

not dobling but that our enlarged acquaintance in our interesting country will prove greatly profitable to our happiness.

I am, with great respect, yours faithfully, W. MURRAY. Charlottown, 21st July, 1854.

We were highly pleased during the hour we spent last evening with Mr. and Madame Raymond. His language is choice and classical, and his manner is dignified and impressive, and even the slightest touch of buffoonery. We listened to his anecdotes which were told with that ease and freedom that is the mark of a man of good nature and good sense. A good laugh is a good thing, and we had great pleasure in laughing ourselves, and almost as great in laughing others.

From the natural ease, and practised versatility of his style, we have no doubt that his success on Monday evening will be as great as he has been as a lecturer, as was that of last evening, with his powers as a humorist.

The British Mail arrived on Thursday last in the Steamer Lady La Marchant. Although we have no report of any important engagements, the account of the movement of the armies and fleets and their ultimate designs will be told with much interest and interest looked upon with suspicion.

Correspondence of Haszard's Gazette. DEATH BY DROWNING.—On Wednesday, the 12th inst., Mr. John McNeill, about 22 years of age, was taken on board the boat of Lot 7, with two of his brothers, was knocked overboard by the main boom, and being the strongest swimmer in the boat, as well as there being no oars in the boat, and his two brothers becoming confused, it so happened that he was the last to be rescued. He was rescued by several pieces of board towards him, but he was not rescued until he was nearly dead. He was in a short time, became exhausted, and came to rest in a few minutes, and was found floating in the water. The deceased was a native of this Island, but had returned to Charlottown with his parents about a year since, his untimely death being caused by a large circle of relatives and acquaintances. How true it is that in the midst of life, we are in death.
