The Guardian may be bought at any of the following places in Montague: Miss S. A. Llewellyn; Mrs. Clay, in Georgetown: The Post Office; in Souris: The Snack Bar and H. Richards & Son.

FITTED FOOTWEAR at Montague Shoe Store. Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Hill Montague have moved to Charlottetown where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Fraser and daughter Althea of Los Angeles California are visiting Mrs. John E. Fraser, and Mr. and Mrs. William Fraser in Montague for a few days.

Visiting in Montague are the Misses Margaret and Anne Shank and Messrs John and Harry Shank and daughter June of Dorchester Mass. They will remain here for a few weeks. Mr. John A. MacKenzie, Montague is their uncle.

ATTENDING CAMP—Elsie Poole, Rena Llewellyn, Enola MacKenzie, Betty Hewitt, Thelma Stewart and Mabel MacLean, all of Montague, left Monday for the Presbyterian Camp for girls at French River. They were accompanied by Miss Anne MacEachern who is one of the camp leaders this year. Rev. F. N. Young, Mrs. Young and their son, Donald, are also spending the week at the camp.

VISITING MINISTER TAKES SERVICE—On Sunday morning the service in Trinity United Church, Montague was conducted by Dr. J. J. Downing of Montreal, who is conducting service while Dr. A. D. MacKenzie is away on business on holidays. The theme of Dr. Downing's sermon was "Enter Thou Into The Joy of the Lord;" he stressed the point that although we may be living as Christians, we cannot act in the fullest measure or get the most out of life unless we take Christ as our partner. "A Christian life," said Dr. Downing, "is not the easiest life, but it is full of unspeakable joy although sometimes the physical state is tormented." The choir rendered the anthem "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Llewellyn-MacKinnon Nuptials Yesterday. Peter's Road Presbyterian Church was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon, July 18th, at 3 o'clock, when Phyllis June, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Les MacKinnon, Murray River, was united in marriage to Bryer Keith, son of Mr. James Llewellyn, Murray Harbour North.

Donates Trophy To Encourage Drama In King's County. Those who may be interested in dramatics will be glad to know that a trophy to be used to encourage one act plays in King's County, is being donated by Mr. Carl Boehner, Montague. This information was given to the Drama Association at their annual meeting held recently at P.W.C. by the King's County vice president, Mrs. W. A. Bruce, Valleyfield.

Speaking on drama at the Women's Institute district convention, Upper Montague, Mrs. Bruce referred to the helpful service of catalogues of plays, and also lending plays to be read. Helpful correspondence with the provincial president, Mrs. Harold Laird, and the provincial secretary, Mrs. Ray MacLeod throughout the year was much appreciated. Mrs. Julian Herring and Mrs. Fred Gates, other executive members are also always willing to help in any way. Mrs. Bruce made many contacts throughout King's County during the year, and a number of one act plays were presented although none were entered in the festival. Several memberships were paid however, including Whim Road and Valleyfield Women's Institutes.

Mrs. Douglas MacGowan, Montague has been appointed vice president for King's County for the coming year, and hopes that those preparing plays will make selections suitable to be entered in the 1951 provincial festival.

In spite of showers and threatening skies, a large number attended the Albion School picnic held at Whiteman's Point on Friday afternoon. Water sports and games provided much enjoyment; to those who took part in these activities. The ladies of the district served a delicious picnic supper to everyone present before leaving for their homes.

For the past two weeks a daily vacation bible school has been conducted at Whim Road under the leadership of Mr. Stanley Straight, assisted by Miss Miriam Martin and Miss Elsie Martin. During this time the children were given Bible work, the theme of this year's program being the Christian soldier. On Friday night, the parents were invited to a display of the work done and to hear the songs and verses they had learned. The time and effort the teachers had expended was shown by the successful manner in which was it carried out. On behalf of the parents a vote of thanks was extended to the teachers for their services.
