Strong Criticism Voiced At CCF Convention Yesterday

Priddy, T. Toombs, J.P. Wallace, H. Mayne, Mrs. Ramsay, B. Gallant, Miss Holman, John MacLean, Clayton Smith, J.W. Howe, Stirling Miller, and J.N. Howe. Executive, Irving Toombs and J. N. Howe.

President Gallant presided at the convention at which an address was made by Mr. Carl Hamilton, M.A., B.Sc. National Organizer of the C.C.F. Party.

RESOLUTIONS
"Resolved we go on record, as denouncing the Premier's action in replacing a Marketing Board, which had been democratically elected, with one appointed by the Government. Further resolved that we support the Federation of Agriculture in the demand for a Marketing Board elected by the producers.

"Whereas urban workers in Prince Edward Island have no protection or established rights under present labour legislation, and almost all females work for gravely substandard wages, and men almost if not altogether as bad, with retail prices and rents as high here as in most places in Canada. Be it resolved that we go on record as in unanimous support of the following rights for labour:

"The right to organize in a trade union of their choice, be extended to the majority of eligible employees, in any and all industries, who signify such desire by secret ballot. When employees are duly certified under the act, the employees shall, on written notice, meet and bargain in good faith with the elected representative of the employees, and failing to do so meet and bargain shall be liable to an effective penalty for each offence. It shall be the duty of the Minister of Labour to enforce the terms and conditions of this act.

"A minimum wage law to provide sufficient pay to provide a reasonable standard of living for those employed in urban industries or service. Maximum hours of labour shall be 44 hours per week, and work performed in excess of 8 hours per day or 44 hours per week, be paid for at not less than one and one half times the regular rate. Annual holidays without loss of pay be granted to all employees on the basis of one week after one years service and two weeks working under contract.

"Employees shall not lose pay by reason of not having worked on any statutory holiday, and if work is performed on such days, shall be paid for at the overtime rate. The compensation act be amended, so that an employee injured on the job shall be paid for all lost time at regular rates, and the limit of twenty-five hundred dollars per year be deleted."

Other resolutions requested legislation which would prevent the farmer from being evicted as a result of economic condition, over which he has no control, the limitation of political patronage and corrupt practices, changes in the Election Act, in such matters as reducing the voting age to 18, abolition of the property vote, eight weeks notice of elections, prohibition of elections being held in April, and redistribution of seats after every census. It was also urged that all cars should be insured through a government owned company at cost.

Semi-Annual Meeting of Provincial Home, School Ass'n Is Held Yesterday

Mrs. J. P. Lantz, president of the Provincial Home and School Association, welcomed delegates to the semi-annual meeting of the organization yesterday afternoon at Prince of Wales College. She reminded the members that they had gathered to promote the welfare of the children and youth of the Province. Secondly, they were gathered together to exchange ideas on programming.

Mrs. J. Gordon MacDonald reported on the brief recently presented to the Provincial Government requesting that a royal commission be appointed as early as possible to investigate all phases of public school education in this Province, with special reference to financials.

It was reported that this brief was also supported by the Provincial Council of the Catholic Women's League, the Prince Edward Island Federation of Agriculture and the Charlottetown Board of Trade.

The organization has been promised a definite reply from the Provincial Government within the near future.

During the meeting various provincial chairmen submitted progress reports. Judge J. S. DesRoches announced that the constitution was now available to the Home and School Association in pamphlet form.

Miss Mona Clay invited all interested in parent-education programs to call upon her for material and help in organizing parents' discussion groups.

Prof. J. H. Blanchard, provincial archivist, reported that 18 home and school associations have completed their records and he invited the remaining associations to send in their completed historical questionnaires according to the information now available.

Queen Square Home and School Association is the oldest registered group in Prince Edward Island, being organized in 1883.

The matter of home and school workshops to train leadership was discussed and finally it was decided that the provincial executive should set up these schools.

Mr. Malcolm MacKenzie, provincial director of curriculum spoke on the very interesting subject of text books. He said that different systems of procuring texts were used in the various Provinces of Canada. These cover the free loan.

Judging of 4-H Clubs Completed At The Royal

Standing highest among Maritime entrants in the 4-H judging portions at the Royal Winter Fair were the Prince Edward Island Dairy Cattle team and the Poultry team. The first was composed of George Riley, Norboro, and Wayne Cameron, Head of Hillsboro, while the second was represented by Bradley Fay, East Baltic and Donald MacDonald, of Morell. Each of these teams took four place honors in Dominion competition.

In the girls' clubs, Miriam Hyde and Ruth MacPhail Meadow Bank came sixth in the garden competition and Mabel England, West Royalty, and Eunice MacNaughton, Carleton Lot 6, came 7th in the sewing competition.

It has been pointed out that 4-H club work has a value beyond the show ring, the sewing kitchen or the meeting hall. It aids in the development of the individual and equips boys and girls with certain tools necessary to the complex business of living.

There were 118 4-H club boys and girls along with their leaders at the big fair. Mrs. Maylea Hamming and Mr. Robert Pierce accompanied the Island group to Toronto.

Public Meeting For P.E.I. At Fair

H.L. McLaren, District Inspector of the Seed Potato Certification Office here, returned Monday night from the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair in Toronto, where he had assisted Dr. Ora Smith, Potato Specialist from Cornell University, in judging the certified seed potatoes, the table stock, the 4-H Club exhibits and the Ontario Department of Agriculture Commercial.

Prince Edward Island came into its own in the seed potato class when S.A. McAulay of East Baltic was awarded the World's championship for his Katahdin entry.

The competition for the trophy was very keen with the reserve going to British Columbia on the Netted Gem variety.

In commenting on the award Dr. Smith remarked on the time and patience required to select such a perfect sample of seed potatoes as Mr. McAulay's entry of Katahdins, - and, believe it or not, his sample was No. 13 on the entry list.

MR. CARL HAMILTON

Mr. Hamilton then addressed the gathering, he congratulated the officers on the work done and told them how impressed he was with the status of the C.C.F. in P.E.I. He urged them not to be discouraged by the C.C.F. Party in such matters as the Election Act, in such matters as reducing the voting age to 18, abolition of the property vote, eight weeks notice of elections, prohibition of elections being held in April, and redistribution of seats after every census. It was also urged that all cars should be insured through a government owned company at cost.

It is a well known and established fact that some of the worst teaching is done on the University levels, where those with their M.A.'s and Ph.D.'s completely fall in their task of instruction, largely because of their failure to have studied professionally and scientifically what is involved in real learning situations."

Mr. Parker emphasized also the need for public enlightened opinion.

SCHOOL UNITS
Dealing with the limitation of the teaching profession, Mr. Parker said there are 359 one-quarter of 482—more than total of 482—more than one practical solution and to provide separate accommodation for grades 7 to 10.

"Admittedly," he added, "School Unit No. 1 has run into difficulties, difficulties which any humble opinion should not look back on the origin of School Unit, two factors were sufficiently safe-guarded. First amalgamation of the school divisions concerned was superimposed by government decree before ratepayers themselves had decided that the step was a good thing for their children. And second, rural areas under one administration was bound to exaggerate assessment and tax-paying inequalities.

"On the other side of the picture the positive results of the operation of School Unit No. 1 are obvious to the unbiased and prejudiced observer. Sound school administration by a qualified Board, immeasurably improved morale of the teachers, better instruction, better communication in schools and substantial increase in supplements paid to teachers. About this there can be no objective disagreement whatsoever. Exhaustive research from coast to coast has been made on this subject. The retention of the small one-teacher three-man school board, inefficient, financially wasteful and

But we have to be realistic about these matters. Any hope of substantial support from the Federal Government belongs to the dim and unpredictable future. In the meantime we are going to fold our hands in despair and wishful thinking?"

"Here again is an opportunity for potato growers to send entries of tablestock to the general class of different varieties and also to the class for cooking potatoes as thousands of people view these exhibits every day and see where the prize winners are from."

"This year P.E.I. had no entry in the general class and only one in the quality cooking potato class."
