

Life in Residence

On Friday, April 7th the Residence Life Committee held its fourth annual 'No-Talent' Show. This year's show was true to its name, it definitely lacked talent.

There was a wide variety of acts, everything from Elvis imitations to the Rodeo Song. Some of the acts included:

- a Marian Hall version of the great Canadian game show 'Talk About', but some of the subjects they talked about left a lot to be desired.

- the Red Turtle Neck Gang from Bernardine Hall did their rendition of the song 'The Second Stop'.

- La Femme R.A.'s strutted their stuff with Ray Charles in their lip sinc of 'The Right Time'.

- both the R.A.'s at Bernardine and the House Committee at Marian had a bit of fun poked at them when the Bernardine Hall House Committee did their interpretation of a Marian Hall House Committee meeting and a R.A. rap song.

- the Shining Tap Dancers from Bernardine Hall.

Though all of these acts were very funny and entertaining, the following acts won the Honourable Mentions:

Truly Tasteless - Philip 'Dog' MacKenzie & Darren 'Bob' Chafe
Absolutely No-Talent - 'Wild Thing' by Chuck & Slink

Too Talented (to be in this show) - Elvis 'Alfred' Presley & his sidekick Ron 'Golden Fingers' Wisman

The overall winners for this event were the Sesame Street R.A.'s and their rendition of 'Who are the People in your Neighborhood'. The members of this group included; Cathy as the lead vocalist (a bad one at that), Janice as a local pervert, Rob as a transvestite (you slut Rob), Nici and Anne as ladies of the evening, Cindy as a drug pusher, and Dave and Greg as our own residential gangsters. It must be noted that Paul Madryga broke an all time record by entering an act in this contest of stars for three consecutive years and failing to win all three times. Better luck next year Paul.

Special thanks should go out to our judges for this show; Jim 'Dukie' MacDougall of the U.P.E.I. Security Force, Robert Bower of the Marriott Food Service at U.P.E.I., and some blond headed guy, Barry. Thanks to the emcees of the evening Donald 'Don Won' Gunning and Jackie 'Big —' Mosher and to all the other students, too numer-

Blanchard Update

With the end of the school year, things at Blanchard Hall have also come to an end. The final Blanchard House Party was recently held with a great time being had by everyone who attended. Congratulations to Terry Doran who won $100 dollars in the Blanchard Draw.

In other news: Blanchard Hall Jackets and Sweatshirts have finally arrived and can be picked up in Rm. 216. The costs are $18 for sweatshirts and $33 for jackets.

Elections are being held this week for House Committee Executive for next year. Elections are Tuesday and winners will be announced by Friday.

The House Committee would like to thank everyone at Blanchard for their support during the year. We would also like to thank the guys from Marian for the help with house parties and also Cathy Ronahan whose help we couldn't have done without. Hopefully next year will be as successful as this year was.

Report of the Debating Society VP

Several weeks ago, UPEI sent a debating team to the Canadian National Debating Tournament at Queens University in Kingston, Ontario. This is the time of year when the Canadian university debating organization, CUSID, elects officials and decides on policy. As the representative for UPEI, I cast our vote in the CUSID presidential election for Mr. Stephen Johnson, who was elected. Among his stated policies the private sector for university debating and the lowering of tournament registration fees, which many universities find prohibitive. He also expressed much interest in helping Atlantic and Western regional universities to participate more in competition and governing CUSID. Canadian debating has long been oriented toward central Canada, and it is good to see a president express these concerns.

In speaking with representatives from other "peripheral" universities such as Memorial in Newfoundland, and the University of Regina in Saskatchewan, I discovered that many of our concerns are shared by other university debating organizations. In particular, funding difficulties are almost universal, and there is consensus on the need for a strong voice from the Atlantic and the West in governing CUSID. On the official side, there was an interesting announcement of a proposal to send Canadian and American debaters to Poland to introduce debating to universities there. As well, there is interest in debating exchanges between the Soviet Union and Canada, which UPEI may be able to take part in.

In closing, I would like to return to the subject of funding, which I mentioned earlier. The debating Society expresses its deep gratitude to the university administration, whose generous support has eased our financial difficulties this year. I hope this report has interested you in debating at UPEI. I would like to reaffirm our invitation to all students to join the Debating Society.

Sincerely,
Bob Smith
Debating Society VP

The Search for the Green

By Laurie Murphy
Financial Aid Advisor

Hello again. This is the last article for this year and I truly hope the information found weekly had been of use to you. Although my position ends for the summer term, I can be available to glance at Student Loan applications June through August. I'll be doing academic orientation for first year students during that time, but may assist you if I can.

Student Loan and Bursary Information.

- There is an increase in bursary from a maximum of $1700 to $1950. This means that maximum loan and bursary increases from $5060 to $5310.

- Application forms for next year (1989-90) will be printed and available by July at the Department of Student Services.

- You are allowed to request maximum expense cost without verification, i.e. books: $400, typing: $65, etc.

- Read the booklet carefully!

- Provinces outside of PEI have deadline dates. Make sure you know when your province demands application because they are very strict.

- Some bursaries other than student loan affiliated have deadlines in the summer. look into these!

Remember to have a great summer, and that the search for the green begins with you!
