Two Prophecies as to the Results of the Elections.

(From the Hc. Herald.)

In order that our readers may have at once a little amusement, and perhaps not a little serious thought, we publish this morning two prophecies of the possible results of the elections. The first is the prediction of Mr. Pattullo, which was sent down here to the Grit organs, and by them scattered broadcast over this Province.
Read it:—

THE GRIT PROPHECY.

TORONTO, Sept. 3.

"In a speech delivered in the county of Halton, on Friday night, and published in to-day's Globe, Mr. G. R. Pattullo, Secretary of the Ontario Reform Association, reviews the election prospects and predicts a triumphant Liberal victory. He estimates that the Government will, on the 17th of Sept., be found to have carried two-thirds of the constituencies of the Province of Ontario; that they will have improved their position in Quebec; that they will have carried seven-eighths of the seats in New Brunswick; that they will have carried Nova Scotia by a four-fifths majority; that they will have carried Prince Edward Island solid; and that in the Western Provinces they will stand very little, if any, worse than they do now. The only condition necessary to such a victory, Mr.
Pattullo says, is that Reformers in every polling division of every riding in the Dominion shall, from this time till the night of polling day, work earnestly, unitedly and systematically, to poll and secure their full vote."

Now let us turn, by way of commentary, to the

LIBERAL CONSERVATIVE PROPHECY.

The following appeared in the Herald the day before the election:—

"Information from the most reliable sources leads us to anticipate the result of the election as follows:—

	Grit.	Opp.
Ontario,	48	40
Quebec,	22	43
Nova Scotia,	2	19
New Brunswick,	7	9
P. E. Island,	1	5
B. Columbia,	1	5
Manitoba,	2	2
	83	123

"That the above outline will be fully filled in on election day, our readers may reasonably feel assured."

It is true we were not quite correct in details, but in the general result we were only too moderate in our statements. We gave the Opposition a probable majority of 40.

In fact the Opposition majority has run up to something like 74. We shall leave the public to judge of the relative truthfulness of the two accounts, and of the people who published them.

A more glorious victory cannot be gained over another man than this, that when the injury began on his part, the kindness should begin on ours.

TELEGRAPHIC

Toronto, Sept. 19.

Remaining returns are as follows:—
Addington—J. McRory, Opposition.
Brant, N. R.—G. Flewelling, Government.
Leeds and Grenville, N. R.—Dr. Ferguson, Opposition.
Middlesex, E. R.—McMillan, Opposition.
Middlesex, W. R.—N. Carrie, Opposition.
Simcoe—S. R. Little, Opposition.
Waterloo—S. R. Merner, Opposition.
Welland—C. Bunting, Opposition.
Wellington—N. R. Drew, Opposition.
Argenteuil—Christie, Government.
Saguenay—E. Cimon, Opposition.
Hochelaga—A. Desjardins, Opposition.
Montcalm—Dugas, Opposition.

Ottawa, Sept. 19.

The capital is wild with excitement over the victory of the Conservatives. Wright's majority is 1700; Currier's, 502; Tasse's, 418; Hamilton's, 19. The great defeat of the Government has produced a most profound impression here.

Ottawa, Sept. 18.

McKenzie and Cartwright came here in great haste and terribly excited. It is probable that there will be no unnecessary delay in resigning, as they must be convinced of the feeling of the country. In fact, it was thought by some that they had made preparations for resigning, in anticipation of the result of the elections.

There will be a grand Liberal-Conservative demonstration to-night. The excitement is very great, though the result was anticipated to a large extent.

Ottawa, Sept. 18.

McKenzie on his arrival acknowledged openly that his party and Government are completely shattered. He will wait pro forma for official returns from British Columbia and Manitoba, when he will immediately resign. The leaders of the party in Ontario and Quebec urge him to this.

London, Sept. 19.

Peter Freeman, the confessed murderer from Bull River, South Carolina, was before Bow Street Court to-day for the fourth time, and was again remanded for a week.

The case of Thomas Forbes, charged under the extradition law with having obtained $13,000 by false pretences from Mrs. Francis H. Walker, of New York, was to-day adjourned till Saturday.

The liabilities of Hurdy & Sons, West India merchants, are £80,000.

England and Germany have sent identical instructions to their naval commanders relative to action against Chinese pirates.

Vienna, Sept. 19.

Gen. Zach has captured two outposts on the hills before Belias. The insurgents made a furious effort to retake them.

Another telegram states that the Austrians have commenced the bombardment of Behics.

It is reported here that the Christians have revolted in Turkish Croatia.

Paris, Sept. 19.

Gambetta's speech at Romans contained the complete programme of the Left—which includes the dismissal of anti-Republican functionaries; the reorganization of the army, from which politics should be excluded, but where the law must be respected even by those in highest commands; the abolition of the favoritism now shown to the Ultramontanes; and the exclusion of all citizens from the priesthood until they have performed military duty. Each point of the programme was enthusiastically cheered. Ten thousand people escorted Gambetta to his hotel, singing the Republican hymn.

London, Sept. 19.

A Constantinople despatch says the Grand Vizier has promised Minister Layard to
