STEEL RAILS.

The largest shipment of steel rails ever consigned to the P. E. Island Railway—a thousand tons—is now lying at Summerside. It is is Superintendent Unsworth's intention to put part of these rails down between Port Hill and O'Leary, and part between Tracadie and Mount Stewart. This will go far, with what has already been done, towards putting the road in first-class order.

PARTICULARS WANTED.

The organs of the Opposition do not deny that a large number of articles have been added to the free list, that the duties are reduced in respect to many articles under the new tariff, and that most of these tend to relieve the burden of the farmer. But they say that the rates have in some particulars been raised. Well let us have a list of these particulars, so that we may see how they effect the common people, especially our farmers!

VIVE LA HUMBUG!

A few months ago the Government and their organs made capital out of the fact that they had inflicted taxes upon insurance companies; telegraph companies, banks, etc. By so much they would relieve the people at large! We pointed out at the time that this was the merest humbug. The insurance companies have now added to the annual premiums five per cent. of the old rates. That is to say property insured at 1 per cent. will only be insured at 1.05, and property at 2 per cent. at 2.05,—the new order going into force on Monday. This is the immediate effect of the tax on insurance companies. The insurers have naturally shifted the burden on the insured,—and of course added something in their own behalf, "to make all safe." The insured, in their turn, will, as naturally, take the tax out of the pockets of their customers—the farmers and tradesmen of the Province. The same result will follow in respect to the bank tax and all other such taxes. The people will have to pay, in the end, doubly or trebly as much as the taxes amount to. But the Government think that the people won't know it.

Humbug, forever.

MANITOBA CROPS.

The acreage of Manitoba in wheat, oats, and potatoes increases year by year. The most noticeable item in the crop bulletin issued by the Manitoba government is the area under flax, which is estimated this year at 23,540 acres. There are 3,122 acres in rye, but only 1,152 acres devoted to peas, corn and buckwheat. The total area under all crops is put at 1,502,394 acres, which, compared with last year shows an increase of 30,132 acres. Barley is sown over 119,528 acres, oats on 413,686 acres and wheat on 1,010,186 acres. The potato and root crops, 13,300 and 7,800 acres respectively, are only given as approximate, as in many cases they were not all planted or sown when the reports were sent in. The following figures show the comparative crop acreage for 1882, 1893 and 1894:

Crop	1892.	1893.	1894
Wheat	875,990	1,003,640	1,010,186
Oats	332,974	388,529	413,686
Barley	97,644	144,762	119,528
Potatoes	10,003	12,387	13,300
Roots	17,498	20,919	7,888

While the average under wheat, oats and potatoes has shown a steady increase that under barley and roots has decreased.

SUPREME COURT.

SATURDAY, June 30.

The case of Valentine Cameron vs. Firman Jodieux is still before the court. The following witnesses have been examined on behalf of the plaintiff: Valentine Cameron, Dr. Conroy, Dr. McLeod, Dr. Jenkins, Dr. Gallant and Philip Cameron, father of the plaintiff. During the trial of this cause, three of the jurors, viz. Franklyn Gates, James Trainor and John Bell, were fined by the court $1 each for tardiness.

PERSONAL.

Mr. L. H. Davies, M. P., is expected home from Ottawa to-night.

Lewis Carvell, Esq., returned last evening from the Southern States.

Rev. Edward Bell will preach in Kensington Hall on Sunday evening at the usual hour.

Mr John Munroe, of Waco, Texas, formerly of this province, is here on a brief visit. Mr. Munroe is one of our successful Islanders abroad.

It is probable that the Rev. Father Langevin will be the successor to Archbishop Tache. Father Langevin is spoken of as a Doctor of Theology, of a most charitable disposition, and a fine speaker.

Alas, poor Lily Langtry! The Londoners have finally succeeded in hooting her off the stage, and she has closed up her theatre permanently.—Boston Herald.

There were registered at the Eureka Hotel to-day: Albert McMillan, Annandale; John Arsenault, Peter G Larkin; Dr Firmain Jodieux, Miss Arsenault, J Crossman, Wellington; M S Crawford, Boston.

—The murder of Carnot was followed by attacks on the part of the mob upon Italians and the destruction of property of Italians in France. It has been well remarked that a mob—whether French or English—is not a thinking entity.

Watermere.—This fine residence, the property of His Honor the Lieut.-Governor is advertised to rent for a term of years as may be agreed upon. Watermere commands a splendid view of the harbor and surrounding country. It is within fifteen minutes walk of the market house, with a good plank sidewalk all the way. It is close by Victoria Park, and has all the improvements essential to a first-class residence.

Arrangements have been completed by the Post-office Department of Canada for an exchange of money orders between Canada and Hawaii, and Hawaii and Australia, Victoria, B. C., being made the chief exchange office.

Auction Sale.—Great unreserved auction sale of crockery, glassware, fancy goods and groceries, at P. Monaghan's, Lower Queen Street, commencing this (Saturday) evening at 7.30.—C. I. Morrison, Auctioneer.

ST. PETER'S SILVER JUBILEE.

The Services Yesterday—Music by the Organist—Sermon by Archdeacon Kaulbach—A Touching Reference to Rev. George W. Hodgson.

The morning and forenoon services in connection with the Silver Jubilee of St. Peter's Church were referred to yesterday. It ought to be remarked that the music for the Communion Service, the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis, was composed by the talented organist of the church, Mr. L. W. Watson. This was most appropriate. In the quarter of a century, just past, St. Peter's has sent into the field of the church a comparatively large number of young, able and zealous clergymen and has given us a musical composer whose work is, by capable judges, pronounced to be correct and beautiful. The service of last evening, by Tallis, was taken by the Venerable Archdeacon Weston-Jones; and an unusually large choir led the congregational singing. The Venerable Archdeacon Kaulbach, preached an impressive sermon, in the course of which he made the following reference to the Rev. George W. Hodgson, first Priest Incumbent of St. Peter's:—

In this connection I cannot fail to speak of one whom you all knew and loved, and concerning whom all, whether agreeing or disagreeing with his theological opinions, are at one in acknowledging that he lived his creed. It was my privilege to know your first rector intimately and to spend much of my youth and early manhood with him. That he was endowed with noble intellectual powers, we all know. That he was a faithful and powerful exponent of the truth of God, you, who with delight hung upon his words, are fully aware. In social intercourse, in personal friendship, as a wise counsellor, as a discreet spiritual guide—how keenly we all felt the loss we individually and collectively sustained by his removal. This parish, the diocese, the church, the state, were the poorer because he had gone. With all the varied powers he possessed in such large measure and which together made him the great man he was, the greatest of all was his consistent godliness. This is true of every relationship in which I knew him. In life, public and private, in sober work and joyous recreation, in travel by land and by sea, in buoyant health and depressing illness, I never knew him to say or do anything out of harmony with our holy religion. It was this which gave him, I believe, his chief attractiveness. It was this chiefly which made him the power for good which he undoubtedly was. It is this which causes his words and works still to live, so that he, being dead, yet speaketh. It is this which sheds so sweet a fragrance over his memory. May God give us grace so to follow his good example, that the one or two talents with which we are endowed may be sanctified that we may be stronger for the Master's use, and ultimately with him enter into the joy of our Lord.

In conclusion, Archdeacon Kaulbach said: The Feast of the Dedication naturally suggests a solemn thought. With every outward manifestation of joy and gladness the Jews observed this feast The temple and their private dwellings were gaily decorated in honor and commemoration of the day on which the temple of God was purified from Greek and Syrian defilement, and a new altar dedicated. But what was their spiritual condition at the time when Jesus was on earth? His frequent and severe denunciations reveal how wicked they were and how evil was their state, and soon on account of their wickedness was their beautiful house to be brought to everlasting destruction, millions of themselves slain and the rest scattered among all the peoples of the earth. Let us take heed that, while celebrating the goodness of God, we forget not to look at our own hearts, and remember that we are dedicated to God, and are temples of the Holy Ghost which is in us. Let us take care to drive from our hearts every evil thought, and allow no evil spirit to lodge within. Let us take care that service, our fullest and our best, be rendered to Him, whose we are and whom we ought to serve. Enlightened, purified, strengthed with might by His spirit in the inner man, we shall "grow into an holy temple, in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit."

SEATS FOR HILLSBOROUGH PARK.

Sir,—One of the prettiest parts of this city is Hillsborough Square. Here our citizens can spend the quiet of the afternoon and enjoy the evening breeze unannoyed by the noise and bustle of the business part of the city. Yet there is not in this beautiful park a single seat on which they can rest themselves. If they should require to do so they are obliged to sit on the grass or the fence. If a few seats were placed there so that those who visit the park could rest themselves, much would be contributed to the rational enjoyment of this rarely beautiful spot. The Public Property Committee of the City Council might cause to be placed there four or five cheap seats before the summer passes away. Perhaps Councillor Robertson, who is always kind and energetic, would see to this.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

An emergency meeting of the City Council was held last evening to consider the report of the Market Committee with reference to the sanitary arrangements of Market House and City Building. There were present, Mayor Dawson, and Councillors Fennel, Hughes, Hooper, Taylor.

Councillor Fenuel, on behalf of the Market Committee, moved the adoption of the following report:

The committee appointed to locate the sanitary arrangements in the Market Hall, recommend the placing of the men's closet in the basement, under the stairs, on the north side, and placing the women's upstairs, so as to be clear of Mr. Saunders' apartment.

The report was adopted, Councillor Hughes only appearing against it.

Councillor Tanton moved the following resolution, which was seconded by Councillor Taylor:

Resolved, That tenders be called for the construction of the sanitary arrangements of the city and market buildings according to plans as approved by the market committee and Mayor, said tenders to be submitted to this Council at its next regular meeting.

The resolution carried.

Councillor Hughes then gave notice of his intention to move for a reconsideration of the report of the market committee in regard to the position of the sanitary arrangements in connection with the market house.

The City Clerk was ordered to call for tenders for painting the market house.

Council adjourned.

As will be seen in our advt columns, the house occupied by the late Surveyor Ball will be let immediately after the sale on the 5th July. This house is one of the best tenement building in the city, is in thorough repair, almost new, situated on high ground, with splendid lawn, and will be let at a reasonable rate. Any persons desirous of securing a convenient and desirable house should inspect this one.

OUR SILVERWARE

will interest all our patrons. There is nothing which everyone so much desires as a handsome table service. It takes silver to fill the bill, and fine silverware is the pride of every housekeeper. It's an opportunity lost not to look at our stock of tables silver, of rich, elegant, beautiful, and novel designs and patterns. These goods exemplify the latest triumphs of the silversmith's art in the production of knives, forks, butter dishes, cream pitchers, sugar bowls, celery holders, tea pots, fruit baskets, etc. The durability of silver makes it cost comparatively little in the end.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

A Train Goes Through a Bridge.

MONCTON, June 30.

While a train was crossing at Shepody River bridge yesterday the structure gave way. The engine crossed over in safety; but the passenger car, and freight and mail car went through the bridge to the river below, a distance of 10 or 12 feet. Miss Coonan, daughter of Captain Coonan, was seriously, perhaps fatally, injured. All the train hands, except the driver and fireman were injured seriously.

COST OF OUR RAILWAY.

Hon. Mr. Haggart's Statement.

OTTAWA, June 30.

Hon. Mr. Haggart made his annual statement of the Government railways yesterday. The Intercolonial made a profit on the year of $21,061, and the Prince Edward Island Railway a loss of $63,731; and the Windsor branch a profit of $17,426—making a net loss on the whole of the Government railways of $26,154. On the Intercolonial there was an increased income of $12,000.57; the Prince Edward Island Railway, an increased income of $5,247, and on Windsor branch, of $807. The expenditure had been reduced $459,968—$494,058 in connection with the Intercolonial; $63,284 for Prince Edward Island, and $2,626 on the Windsor branch. The reduction was chiefly due to re-arrangements of the train service, which had been greater than the actual requirements of the traffic warranted. A number of trains had been withdrawn, and the consequence was a great saving in men and material.

Great Britain and Her Colonies.

LONDON, June 30.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Sir Howard Vincent asked the Government to state to what extent assistance could be counted upon by the Imperial Government from the self-governed colonies in the event of an emergency. He asked what was the amount of the annual expenditure for armed defences in Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Cape Colony and Natal.

Sir Charles Dilke suggested that the information be presented to the House in the form of a parliamentary paper.

Mr. Buxton promised to consider the suggestion.
