THE DAILY EXAMINER.
NOVEMBER 28, 1881.
Editorial Jottings.

The modern working of the English Constitution depends very much upon "understandings" which have never been defined by positive authority.

Sometimes these understandings, found on trust, break down, and positive regulation comes in. Magna Charta, The Petition of Rights, and the Bill of Rights, are instances in point.

Popular predictions often work their own fulfilment. This is especially the case when there is a deep feeling of coming catastrophe.

Few of us are aware of the vigorous life of Islam. It is patiently awaiting the removal of deadening excrescences in order to give full flow to its vigorous vitality.

We do not always find that general superiority on the side of the University-taught man, who by himself so often takes for granted.

There has been much excitement over the mode of conducting examinations in some of our Canadian Schools.

Brilliant examination answers are often deceiving. A marvellous amount of knowledge can be produced on paper by shallow scholars.

BANK OF P. E. ISLAND.
THE CASHIER ADVISES—LARGE INDEBTED-NESS OF THE PUBLIC—THE BANK SUS-PENDS SPECIE PAYMENTS, PENDING A SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS.

The absence during last week of Mr.
J. R. Brockton, Cashier of the Bank of Prince Edward Island, did not occasion particular remark.

A preliminary examination of the Bank's books by three members of the staff of the Union Bank, F. Mitchell, Esq., of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, and Henry Cundall, Esq., was begun at a very early hour this morning.

A large proportion of this amount will,
of course, be realized; and, pending settlements, the Directors have ordered a suspension of specie payments.

We have been authorized to state that the other banks are fully prepared to meet all the demands which can be made upon them; and, though the shareholders of the Bank of Prince Edward Island will probably be called upon to make up a pretty large balance, it is not likely that their customers will suffer direct loss.

Trade of Montreal.

The Montreal Gazette says:—The steady growth of our foreign trade is seen in the monthly returns of goods entered for consumption at this port during the past ten months as compared with the corresponding period in 1880, which exhibit the large increase of $4,538,273.

Table with 2 columns: Year (1881, 1880) and Amount ($). Rows for months from January to October.

The wholesale trade of the past week has been quiet in some departments, but on the whole fairly satisfactory.

SOME INTERESTING DEVELOPMENTS FOR BANK STOCKHOLDERS.

The very opening of the examination in the Merchants' Bank case in Newark, N.
J., makes some interesting revelations.

There has been much excitement over
the mode of conducting examinations in some of our Canadian Schools.

Brilliant examination answers are often deceiving. A marvellous amount of knowledge can be produced on paper by shallow scholars.

MESSRS. JOHN MACLEOD & CO., of this city, business of merchant tailoring here.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Apropos of the dynamite scare now existing in Charlottetown, the following story may not be out of place as illustrative of the terribly explosive nature of this article:—

On section 16 of the C. P. R., a short time since, dynamite was being extensively used for blasting purposes.

Yours truly,
JOSEPH POPE.

"No Rent."

The London Times says:—It is only too plain that after a brief interval of hesitation a considerable section of the people of Ireland have decided to adhere to the policy of the "no rent" manifesto.

Inspection of Raw Hides and Leather.

To All Whom it May Concern.

spector of Leather and of Raw Hides for the occupied by David Wilson, Esq., Richmond Street, opposite London House.

A Candid Opinion.

The Newmarket Era, a Liberal journal says:—"We must expect to see a declaration of some change in the trade policy of the Liberal party, a change that will afford a guarantee to the manufacturing and mechanical industries of the Dominion that the free trade theories on which the appeal of 1878 was made is not the trade policy of the Opposition to-day, before the party can hope to succeed at the polls next election."
