Eagles, Combines Battle To 4-All Deadlock Sunday

SUMMERSIDE — The RCMP Eagles and Prince County Combines battled to another 4-4 deadlock at the afternoon rink yesterday afternoon, the third period featured three ten-minute and a game misconduct by the Combines.

The flare-up started at 13:06 of the final frame. Don Whelan gave Great Grady a minor for tripping. It was a delayed whistle. It was the Eagles still attacking and Joe Conle gave Vince Harris two minutes for interference before the play stopped.

Harris drew a 10-minute for conduct for breaking his stick on the ice. Benny Grady drew a 10-minute and game misconduct in quick succession for arguing too vigorously with the referee.

Five minutes later Charlie Sark got tagged with a 10-minute misconduct for whispering an obscene invitation in Cole's ear as he was giving the particulars of Sark's minor penalty to the timer.

The Combines led 2-0 at the end of the first period. 3:2 when the sandwich session ended, and 4:2 after 6 minutes on the ice in the final period. The Eagles made it 4-3 at 12:30 and then scored the tying goal when the Combines were playing two men short.

Harris drew a 10-minute for Combines. Ron MacArthur, playing coach of the Prince County team playing centre instead of his regular defence position, and racked up three assists.

Jack Kane's St. Dunstan's, Varsity squad, is in the thick of the fight for the Maritime interscholastic hockey crown after a spine-tlinging 11-10 victory at Mount Allison at StJ. rink Saturday afternoon.

The triumph gave the Red and White sound two victories in four tries this season. They previously had beaten St. John's and Halifax and followed that verdict with head breaking wins over St. John's and CNR. Saturday play at Sackville next Wednesday night and Nova Scotia Tech on January 26.

The Kanemem grabbed a 5-3 edge in the opening period of a then battered the Mount on as it turns the rest of the distance. Each outfit scored three times in each of the second and third sessions.

BIG TRIO

St. Dunstan's big line of Dick Tingley, Bob Marshall and Billy Mulligan were the thorns in the sides of the visitors. Tingley potted three goals as did each of his linemates, but the lanky hockeyist from Campbellton, B.C. was the game's biggest pointgetter when he helped set up six others. Billy Mulligan, the four assists and one goal, shall help on one. Defencemen Mike O'Brien and Colin MacMillan were the other St. Dunstan's scorers.

Clive Hoffman rifled home four goals for the Nova Brunswickers. Andre Desjardins netted three and Dave McLernon sank three in the final period.

The Mounties never were in front of the net. Seven seconds later Benny O'Grady beat Walsh with a shot from deep left wing. Hutchins broke fast to fire one past Mann with about three minutes to go.

Alan Andrews chopped the puck past Walsh from a wild scramble in front of the cage with the goaler down at 4:47. The lone defenceman, Ken MacDonald got a fluke goal at 12:40, his high shot from the side of the cage hitting Mann's elbow and dropping behind the goal line. With the Combines skating three men to five after the flurry of penalties Mann finally shot the tying score and ended a prolonged bombardment on the Combine cage.

Islanders See Kennedy Cause as Reason for Losing Game

BOSTON (CP) — The goal-tending wizardry of Lorne Gump Worsley led New York Rangers to a 2-1 victory over Hockey League victory over Boston Bruins here Saturday afternoon.

Even the presence of 62 Prince Edward Island fans, cheering Islanders, did not help Kennedy who scored the first Boston goal, failed to rally the Bruins to victory.

The Canadian visitors, who included Kennedy's wife and New Brunswickers Gordon Drillon, for years a right wing star with Toronto Maple Leafs, were delayed in arriving. Their plane landed at Boston airport at 1 p.m., but they reached the arena in time for the second.

The Rangers snapped a four-game losing streak by beating the last-place Bruins. It was only Rangers' second victory in nine games since Bill Sullivan took over from Muzz Patrick as coach.

The Broadway Bluebirds jumped into a two-goal lead on first-period goals by Camille Barry and Gary (Hoffman) Kennedy — born in Dorchester, N.B., but brought up in Charlottetown — but the Bruins in the score sheet, with his sixth goal of the season.

The Bruins tied the score early in the second period on a goal by Doug Mofshin, and Jean Ferguson took the lead again, goals by Earl Ingeff and Jean Rattle. Johnny Ruessky narrowed the New York margin on one goal before the period ended.

Garth Harris opened the scoring past Walsh after 36 minutes of play. Benny Grady scored a tying goal when the Combines were playing two men short.

Walsh was the tying goal when the Combines were playing two men short.

Walsh was the tying goal when the Combines were playing two men short.

From finished and in five seconds Hoffman and Desjardins scored on breakaways. They kept pouring it and goalie Butch Callaghan pulled off his best save of the day with two on his doorstep in the dying minutes.

But after Butch prevented the tie, Billy Mulligan tore down left wing and passed to Tingley for the cruder. Mounties tried desperately to get back in the scoring column but they were through for the afternoon.

Brian Lewis called a total of thirteen penalties, with the visitors collecting nine of them. One of those was a ten-minute misconduct to Darrell Pollock.

Another large crowd witnessed Saturday's struggle.
