Is What a London Doctor Calls
Dodd's Kidney Pills.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—A large decrease in the number of cases of Kidney Disease has been noted in this city during the past year.
"There's only one thing to be said about it," said a prominent physician, speaking on the subject to-day.

"This falling off is due solely to the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills by the people. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the most wondrous kidney remedy ever known. They are used in nearly every household, which accounts for the great decrease of Kidney Complaints."

The Inquisitive Tongue.

The curiosity of the tongue does not cause the human being so much trouble as the curiosity of the eye. But the tongue, within its limits, is the most curious of all.

Let the dentist make a change in the mouth, let him remove a tooth or replace with his admirable artifice one that has long been absent, let him change the form of a tooth by rounding off a corner or building up a cavity and see what the tongue will do. It will search out that place, taking careful and minute account of the change.
Then it will linger near the place. If it is called to other duties, it comes back as soon as they are discharged and feels the changed place all over again, as if it had not explored and rummaged there already.

It makes no difference that these repeated investigations presently cause annoyance to its supposed master, the man. The tongue in waiting more than in this matter proves that it is an unruly member and will not be controlled.

It seems to have an original will and consciousness of its own, and nothing will serve it except the fullest satisfaction of its curiosity. It will wear itself out, perhaps, but it will find out all about the strange change.—Boston Transcript.

The Moon's Atmosphere.

The recent conclusions of the French scientists, MM. Loewy and Puiseux, as to the possible presence of some gaseous envelope on the moon's surface are of very general interest. After giving reasons for concluding that the formidable volcanic eruptions of which the moon has been the theater belong to a recent time in the history of our satellite, they point out that these eruptions must have set at liberty great quantities of gas or vapors, while the diffusion of cinders on the lunar surface to great distances infers a gaseous envelope of a certain density.

Has the time, they ask, which has elapsed since the great eruptions sufficed to bring about the total disappearance of this gaseous envelope?
Considering that the already solidified lunar surface could only have absorbed the gases slowly and with difficulty, they conclude that from their examination of the lunar surface there are serious grounds for believing that there exists at the present time a residue of atmosphere of which the detection, surrounded as it is with great difficulties, may yet be realized.

When Jay Gould Wrestled.

John Burroughs, the writer, was in his boyhood days a schoolmate of Jay Gould. To Theodore Dreiser, who tells the story in The New Voice, Mr. Burroughs gave this anecdote of Gould: He was shrewd, but not a bad fellow at all. I remember that once we had a wrestling match. As we were about even in strength, we agreed to abide by certain rules, taking what we called "holts" in the beginning and not breaking them until one or the other was thrown. I kept to this when we began wrestling, but when Jay realized that he was in danger of losing he broke "holts" and threw me.

When I said he had broken his agreement, he only laughed and said, "I threw you, didn't I?" That irritated me, and I kept arguing the original point, but he only laughed the more and covered my taunts with the answer. He had won, and it pleased him, though I often wondered how he could take any satisfaction in it.

Question of Love.

"I wonder," he said, "if I ought to be angry?"
"What's happened?" asked his friend.
"Why, I went to her father and said that, because of my deep love for his daughter, I wanted to marry her."
"Well?"
"Well, he said that, because of his deep love for his daughter, he wouldn't permit it. Now, do you think that I ought to be mad or just disappointed?"
—Chicago Post.

Disposed to Be Bitter.

"If there is anything I despise," said one diplomat, "it is a practical joke."
"I feel the same way about it," answered the other, as he laid down his newspaper, "and I know what I'm talking about. I was a delegate to the peace conference at The Hague."— out success for biliousness, liver complaint, and sick headache for over three
