A Great Battle

HOCKEY fans got a great charge out of the Royals-Penguins game at The Sports Arena.

It was a miserable night with rain coming down in ugly fashion. Despite this inclemency, however, some 700 fans were at Earl Nicholson's icehouse and not one of them came away disappointed. Even the Penguins' supporters figured it was a really worthwhile contest.

WE think that both teams deserve a lot of credit for the type of hockey served up. Don Whelan and Joe Coyle, the referees, bad their easiest time this season as the boys stuck strictly to hockey and left the nonsense alone.

We must commend the much heavier Royals for the fine restraint they displayed. There never was any attempt to crush the Baby Birds with their bodies and fellows like Ralph Iosey and Eustace Reeves certainly never attempted to terrify incoming forwards. That's not saying that they didn't hit with authority but it is saying that they never turned to plain rough house tactics.

On the other hand, we feared that the Old Spainers might be a bit too cocky against their senior opponents and start getting too chippy. However, they apparently were out there under strict orders from coach 'Bucko' Trainor to play hockey and forget the grandstand stuff. They never tried to put the Royals on the spot throughout the encounter.

Lacked Finesse

THE JUNIORS could easily have emerged victors with a little more finesse around the net. But this erratic shooting cost them several goals. Royals, on the other hand, had their share of bad breaks around the net, but they made far better use of their opportunities than did the Old Spainers.

But Penguins' followers were not a bit disappointed. They are looking ahead to Maritime junior playdowns and they see in the Birds the makings of a formidable junior squad. Sure, the Birds want to do good in the Island League but their main objective is that Maritime junior crown.

Apps Returns

ROYALS presented a new performer in Apps Arsenault last Thursday night.

The Charlottetown policeman was making his first appearance of the season and he was quite effective for 'Buck' Whitlock's crew. Apps grabbed a goal and an assist in his first start. Sandy needs such pointgetters as Arsenault, especially now that he has lost the Mulligans, Billy and Vince, to St. Dunstan's Varsity team.

Lloyd 'Toy Toy' Gallant was not with the Birds Thursday night and there was a rumor that he had decided against playing with the Charlottetown team. Two other Summerside lads, Ronnie Gallant and Dave Martin, were wearing Baby Birds' uniforms and both played standout hockey for the Trainor-coached crew.

PENGUINS will need to do some fast figuring before junior registration date January 25.

Donnie Frizzell is guarding goal for them now but Frizzell will not be able to play in Maritime junior competition. Neither will capable rearguard Louis Smith. Both are over the age limit. To play junior hockey this season a boy's birthday must have been after July 31, 1942.

Undoubtedly the Old Spain management has something up its sleeve and will come up with an answer to this problem shortly.

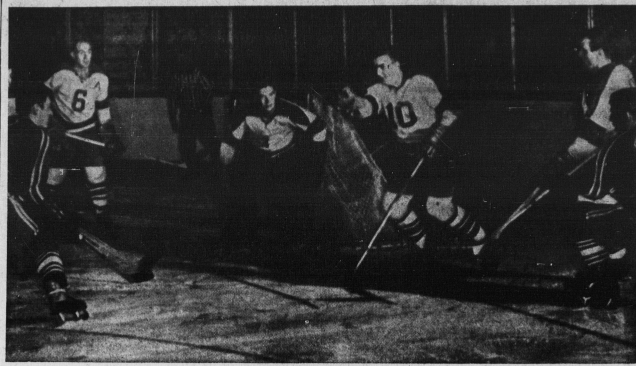
On NHL Front

THIS weekend is surly a busy one for NHL teams. All six squads see action on both Saturday and Sunday nights.

Chicago has a chance to take over first place tonight when they entertain Detroit Red Wings and this we think they will do. Bruins are at Montreal and Canadiens certainly should conquer in this one. Rangers visit Toronto and, despite their charm over the Leafs this season, we look for a Toronto triumph.

Sunday Toronto goes to Boston and they should grab another two points. Montreal visits New York and we look for Rangers to take this battle. Black Hawks return the visit to Detroit and chances are Wings can emerge he conquerors.

One thing to remember is that Bruins some of taese nights are going to beat somebody. It could be Canadiens or Leafs or both over this preesnt weekend.



CLOSE CALL

Prince County Combines Trounce RCAF Eagles 10-3

SUMMERSIDE — The Prince County Combines ran roughshod over the RCAF Eagles at Civic Stadium last night, drubbing the airmen 10-3. The first period was fairly close scorewise, ending 3-2 for the Combines, but the Prince County boys were in on Walsh unguarded a number of times and a pass or a shot went haywire at the last moment.

Greg Deighan got the "hat trick" and Garth Harris and Benny Grady each scored twice.

The Combines were two men short when Bill Smith opened the scoring, getting a good shot away about half way from the blueline to the net. Garth Harris, parked at the corner of the cage, banged Cutcliffe's pass behind Walsh at the half way mark making it 1-all. Greg Deighan got his first of three at the sixteen minute mark banging in Garth Harris's rebound. 40 seconds later Benny Grady tipped Ulric Gallant's shot in, making the score 3-1. Lovelace was the trigger man in a passing bout with Bob Sleigh and Steve Phillips for the Eagles' second goal. The period ended 3-2 for Combines.

Combines scored six unanswered goals in the middle session and had a wide margin in play. Each team was man short resulting from a fracas between Ulric Gallant and goalkeeper Walsh when Deighan took Cutcliffe's pass at goalmouth to score at 5.19. 42 seconds later Ron MacArthur hit the meshes with a beautiful rising shot to the upper right corner.

Alan Andrews banged the puck home from a wild melee in front of the Eagles net, and Benny Grady slammed home a pass back from Vance Harris with both players coasting in alone on Walsh.

Garth Harris shovelled in the Combines eighth goal as he was falling to the ice, and Deighan got the last goal of the period with 3 minutes left.

A terrific bumping duel was a feature of this period the boys barging into each other with gay abandon. There were no personal retaliations, each player taking his bump and throwing himself at the first alien uniform he saw.

The Eagles played much better hockey in the final frame and outshot the Combines for the first time. Each team scored a goal. Alger Cutcliffe got the first at 1.06 and Doug Tucker, shooting from the blueline, and using defenceman MacArthur as a screen, dented the twines for the last counter of the contest.

Referees Don Whelan and Bob Reardon handed out ten minors, Combines getting seven of them. and two majors, one to each team.

Cold Weather Forecast For Atlantic Bowl Today

HALIFAX, (CP) — Cold cloudy weather is forecast for today's fourth Atlantic Bowl, a contest between a team that's used to winning football games in the Maritimes and a Toronto squad familiar with tough competition.

St. Francis Xavier University X-men, unbeaten the last five years in the Atlantic Football Conference, meet University of Toronto Blues who finished in a third-place tie with University of Western Ontario in the four-team Senior Intercollegiate Football League.

The game is at 1 p.m. on the Halifax Wanderers grounds, soaked by about two inches of rain Thursday and early Friday. However, a cold wind Friday is expected to have hardened the field somewhat for the annual exhibition game between the AFC winner and the invited opposition.

On the eve of the game both X-men coach Don Loney and coach Dalt White of the Blues were weather wary and non-committal. Both professed to know little about the other's team. Both teams had light workouts Friday.

Earlier in the week Loney predicted his AFC champions would have trouble moving the ball against the Toronto team. He said that due to the weather—generally wet this season—"we have not been able to develop our plays the way I would like."

INJURED MEN RETURN

The Blues are expected to field their strongest lineup of the season. In it will be their best running back, Erkki Pukonen who dislocated his elbow in the Blues' third season game.

Another tough Toronto player who may bother the X-men today is linebacker Jim Rhodes who tore ligaments in a knee during the league opener.

The Blues have had two weeks to rest since their last game. The X-men played last Saturday, retaining the Purdy Cup in a match against the second-place AFC finishers, St. Mary's University Huskies.

Neil Weber generally figures well in the X-men's scoring, as does Joe Franciose, bespectacled former United States Marine. Quarterback Dan Billing is recognized as a versatile field leader.

WON THREE TIMES

In its three previous bowl games St. FX defeated Ontario Agricultural College in 1959, Ottawa University in 1960 and McMaster last year, all of the Ontario Intermediate Intercollegiate League.

Maple Leafs Nip Ramblers

WINDSOR ,N.S. (CP) — Windsor Maple Leafs spoiled Amherst Ramblers chances of moving into first place in the Nova Scotia Senior Hockey League with a 5-4 victory over Ramblers before 750 fans here Friday night .

The loss prevented Amherst, defending league champions, from moving into a tie with Moncton Beavers.

In a fast-moving game, fourth-place Windsor came from behind a 1-0 Amherst lead in the first period to win its third game in nine starts. Ramblers lost their second in seven.

Dave Kiley scored for Ramblers in the first period. Jim Beckman, Chook Smith, John Allard and Marcel Ladoucer scored in the second period while Amherst got a pair of goals from Angie Carrol.

Fred Burke made it 5-3 for Windsor in the third. Kiley's second goal for Amherst rounded out the scoring.

Aussie Swimmers Grab Two Gold Medals Friday

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Sports Editor

PERTH, Australia (CP) — Australia's swimmers, paced by Olympic champions Murray Rose and Dawn Fraser, swept to two gold medals in world record time at the British Empire Games Friday while this western Australian seaport broiled under temperatures of more than 100 degrees.

Despite the oppressive heat, the Canadians got off to their best start in post-war big time international competition with two silver medals for finishing second behind the Aussie winners of the men's 880-yard and the women's 440-yard freestyle relay championships.

In track, all three Canadian sprinters including favored Harry Jerome qualified for the second round of the men's 100-yard dash.

Seven out of eight Canadians advanced in the swim preliminaries and in diving Tom Dinsley of Vancouver was a solid third—within shooting distance of leader Brian Phelps of England.

The silver - medal performances generally were a tonic to the entire Canadian team.

AUSTRALIA LEADS

New Zealand won the third gold medal decided today—in fencing. Dot Coleman took the women's individual foils championship while Australia's Joanne Winter and Janet Hopner grabbed the silver and bronze medals for second and third place respectively.

Australia led the unofficial team standing with 29 points, New Zealand was second with 15, England third with 11 and Canada fourth with 10. Rhodesia was fifth with three. Points were based on the traditional 10-5-4-3-2-1 for the first six placings in each final.

The first full day of competition was an eyestopper as the Australians in addition to their two world records, which of course also were games records, set three other games marks in simming and an English miss smashed another in the 220-yard breasts -ipn

Australians have their sights on three more records tonight —in the men's and women's 110-yard freestyle races and the men's 100-yard butterfly.

Giants' Win Streak In Danger Sunday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The fall of Green Bay Packers leaves New York Giants with the longest winning streak in pro football — a five-game string that will be in danger Sunday against Washington Redskins.

Leading the Eastern Conference of the National Football League by two full games, the Giants (8-2) have a chance to all but eliminate the Redskins (5-3-2). If the Giants win, every other team in the conference will have lost at least four. After Sunday's game are over each other team will have three to play.

Pittsburgh (6-4) and Cleveland (5-4-1) will be fighting a battle for survival at Cleveland with the winner having a long-shot chance at catching the Giants.

TIGHTENS RACE

Detroit's upset of Green Bay tightened the Western Conference race, leaving the Lions only one game back of the Packers. Both are idle Sunday. Chicago (6-4), still hoping for a miracle, will be at Baltimore (5-5), the team that almost beat the Packers last Sunday. Chicago won from the Colts 35-15 earlier.

Eddie LeBaron still is indefinite but Don Perkins and Frank Clarke are supposed to be healthy for Dallas (4-5-1) when the Cowboys play at Philadelphia (1-8-1).

San Francisco (4-6) hopes for continued improving in John Brodie's passing for its game at St. Louis (2-7-1). Los Angeles (1-9) will be at Minnesota (2-8) in a battle for last place in the Western Conference.

In the American Football League where New York upset Denver Thursday, Boston and Buffalo played Friday night.

Many College Teams End Schedules Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bowl bids and perfect seasons will be on the line as a majority of the nation's college football teams close out their schedules today.

Southern California's mighty Trojans probably will have the most at stake in their meeting with UCLA in a Big Six conference clash before upwards of 75,000 fans at Los Angeles.

A defeat by their neighborhood rivals, who have a 3-4 record, would not only damage the Trojans' rating as the nation's No. 1 gridiron power, but would cost them an unbeaten season as well. They still must play Notre Dame next week.

Southern California, which has won all eight of its games to rank with Mississippi and Dartmouth as the nation's only unbeaten, untied major elevens, is favored by two touchdowns.

Wisconsin's Badgers, with a Rose Bowl invitation a certainty, will tangle with Minnesota for the Big Ten championship. Both teams have 5-1 conference records.

The concluding Big Ten round also includes Michigan State (5-3) at Illinois (1-7); Michigan (2-6) at Ohio State (5-3); Indiana (2-6) at Purdue (4-3) and Iowa (4-4) in a non-loop game against Notre Dame.

In other Big Six conference games, Stanford (4-5) will play at California (1-8) and Washington (6-1-2) will be host to Washington State (5-3-1).

TRY FOR PERFECT SEASON

Dartmouth, newly crowned Ivy League champion, will try to complete its first perfect season since 1925 against an underdog Princeton team.

In other Ivy League games, Yale (2-4-2) will meet Harvard (5-3) with President Kennedy a spectator and Pennsylvania (3-5) will be host to Cornell (3-5). Columbia (5-3) will play Rutgers (4-4) in a non-league game. The East's best game however, may be Penn State's (8-1) invasion of Pittsburgh (5-4).

Subar Bowl - bound Arkansas figures to have a breather in Texas Tech.

Sonny Gibbs and Randy Kerbow, two fine Southwest Conference passers, face each other as Texas Christian seeks its first victory in three years over Rice. In another SWC game Baylor plays Southern Methodist. Both have identical 2-6 records.

Oklahoma's Sooners, once again among the nation's football powers, meet Nebraska in a game likely to decide the Big Eight conference representative in the Orange Bowl.

LONG PADDLE

BRISTOL, England (CP) — Eleven men of the Gloucestershire Regiment are paddling home for Christmas from Cyprus. They are making the 2,000-mile journey in canoes, by sea, rivers and canals.

Airmen Host Royals' Team

RCAF Eagles entertain Sandy's Royals Sunday afternon at the RCAF base in Summerside.

The Eagles well remember the trouncing they took from the Royals in the league opener in Charlottetown. Feelings ran high that night and both referees were badly overworked. The score was 13-5 but it surely didn't indicate the play. Eagles were much better than the score showed.

The Airmen would like nothing better than to stop the league leaders Sunday. Any kind of a victory is nice but when it comes over the league leaders, it's far more sweet.

A large crowd is expected to attend Sunday afternoon's action which commences at 3 o'clock.

Minor Hockey Schedule Given

SUMMERSIDE — Here is the minor hockey schedule for Monday, Nov. 26.

Paperweight division: 4:15-5.15 Raiders vs. Falcons; 5:15-6:15 Trappers vs. Sparrows.

Tiger-Cats Are Confident Will Be In Cup Contest

By WILF GRUSON

HAMILTON (CP) — The grimly - determined Hamilton Tiger-Cats, happy they are not under the same pressure as last year, head into the Eastern Football Conference wrap up game today confident that they'll be the East's contender in the Grey Cup game once more.

The injury-riddled Montreal Alouettes, dogged all year by bad luck, must come up with the upset of the season to stop the Tiger - Cats from making their fifth Grey Cup bid in six years. The Als are 11 points down in the two-game, total - points final.

The game is scheduled to start at 1 p.m.

The Tiger-Cats, 28-17 winners over the Alouettes in the first game at Montreal last Saturday left the Montreal club a margin to overcome that looks nearly impossible considering its physical shape. The best the Als have done in four games against the Ticats this season is a 25-25 tie.

The underdog Alouettes hope they can pull off what the Ticats did last season in the second game of the league final.

ERASED BIG LEAD

Hamilton, under tremendous pressure, accomplished the seemingly impossible task of wiping out an 18-point lead Toronto Argonauts took with a 25-7 opening - game win. The Tiger-Cats ended up the regulation time of the second game leading 20-2 and forced a 20-minute overtime session in which they scored four converted touchdowns to win 55-27.

The Tiger-Cats went on to lose the East West final 21-14 to Winnipeg Blue Bombers in overtime—the first overtime game in Grey Cup history.

The Alouettes, with much depending on rookie quarterback Sandy Stephens and spectacular halfback George Dixon, are expected to play a more wide-open game this time in the hope of catching up early.

The Alouettes have a heavy casualty list, compared with the Tiger-Cats who are only nursing a few minor injuries. Six Montreal players were injured in the opening game and defensive tackle Ted Elsby has been declared by Moss as definitely out of today's game with a shoulder separation.

LIST FIVE PROBABLES

The others — halfbacks Don Clark, Bobby Lee Thompson, Billy Wayte, Barry Hansen and defensive tackle Bobby Jack Oliver—are all suffering from assorted injuries and Moss has indicated he will not make up his mind definitely about them until just before game time. It is likely all will play, although they are far from completely fit.

The weatherman predicts good weather conditions for the game. He forecast partly cloudy skies, a temperature of about 40 degrees and a northwest wind of 15 to 20 miles an hour. There is a possibility of wet snow or rain overnight.

However, the Civic Stadium field, although bare of grass in many places, should provide firm footing. A tarpaulin has covered it all week whenever necessary to keep it from becoming slippery.
