success.

Thanks were extended to the ladies of the Beaver Club, who so generously provided the use of their hall for the supper, as thanks were extended to all who helped to make the supper the success that it was.

Amateur Contest Scheduled For Montague Tonight

Tonight the people of Montague and vicinity will once more have the opportunity of attending the amateur contest, sponsored by the Canadian Legion which will be held in Yeo's Theatre.

On the evening of the former contest which was held Nov. 2nd, the theatre was filled to capacity. In this contest numerous contestants from various parts of the province participated. The Legion is to be commended on the splendid manner in which the last contest was presented, and it is their hope that this one will be even more successful.

The Secretary of the Legion reports that a large number of entries have been received in the different classes, and several entertaining instrumental features have been booked for presentation, including the Brooklyn Trio, a troupe from Charlottetown, and some local talent which has always proved successful.

Taking into consideration the time and the work which the Legion has expended on organizing this contest, it should meet with admirable success, and give those in attendance a pleasant evening of entertainment.

IN MEMORIAM

FLORENCE CATHRYN MACDONALD

Widespread regret was felt by a large circle of friends and relatives when it became known on the morning of Oct. 25th that the Angel of Death had visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth MacDonalid of St. Peter's Bay and claimed for its victim their beloved little daughter, Florence Cathryn, at the tender age of three years and six months. Though never enjoying the best of health, hope for health was always held until a few days previous to her death. But medical aid and the tender nursing of a devoted mother proved to no avail and on the above mentioned date her little body gave up the fight for earthly existence and the tiny spirit winged its way Heavenward to be again united with the Blessed Lord who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me."

She leaves to mourn beside her sorrowing parents one little sister, Mary. Another sister, Judith Ann predeceased her two years ago. Her funeral, which was largely attended was held on Friday afternoon from St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, the service being conducted by Rev. W. V. MacDonald, pastor. The hearse was driven by Nelson Squires and the pallbearers were Robert MacCormac, Melvin MacLaren, Gordon Hayden and Gerard Gallant.

She was just a tender little blossom. A dear little flower from birth. God called her home to Heaven before she was scolded on earth.

Card Of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. MacDonalid wish to sincerely thank their many friends and neighbors for their kindness in their recent sad bereavement; also all those who sent cards and letters of sympathy.

Presbyterian W.M.S. Meeting

Mrs. W. A. Johnstone was hostess to the members of the Missionary Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, Tuesday evening.

The meeting, conducted by the president, Mrs. F. N. Young, opened with the call to worship, followed by the hymn, "Lord Bless and Pity Us." Mrs. Young then led in prayer.

A chapter from the study book was read by Mrs. J. A. MacKenzie, and the hymn, "Speed Thy Servants, Saviour, Speed Them" closed this part of the meeting.

A very interesting missionary letter from one of the church's foreign missionaries, Rev. Mr. Dixon of Formosa, was read, each member taking part.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. W. R. Garrick, and approved as read.

A large number of members responded to roll call which was answered with a verse of Scripture.

The very satisfactory report from the Thankoffering service was given by Mrs. A. C. MacKay.

It was reported that several members of the Society were sick and had been visited. The meeting closed with the hymn, "Go, Labour On."

At the close of the missionary meeting a short business session was held by the Ladies Aid Society conducted by the president, Mrs. A. D. MacLure.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by a committee of ladies.
