Mobile Units Demonstrate Emergency Communication

Four mobile stations of the P. E. Island Emergency Communications Unit of the Red Cross organization went into action at seven o'clock last evening as they fanned out from the city under instructions from the control station at Red Cross headquarters.

Six fixed stations in the set-up were also in contact with headquarters, enabling them to form a complete story of what might be an emergency.

Gordon MacDonald, Chairman of the Red Cross disaster committee and Edwin C. Johnston, President of the Provincial Red Cross Society, both spoke briefly over the emergent network of ten stations, offering congratulations at the obvious success of their set-up. Keen interest was taken in the demonstration by Provincial Fire Marshall Campbell, City Fire Chief Jewell, Assistant Chief Walker and others in attendance at Red Cross headquarters.
Units taking part in the demonstration were owned and operated by the following: J. H. "Winfield Chester Scott McLure, Statesman, Friend, Christian gentleman, Man: "Again a price has fallen in the fight. The valorous champion of truth and right. The following tribute has been received for publication from Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, who is at present in Toronto: "It was a great shock to me while attending the C.M.A. meeting in Toronto to receive a wire from my son Dr. Allan, saying that Chester McLure had died. The several doctors attending him, although realizing his very serious condition and hopes of his recovery to the very last, friend Chester since I came to Charlottetown forty-five years ago. Thirty-two years ago he persuaded me to enter the Provincial political field. A desire to do something for the Red Cross Society plus his persuasion carried me into politics. I always found him a loyal colleague, a wise counsellor, and a great friend to poor people. I was sorry to see him leave Provincial politics for the larger Federal Field. "During his three terms as Federal M.P. for Queens County he often and so vehemently in the interests of the County and the Province generally. During the years when I was leader of the Provincial Government no public man gave me more loyal and active support than Chester McLure. It can be truly said of him that he devoted his life to the best interests of his native Province. "I extend my sincere sympathy to his sorrowing widow and daughter."
