VISION!

Winged with desire for worlds unknown, my soul absorbed itself beyond itself and free; Floating in pure white flame, I thought to see The immaterial vision of life's whole, To find the sealed invisible unroll And grasp the flying form of mystery. But, lo, near earth born voices came to me, Fraught with our common happiness and dole. I felt a little child's glad love of life; I wept with women in the house of death, Worshipped with sinners at the Virgin's shrine; Within all joy, within all pangs of strife, I touched the silent spirit's quivering breath And in the human found the light divine. —Katharine Coolidge in Atlantic Monthly.

A Noise That Annoys.

"So you've got a little baby now, Mary," said the lady to her former servant. "It must be a great pleasure to you."
 "T'would be a greater one, ma'am, if it didn't cry so much. Me husband can't stand the noise of it."
 "Too bad! What does your husband do, Mary?"
 "He's a boiler maker, ma'am."—Philadelphia Press.

As an Anesthetic.

The Surgeon—You still refuse to take ether? I warn you it will be fully as severe as the operation I performed on this same leg a month ago.
 The Patient—That'll be all right, doctor. Oh, by the way, have you got the bill for the other operation with you? Let me see it, please. Thanks.
 M.—Go ahead, doctor. I can stand it now.—Chicago Tribune.

Discouraged.

"Did you ask old Spiggot for his daughter?"
 "No. The first thing I saw when I stepped into his office was a big placard over the phone with these words in large letters: 'Call Main 6161 For Ambulance.' It seemed like an omen, and I went out."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Revealed.

Old Friend—Say, it looks to me as if you were putting on a lot of extra dignity of late.
 Recently Enriched Person—You are badly mistaken. I am now in a position to allow my inherent and native dignity to come to the surface.—Indianapolis Press.

A Modern Example.

Nodd—I wonder if miracles will ever happen again.
 Todd—One happened at my house only the other day. A thunderbolt struck within a few feet of my wife, and she was speechless for 30 minutes.—Detroit Free Press.

At the Summer Hotel.

"Who is that good looking young waiter who is tossing the plates across the room? Is he a student too?"
 "Yes; he holds the record in Harvard for discus throwing."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"At First Sight."

"She says it was a case of love at first sight," said the mere acquaintance.
 "It was," replied the dearest friend. "And yet he is not so handsome," suggested the mere acquaintance.
 "No," answered the dearest friend. "The first sight referred to was a peep at his bank book."—Chicago Post.

Away With Superstition!

"I don't believe in superstitions," remarked one of two men with race badges on their coats.
 "Neither do I," answered the other. "I am trying to get away from them. I've noticed lately that every time I think of a superstition I have had luck."—Washington Star.

Came to Town For a Change.

"Let's go in here and get something to eat," said one out of town visitor to another as he stopped before a restaurant with the sign "Homelike Cooking."
 "No," replied the other; "we'll try some other place."—Detroit Free Press.

The Outward Show.

"We must be circumspect," said the young husband, "and not show each other too much attention in public."
 "Why?" asked the wife.
 "Because folks will think our home life one perpetual cat and dog fight."—Philadelphia North American.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

is the deadliest and most painful malady to which mankind is subject. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure any case of Bright's Disease. They have never failed in one single case. They are the only remedy that ever has cured it, and they are the only remedy that can. There are imitations of Dodd's Kidney Pills—pill, box and name—but imitations are dangerous. FARM MACHINERY

Distributed at Kensington by Frost & Wood Co.

Kensington was a lively place on Monday last, the occasion being a grand delivery of Frost & Wood haying and harvesting machinery. Early in the morning farmers with double and single teams were to be seen wending their way along the country roads converging from all directions at this enterprising village. On a siding at the station stood four cars fully loaded with Frost & Wood Mowers horse rakes and binders where a number of men were kept busy from an early hour until noon loading the farm wagons as one after another backed up to receive the machines in which so many farmers have found reason to place their confidence. Scattered about the station yard were groups of men busily engaged setting up horse rakes to be drawn behind the loaded wagons. As the express train from Charlottetown drew into the station the scene presented was one of such unwonted life and bustle as to attract the attention of every passenger.

When the hour of noon arrived it was seen that almost the entire contents of four railway cars had been transferred to somewhere near ten times the number of farm wagons which stood grouped about the station yard, while the owners, amounting to the number of about 80, repaired to the principal hotels, where dinner had been prepared by the Frost & Wood Co., for its patrons. Conviviality took the place of work and bustle for about an hour, and then teams were hitched up; and as they stood ready to depart for home the entire group was photographed.

Not only is the Frost & Wood Co. to be congratulated on the success with which it is meeting, but also the farmers who are thus being supplied with first class machinery manufactured in our own country. Mr. John Bernard and Mr. Leslie Woodside, who are the local agents for the Company at Kensington were very busy and made several sales on the grounds. Mr. Burdett, of St. John, manager for the Frost & Wood Company for New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, was present and also Mr. A. Horne, of Charlottetown, the general agent for P. E. Island, Mr. J. Davies Schurman, of Freetown, and Mr. W. T. Lawson, special salesman from Toronto, all superintending the delivery.

Black River Notes

Mrs. Riggs and son, of Boston, are spending their holidays in Black River. They are the guests of Mr. Angus J. McAulay.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hogan, of Boston, paid us a flying visit last week.

Mr. W. W. Ellis will be the teacher in our school this term. The late teacher, Mr. B. McCabe, proved himself an excellent instructor, and we regret his departure.

Mr. John H. Court has completed the exterior of a new piggery, with accommodation for about twenty hogs. Mr. Court is one of our enterprising farmers and we wish him success in his new venture.

Mr. James Affleck is at present busily engaged in the repairing of his dwelling house.

PRINCE TUN.

Colombian Revolutionists Have Lost.

CARACAS, Venezuela, July 24 (via Haytian cable).—In consequence of the last defeat sustained by the rebels, the Colombian revolution is now considered lost. The government forces have again occupied Bucaramanga and Cucuta, after a bloody battle, in which many prisoners were captured.

Conditions in India.

LONDON, July 24.—The viceroy of India, Baron Curzon of Kedleston telegraphs to Lord Gen. Hamilton, secretary of state, for India, that the monsoon continues favorable this week, except in Gujerat, Kathiawar, Baroda and Rajputana west, where cultivation is at a standstill and rain is greatly needed for fodder. The number on the famine relief list now reaches 6,281,000.

Henry's Experience.

Burkley—Why is it a woman can never keep a secret?
 Henpeck—But she can. I have never succeeded in getting my wife to tell me where she hides our pocketbook, and I've been trying for 15 years.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Not Interested.

"Come along, Martin; let's go to the hanging."
 "Hangin! Hangin! Who's goin to be hanged?"
 "Jim Sanders. Come along."
 "No, thanks. He's no friend o' mine."—Life.

His Job.

"The crown prince of Germany receives a salary of $375,000 a year from the state."
 "What for?"
 "For being his father's son."—Chicago Times-Herald.

The New Phone.

The phone came Easter morning, John; they put it in the hall.
 And isn't it the strangest thing to ring the bell and call
 Some friend who lives a mile away or maybe two or three,
 And hear her voice so plain and clear you'd almost think that she
 Were standing at your elbow? Oh, isn't it just great
 To call up every one you know and simply satiate
 Yourself with all the gossip that is going in the town
 And talk to Mrs. Jones and Smith and Black and Green and Brown?
 I didn't use it very much—just called a friend or two—
 I talked with Ida Dennis and Sadie Donahue
 And said good morning to the Speers and had a talk with Bea
 McKelligan and Julia Crow, Nell Jones and Mrs. Hess.
 I chatted with the Stevens girls and called up Mollie Kane,
 Nell Hutchinson, Mae Mullen and Matilda Castlemaine;
 The Smiths were not at home, and so I called up Mary Krause
 And chatted for awhile with her and Mrs. Westinghouse.
 I couldn't raise the Robinsons; their phone was out of whack;
 The Martin line was busy, so I rang up Stella Black.
 Who said she hadn't tried to do a blessed thing all day
 But call our number, and each time the hello girl would say
 Our line was busy. Goodness me, I never heard of such Disimulation in my life—I hadn't used it much!
 So, just for spite, tomorrow I'll call every one on earth
 And show that hello girl I mean to get my money's worth.

A Gloomy Future

Made Bright, and Health and Vigour Restored by the Use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Headache, backache, sleeplessness, despondency, and irregularities are the result of an exhausted condition of the body and nervous system.

No treatment was ever so efficacious in restoring health, strength, vigour, and vitality as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the great blood builder.

Mrs. J. M. Bradley, 109 Jane street, Ottawa, states:—"For several years I have been gradually running down in health. I became nervous and weak, and worried greatly over my future."
 "Hearing of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and the wonderful results it has accomplished in others, I obtained a box and began using it as directed. I began to improve immediately, and am now restored to full health and vigour."
 "Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is an excellent remedy, and I can recommend it to all who are weak, nervous, or run down in health."
 Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the world's greatest blood builder and nerve restorative, 50 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmanson Bates and Co., Toronto.
