

SERVING IN NAVY

Petty Officer Clifford M. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Lee, 34 Kensington Road, Charlottetown, P. E. I. is serving in H.M.C.S. Gatineau, a destroyer escort in the Atlantic Command of the Royal Canadian Navy. He attended Queen Square School in Charlottetown before joining the Navy in February, 1951. the Court Mission and various charities. There are 126 Guilds, 17,000 members and 650 garments distributed. The speaker was W.C.A. Joyce, Headmaster of Cotswold School, also TV interviewer, author of several books and Police Court Commissioner. He spoke on adolescence and the need for more religion in the homes and home life.

There was also a short skit by the Misses E.D. Waters, known as TV and stage comedians—Daisy and Gert. I had the pleasure of meeting them at the tea hour. The Chairman closed her remarks by expressing to the Queen Mother our happiness that she had a safe return journey from her last tour.

At the close of the meeting the Queen Mother received each guest. How thrilling that was! She said she was so interested to hear that I was representing the Charlottetown Branch and asked how long I had been in England. I did not forget to curtsy.

We then had tea and were fortunate enough to sit at the next table to the Queen Mother. I could not keep my eyes from watching her talking to other guests. The meeting was so informal and gracious.

I do hope this report will give you all some idea of the pleasure Mrs. Blake and I had that day, which will long be remembered.

SPOKE TO QUEEN MOTHER
I cannot begin to tell you says Mrs. E. A. Blake, how much Mrs. Longworth and I enjoyed ourselves on Tuesday. She is sending you a full report and she really did speak to the Queen Mother as representative of the Charlottetown Branch. I merely curtsied and shook hands.

I went to Mrs. Longworth's flat for lunch. We then got to the Palace at 3.15, found ourselves excellent gang way chairs where we could watch everyone and settled down to enjoy ourselves. At 3.30 we rose for the Queen Mother's entry.

Lady Amphill conducted the meeting. Short reports of the bracelet set with sapphires and brooch to match. She radiates charm and personality and every one loves her.

Queen Elizabeth, The Queen Mother, arrived most graciously and sat beside the Chairman Lady Amphill. The Queen Mother wore a beige feather hat, beige satin brocade dress, embellished with very pale blue roses, a mink stole and her beautiful rope of pearls, also a diamond

On March 25, the Guild dispatched and went by C.N.R. freight five cartons containing 170 pounds of mens overcoats, suits and other articles to Korean Relief. These were dispatched as usual through the kind offices of the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada whose devoted welfare worker Lotta Hitchmanova travels throughout the East and brings help to thousands of Arabs, Jews, Moslems and Hindus and all other destitute and homeless men, women and children.

THANKS FOR GIFTS
The following letter was received by Elsa Lehmann, Honorary Secretary of the Montreal Branch of the Unitarian Service Committee said in a letter. "We wish to express to your Guild our most sincere thanks and warm appreciation for your really amazing contribution of 170 pounds of lovely articles for our work in Korea and the Middle East. The garments were all so warm and useful. It was a real joy to unpack your five cartons and repack the contents into our donated tea chests. I heard exclamations of joy and approval over the wonderful coats for men. Your cartons were so clearly marked in the corner which is a great help to me. It would be fine if all our contributors did the same, with renewed grateful appreciation."

It might be voted here that while in New York last year on refugee business, Mrs. Lehmann narrowly escaped from a bad fire which might have cost her life.

At the Annual Meeting January 29th, a heartfelt appeal was made from the above organization for help to fill almost empty shelves and an announcement that the United Nations had appealed to Madame Hitchmanova and the Unitarian Service Committee to provide 25,000 layettes for Arab refugee babies. This was the largest project ever undertaken by the U.S.C. and is giving them great anxiety—so we are asked to join the "largest baby shower in Canada" and were glad to respond. This layette consists of four diapers, two nightgowns, two shirts, two jackets, one towel, one cake laundry soap and four safety pins. This seems extremely inadequate from a western standpoint but to an Arab mother, a great boom.

It is imperative that our donation must be dispatched within the next three weeks. Many women are using old flannellette sheets pinked with scissors for diapers. Please phone 4038 for

Also two sisters, Agnes, Mrs. John Malone, Souris, Mrs. Ed Evans, Haversham, Mass., two children predeceased her, Ethel and Cyrus.

Her largely attended funeral was held March 16th, at the home of her son Bennett Deighan, Emerald, to St. James Church Summerfield where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Pastor, Rev. Eugene Murray, Rev. Preston Hamill, Rev. Harold Croken, Rev. Phelan McKenna, Rev. Reginald MacDonald, were present in the Sanctuary. Pallbearers were James Allen, Ollie MacCarville, Percy Murphy, Lloyd McCourt, Pius Croken, and James Murphy, and all that was left of a kind and loving mother was laid to rest in the family plot, to await the glorious resurrection.

Although in failing health for many years she continues to take interest in the family, friends, church and community affairs. She was Susanna Whalen daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Whalen of Freetown, and as a young and happy bride came to live with her husband in Emerald, until three years ago she moved with her daughter Alice to Summerside. Her husband died fifteen years ago.

Her countless deeds of neighborliness and charity will long be remembered by the people of Emerald and no more fitting tribute could be paid to her than to say "a friend in need is a friend indeed". She was a devoted Catholic and a loving mother whose hospitality in her home was known far and wide. She was tenderly cared for in her declining years by her daughter, Mrs. Carrol Hughes and
