Centennial Medallion To Be 1964 Souvenir

The Provincial Centennial Committee has announced that it will have a special 1964 commemorative medallion struck which is expected to be a treasured souvenir.

The medallion will be struck in five different metals, with one of aluminum for distribution to the school children of the province.

The face of the medallion will depict the new Fathers of Confederation Memorial Building, while the reverse will show the centennial symbol on a plain background.

Since the building complex is being erected by the people of all Canada to honor the event, the (First Conference on Confederation) it should be the principal figure of the commemorative medallion.

ALSO IN GOLD

A striking of the medallion in golden bronze and also in bright bronze will be issued in unlimited quantity for general sale to the public at $1.00, a striking limited to 5,000 will be available in sterling silver at $5.00 and no doubt will become collectors' items. A special, almost deluxe copy, in 10 karat gold will be available at $50.00.

The dies have been designed and the medallions are being struck by Canadian Artistic Dies Inc., in Sherbrooke, Quebec, under direction of a master craftsman. It is expected that the medallions will be available shortly after the first of the new year, and may be obtained by mail from the Centennial Committee Inc., Box 2000, Charlottetown.
