NEWS NOTES.

The funeral of a socialist killed by the police in Prague was attended by 2,000 people, and was charged and dispersed by the police. As the police used their swords freely, there may be a lively time when the secondary funerals take place.

The Manchester Ship Canal is already threatened with a strike. Those who overcome great engineering difficulties are helpless as children when encountering these social difficulties. Is this because so much more thought is given to one than to the other?

The London Times warmly congratulates the people of Ireland on an abundant crop and the many advantages and improvements naturally following. But the great organ of the classes does not advise the lowering of rents, which is economically similar in results to an abundant crop.

The Japanese Government has decided that no one shall be allowed to hold the position of editor or publisher within the kingdom except a male of the full age of 21 years. If the object is to increase the prevailing salaries, the experiment will be anxiously watched by the profession in other countries.

When one commits a crime against the state in France they have a way of shortening him by a head, which is very discouraging to all imitators. Vaillant, the anarchist who dropped the bomb into the Chamber of Deputies, is to come under the keen, extirpating knife of the guillotine.

Surely the times are out of joint in Europe. Here comes a report to the effect that Baron Rothschild has been robbed at Toulon of 14,000 francs. Coming so quickly upon reports of irregularities in the Bank of England, this more recent evidence of the laxness of another great European financial institution is enough to shake confidence in the stability of things in general. When a Rothschild, or a Vanderbilt, a Gould or a Rockfeller can be robbed, then we are on the edge of chaos.

It is expected that the vote on the Wilsin Tariff Bill in the United States' House of Representatives will occur about the first of next month. If carried the Bill will go immediately to the senate, where, it is believed, it will be delayed for some time. The Democrats are making a strong fight for the measure, but so many interests are effected, and so much pressure is being brought to bear, that there is little hope of the bill passing as drawn. It is believed, a belief borne out by a letter from Mr. Carnegie approving of the measure, that high protectionists will not oppose it strongly, but accept it as a compromise on a more advanced Democratic platform.

Col. Howard Vincent is tireless in his advocacy of a commercial union of Britain and her colonies. He has recently been in the West Indies and found there a strong feeling in favor of closer trade relations with the Mother Country, and to that end, a desire for the abrogation of the existing commercial treaty with the United States. There is not a British colony which would not prefer such a union with Britain if could be satisfactorily arranged, but it can never be carried out under present conditions, unless England agrees to a modification of free trade to the extent of giving her colonies some preference in her markets.

The annual report of the Imperial Institute contains an array of great names which are a function in themselves. There are Dukes, Earls, Lords, K. C. B.'s, K. C. M. G.'s, K. T.'s, and men with bewildering sections of the alphabet affixed to their names. The report tells of the vestibule to cost £10,000, of the visit of Her Majesty and H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, of the social features, school for modern oriental study, fellows and their privileges, and the supply of information for intending emigrants. Of course the Dominion is well to the fore, and all the industries that distinguish the various Provinces are sampled and labelled for reference.

Particulars received from Cape Town put the death of Captain Wilson and his men beyond all possible doubt. Lobengula's strategy proved too much for them, but they sold their lives dearly. There were only thirty-four British troopers, but their slaughter is likely to excite a great deal of attention in England, as the little band included no less than seven officers and a number of young Englishmen of good family who had volunteered for the campaign. The ghastly mutilation of the bodies of the British troopers by Lobengula's warriors will probably dissipate any sentimental sympathy for Lobengula that may have been aroused in Great Britain by Mr. Labouchere.

The woes of William J. Holland, of New York, heaped themselves upon him in a way which would have made the boldest tremble. He had a quarrel with his wife and she left him. He tried to induce her to return, but being unsuccessful he secured a pistol and sought exit from this vale of tears by blowing his brains out. His aim wasn't true, and he was seized by the police. Taken to court he was convicted of an attempt upon his life and was sent to prison for one year and eleven months. If Mr. Holland had not married, his wife could not have deserted him; that being the case, he would not have attempted suicide, and consequently, he would not now be in jail. Therefore it follows, that so far as William John is concerned, marriage has been a failure.

MARRIED.

On the 10th inst., at St. Agnes' Church, New York, by the Rev. Dr. Bradley. Herbert Ross, M. A., Oxford, son of Rev. R. Poole Hooper, of Brighton and Shoreham, England, to Adele Isabella, only daughter of Mr. Fenton T. Newbery, formerly of Charlott town.

The World's Columbian Exposition.

1. The whole civilized world has been interested in the Great Celebration. The crowned heads of Europe, the governments of all the famous nations of the globe, the lands of the Orient and the islands of the sea have all been co-operating to render the Exhibition worthy of the greatest event of modern times. Its magnitude and marvelous character can only be described by saying that it has comprised all the rarest products of land and sea, the most dazzling wonders of nature and the grandest productions of human genius.

2. The Great Fair which celebrates the discovery of America by Columbus has never been equalled. It was larger and more magnificent than any similar exhibition ever held. Over twenty million dollars was expended in its grand spacious buildings, and the result was the most attractive Exhibition the world ever saw.

3. This gorgeous display is vividly portrayed in our PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION. This captivating volume is a brilliant panorama of the Great Fair which has awakened such a world wide interest.

This wonderful work is a royal octavo volume of over 800 large double-column pages, 10½ inches long by 7½ inches wide. It contains nearly twice the amount of matter in an ordinary quarto book, and is therefore equal to a large volume of 1600 pages.

It contains a complete history of the World-renowned Exposition at Chicago; captivating descriptions of the magnificent Buildings and marvellous Exhibits, such as Works of Art, Textile Fabrics, Machinery, Natural Products, Latest Inventions, Discoveries, etc., with a full description of Chicago, its wonderful Buildings, Parks, etc., by ex-Governor Wm. E. Cameron, of the World's Columbian Exposition History Co., with an introduction by Hon. Thomas W. Palmer, ex-U. S. Senator and ex-Minister to Spain, including a chapter on the Women's Department by Frances E. Willard, President of the World's and National Woman's Christian Temperance Unions.

CONDITIONS—It is printed from clear, new type, on fine calendered paper, and is embellished with a large number of BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS, which charm everyone who sees them.

This grand work surpasses anything that has yet appeared in this line, and will be sold by subscription only. Wait for it; take no other.
