The Chinese were the first to populate the Island of Formosa, when 100,000 refugees from the Manchus went there three centuries ago.
SYDNEY, Australia—(Reuters)—Three houses and a factory were destroyed in a southern suburb of Sydney recently when bush fire, raging for weeks in country districts of New South Wales, swept toward the city. The flames were fanned by 50-mile-an-hour winds.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

(By Thornton W. Burgess)
MR. BIG MEETS MR. BIG
It isn't size alone that counts. For courage of to more amounts. —Old Mother Nature.
What was going to happen? Mother Lightfoot's twins were holding their breath. In the moonlight on the shore of the little pond of Paddy the Beaver stood the two biggest Green Forest folks the twins had ever seen. One Mr. Big was Buster Bear. He had been there for some time and the twins had been watching him in wide-eyed wonder. Until they saw him, they had thought their father, Lightfoot the Deer, must be the biggest of all the folk in the Green Forest. Now another Mr. Big had suddenly stepped out of the darkness into the moonlight. Mother had whispered it

The two stood a little apart staring at each other.
"Cousin who?" whispered one of the twins.
"Cousin Flatthorn the Moose," replied mother Lightfoot.
"It he really our cousin?" asked the other twin in a awed sounding whisper.
Mrs. Lightfoot nodded. "Of course," said she. "Don't you see the crown he wears on his head? Only members of the Deer family wear crowns like that." Of course she meant antlers.
"It is funny to me," whispered the first twin.
"What is?" asked mother Deer. "His crown," replied the young Deer. "I think father's crown is much better looking."
Mrs. Lightfoot admitted that she did, too. She thought Light-

3 NT Pass Pass Pass
West's opening lead was the six of spades, and when the dummy was spread, South had something to think about.
One superficially tempting plan was to put up the spade queen in the hope of driving out the ace and thus establishing the spade jack as a sure entry. Then South could try for the 3-3 break of clubs which would give him four tricks in that suit.
If, however, the opening lead of the spade six was an honest fourth-best—and there was no good reason to doubt it—East did not have any spade higher than

THAT'S TRUE, OFFICER... THE SHEIK KNOCKED MY YACHT OVERBOARD AND SPED AWAY WITH THE GIRL IN HIS LAUNCH... THEN THESE SALORS ATTACKED AGAINST THESE CREW MEN?
I AM FAMILIAR WITH THE BENSON CASE, MR. KIRBY... WE WERE KEEPING THE YACHT UNDER SURVEILLANCE... DO YOU WISH TO PRESS CHARGES AGAINST THESE CREW MEN?
MAY I REMIND YOU, OFFICER, THAT THE SHEIK EL KAZAR IS A MAN OF INFLUENCE... AND NOT WHO YOU'D GET TOO MUCH OF A HEAD START.
LET'S FORGET THE WHOLE BUSINESS... ALL I WANT IS TO BE ON MY WAY BEFORE THE SHEIK AND BIJU BENSON GET TOO MUCH OF A HEAD START.
AS YOU WISH, MR. KIRBY... CAPTAIN, RELEASE THEM AND WE'LL CONSIDER THE INCIDENT CLOSED!
