Summer Arrangement—F. W. Hales. Mails—John A. McDonald. Public Lands—John Aldous. Mails—Thomas Crabb. Moving West—Henry Oliver. Shawl Lost—Michael FitzGerald. Who Found It—Journal Office. The Steamers of the P. E. Island S. N. Company have again altered their time. They will hereafter make their trips each week from Charlottetown to Summerside and Shediac, and return, three times. This new arrangement, although it may give passengers and shippers leaving here a little trouble, will be found to be a good one for passengers going to St. John and the United States. The steamers call at Holman's wharf, while the other wharf is undergoing repairs.

We were shown yesterday some very large new potatoes, from the garden of the Rev. Mr. Frame. We learn that the Mackerel are coming in very plenty this season. At a stage owned by the Hon. G. W. Howland, near Caspucumpe Harbor, the boats took 45 barrels mackerel on Friday and Saturday last. At Mimingash on Friday last, one man and his boy took 1000 mackerel, and a number of others took from 300 to 600 each. Mr. Matheson's stage there is doing well. The prospect thus far is very encouraging.

The Examination of the Convent de Notre Dame, at Tignish, took place on Saturday last. A great number of persons were present. We are informed that the Examination was very satisfactory.

The crops to the Westward of the Island look well, and very promising. The early sown wheat especially is good. Potatoes, in some places, have missed, but still there will be an average crop. Several persons have commenced hay making. We noticed the mowing machine at work in a very fine field of hay belonging to Herbert Bell, Esq., of Alberton, while passing that way last Monday. The vast improvements that are being made through the Western Road and different other parts West, is really astonishing. We do not wonder that many old farmers from the Eastward are purchasing farms in the West.

It is said that Fruit will be very plenty this Summer. Remember the Auction Sale of Mr. Andrew Campbell, Lot 16, on Tuesday next.

TEMPERANCE UNION.

According to notice, a meeting of the three Temperance organizations in Malpeque and vicinity, was this day convened in the Mechanic's Institute, having in view the organization of a Union Society, for promoting the cause of temperance by unity of action.

Mr. Arch. McKay was chosen chairman, and the undersigned secretary. After remarks from several persons, the following resolutions were carried:

Resolved, That Union Temperance Meetings, composed of members of Evening Star Division, S. of T., Franklin Temple and Trafalgar Lodge, would greatly further the cause of Temperance in our midst.

Resolved, That this society be known as the "Princeton Temperance Union."

Resolved, That this society be governed by a President, two Vice Presidents, a Secretary and Treasurer, and a committee of nine equal members, to be chosen from each society.

Resolved, That the election of officers shall be annually, and on the last Monday in June of each year.

After the election of officers, and addresses from several members, the meeting was closed by singing, to meet again on Monday, the 12th July, at 8 o'clock.
