A CORRESPONDENT at the west end of the city writes: "Some sixteen years ago the residents of the western end of the city fancied themselves annoyed by the screeching of Dawson's factory whistle. ZERA had an uncomfortably crowded house last night. The Professor is a decided success, and judging from the numerous plaudits and loud bursts of laughter from the audience, his entertainment was greatly appreciated. The Marionettes were heartily enjoyed, and "Joe" and "Tim," the speaking dolls, caused much amusement. Mr. Patrick Rooney drew the silver watch, Mr. Benj. Keeping drew a fine china tea set, and Mr. Daniel Douglas the barrel of flour. Many other costly presents were also distributed. Zera will again appear to-night. The programme will be entirely changed, and presents similar to those of last night will be distributed. Give him a bumper house, as he deserves.
