

TO GUAM AFTER WEDDING

Miss Mary Annabel Ross, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Ross of Pinette, Belfast, was given in marriage to A-2C Richard T. Longworth of the U.S. Air Force on Tuesday night, May 16th. The simple ceremony was performed at the study of the Reverend Ernest C. Evans of Zion Presbyterian Church in Charlottetown.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of blue lace with white accessories and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The bridesmaid was the bride's sister, Miss Verna Ross. She wore a rose colored ballerina length dress with white accessories and she wore a corsage of carnations.

Best man was the bride's brother, William A. Ross.

The groom is a director-producer of television programs for the United States Air Force and will next be stationed in the Far East Command on the Island of Guam in the Pacific.
