

Turner-Silliphant Wedding

A wedding of much interest to friends in Prince Edward Island and Saskatchewan was solemnized at St. Kevin's Church, Montreal, on Saturday, December 12 at ten o'clock a.m., when Reverend Father Alex Carter united in holy bonds of matrimony Barbara Frances, R.N., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Silliphant, Summerside, P. E. I., and Flying Officer William Moutat Turner, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Turner, Saskatoon, Sask.

The bridesmaids were Misses Frances and Leona St. Onge, who sang the duet, "Pansy Angelus," and "Ave Maria," accompanied by Mr. LaRue, church organist.

Following the ceremony, the young couple motored to Ottawa, where they will take up residence, the bride travelling in a chocolate brown tulle coat dress over which she wore a muskrat coat.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was guest of honor at several social events which have taken place in Montreal.

Morale was high because they now had all conveniences, he added. A rest and recreation centre had been built on the scene of one of the fiercest battles of the campaign.

IN MEMORIAM

JOSEPH HAROLD DOYLE

The community of Campbellton and surrounding districts were greatly saddened by the death in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside of Harold Doyle on Nov. 24, a citizen who was held in the highest regard by all his acquaintances.

The deceased was born at Campbellton 61 years ago, the youngest son of the late John and Elizabeth Doyle.

Mr. Doyle's life was one of faithfulness and devotion to the members of his family. His many deeds of kindness will be long remembered by his friends and neighbors as he was a real friend to all. In the community his neighborly spirit was also evidenced by the deep interest he took in all its activities.

But it is in the home where his presence will be missed the most, because he could always be found there, attending and directing the many details that are common to family life.

He was a devout member of the Catholic Church, receiving the last sacred rites before his death and was visited frequently in the hospital by Rev. J. H. LeClair.

There are left to mourn the loss of a good husband and father, his wife, the former Myrtle Deighan, also four daughters and five sons: (Margaret) Mrs. Edward Kibbee, Trenton, Ont.; Rebecca, Summerside; Mark, Toronto; Donnie, Joan, Paul, Betty, Holly and Eileen at home. He is also survived by four sisters: (Margaret) Mrs. Joseph MacKinnon, (Lennie) Mrs. Forester, (Regina) Mrs. Hudson Coughlin, all of Boston; (Mildred) Mrs. Wright, California; and one brother, Thomas, Arizona.

The largely attended funeral was held on Friday morning to St. Mark's Church, Lot 7, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. J. N. Trainor, who also performed the last rites at the grave.

Pall bearers were Messrs. Kenneth MacKendrick, Thomas Howland, Stephen Doyle, Edward A. Griffin, Mike Doyle and Harry MacKay.

The many spiritual offerings, floral tributes, etc., bear witness to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

May his soul rest in peace.
