Sheriff's Sale.

EDWARD JARVIS HODGSON, surviving Executor of the last will and testament of DANIEL HODGSON, Plaintiff, and
LAWRENCE WHELAN, Defendant.

BY virtue of a Writ of Statute Execution to me directed, issued out of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, at the suit of the said Edward Jarvis Hodgson, surviving Executor of the last will and testament of Daniel Hodgson, against the said Lawrence Whelan, I have taken and seized as the property of the above-named Defendant, Lawrence Whelan, the following property, namely: All that tract, piece and parcel of land, situate, lying and being on Lot 34, in Queen's County, in the Prince Edward Island, containing and described as follows, that is to say: Commencing at the north-west angle of Plot No.
23, on the west side of a road leading west by St. John's; thence west seventy-three chains, or until it meets the east boundary of a tract of land now in the possession of John Auld; thence north thirty chains; thence east seventy-three chains, or until it meets the said road; thence following the course thereof south twenty chains to a place of commencement, containing one hundred and forty-six acres of land, a little more or less, being that described in a certain Indenture of Lease, dated the 10th day of November, 1849, between Sir Graham G. Montgomery, of the one part, and Nell McGinnis, of the other part.

Also—All that other tract, piece and parcel of land, situate, lying and being on Lot 34 aforesaid, and described as follows, that is to say, having a front of ten chains on the west side of the Covehead Road, and a rear of ten chains, by parallel lines, bounded on the south by Hugh Conners' farm, on the north partly by John Auld's farm and partly by vacant land, and on the east by John Landrekin's farm, and John Auld's farm, containing seventy-four (74) acres, a little more or less, being that described in an Indenture of Lease, dated the 14th day of December, A. D. 1844, and made between Sir Graham G. Montgomery, of the one part, and John Ware, of the other part, the two tracts of land containing two hundred and twenty acres, a little more or less.

Also—All that other tract, piece and parcel of land, situate, lying and being on Lot 34 aforesaid, and described as follows, that is to say, by a line commencing on the west side of the Covehead Road, at a point ten chains south from the north boundary of a tract of one hundred and twenty-one and three-quarter acres of land, conveyed by the Commissioner of Public Lands to William Woodruff; it runs thence east fifty-eight chains and sixty links, or to a tract of seven and three-quarter acres assigned by said Lawrence Whelan to William Brown aforesaid; thence south three chains and twelve links; thence east to the road; thence north along the road to the place of commencement, containing eighteen acres and one rood and a little more or less.

Also—All that other tract, piece and parcel of land, situate, lying and being on Lot 34 aforesaid,
line commencing on the east side of the Covehead Road, in the southern boundary of land conveyed by the Commissioner of Public Lands to William Woodruff; it runs thence east forty-four chains; thence south ten chains to land now or formerly in possession of Michael Landrigan; thence west to the road; thence north along the same to the place of commencement, containing fifty-four acres of land, a little more or less.

Also—All that other tract, piece and parcel of land, situate, lying and being on Lot 34 aforesaid, and described as follows, that is to say, a block of eighty-five acres of land devised by John A. A. to his son, Edward Auld, and bounded on the south by land now or lately in the occupation of Michael Landrigan's north division of land, now or lately in the possession of Edward Auld; bounded on the west by lands now or lately in the possession of Richard Toombs, and also by lands in the possession of the said Lawrence Whelan, and running east by parallel lines to the lands now or lately in possession of Edward Auld, a sufficient distance to include an area of thirty acres, as the same is bounded for some time possessed by the said Lawrence Whelan, in Queen's County.

And I do hereby give Public Notice that I will, on WEDNESDAY, the twelfth day of September, A. D. 1888, at twelve o'clock, noon, at the Court House in Charlottetown, in the said County, set up and sell by Public Auction, all the above-described properties, or as much thereof as will satisfy the levy marked on said Writ, being the sum of Three Hundred and Thirty Dollars and Eighteen Cents, with interest on Two Hundred and Fifty-nine Dollars and Fifty-five Cents, at seven and one-half per cent. from the eighth day of February, 1888, until paid, besides sheriff's fees and all incidental expenses.

three feet to the place of commencement.

Also—All that other tract, piece or parcel of land situate at Montague Bridge aforesaid, and bounded as follows, that is to say: Commencing at the northeast angle of a plot of land in possession of Charles D. Poole, and running from thence in a northwesterly direction along the west side of the street leading from Main Street to the new boundary line of the said Charles D. Poole for a distance of fifty feet; thence right angles westwardly one hundred feet; thence south parallel with the aforesaid street fifty feet, or until it meets the north boundary of land in possession of Charles D. Poole; thence east along said boundary to the place of commencement, containing one-eighth of an acre, a little more or less. Also—All that other tract, piece or parcel of land situate at Montague, Township Number Fifty-nine, and bounded as follows: Commencing on the south-western side of the road leading from the Ferry Road to Montague Bridge, in the western boundary of fifty acres now or formerly in possession of Augustus C. McDonald; thence south three degrees east along said boundary to the rear boundary of farms fronting on that section of the Montague River; thence following the line westwardly ten chains; thence north three degrees west to the Ferry Road; thence east along the same to a continuation of the east boundary of three and three-quarter acres sold to Hugh McPherson, and in the possession of Charles D. Poole; thence northwardly along the same to the Montague River; thence east to the new boundary line of the same to the place of commencement, containing eighty acres and one quarter, a little more or less, together with all houses, buildings, rights, members and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

"Destitute Children."

"How great a matter a little fire kindleth," Jas. 3:5.

A good work of caring for destitute children, was commenced by Miss Stirling, of Edinburgh, in 1877, just eleven years ago. At that time there was no provision made in her city for the numerous children who through the sickness or poverty of parents, were improperly cared for. Such children were often left in a wretched state, running about the streets, locked into, or out of houses, as the case might be, and growing up in vice and crime. To remedy this evil

THE DAY NURSERY
was started and conducted alone, by Miss Stirling, for one year. After this she was aided by noble Christian workers, who joined "heart and hand" in the enterprise.

Later, seeing that many of the little ones often went out from "The Nursery," in the evening, to misery and sometimes to death, their first friend felt she could no longer remain in the work unless

A HOME
could be provided for their permanent protection. In this way she was induced to open successfully seven "Homes" for them.

But these "Homes" becoming "too strait" by reason of the ever increasing numbers, something more had to be done, and this made their friend think of

A BROAD LAND ACROSS THE SEA, where it would be well to take the strong and favored ones, to aid in all the works of a new country. But this plan involved another thought,—the children must not be consigned to the hands of strangers without a friend beside them, so a

FARM AND HOME IN NOVA SCOTIA, near Aylesford, King's Co., was purchased, as headquarters for those who had newly landed; and where their old friends could look after their interests generally.

This Home has now been maintained for two years, and by the hearty co-operation of many friends of children in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island—who have opened their doors,— homes have been given to a large number; and it is hoped each child will prove a signal blessing.

Since the late arrival of A PARTY FROM SCOTLAND the number of children at "The Farm" has been greatly increased. Homes are being rapidly secured for all the large ones, and a number of

BRIGHT LITTLE BOYS
of four, five and six years of age, who would gladden any heart that would open to receive them. As the twig is bent, the tree's inclined," so it is with these little ones; they now look into the faces of those about them, and learn to think and act for themselves; and in taking them to homes they can be trained to suit individual taste. "In as much as ye did it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

You, kind readers, who have your pleasant fireside, consider Him, who for your sakes became poor, that ye might be made rich; and join in this work of ministering unto Him.

Yours &c.,
A FRIEND OF LITTLE CHILDREN.

Woman Franchise and the Women's Congress.

The women's congress at Washington this week will be the most notable gathering of the sex so far known to history. Many topics of interest to women will be discussed, but the right to vote will be a chief-subject. There is no doubt that the movement to that end steadily gains ground in the world.
In Great Britain a government measure now proposes to give women the franchise for municipal elections as they now have in the election of school boards. In Ontario women ratepayers have for some time taken a part in municipal elections. Mr. Killam's gallant bill has been before our provincial legislature to give women certain voting powers. The Dominion Parliament has had before it the matter of enfranchising widows and unmarried women of property.

Women now have the right to vote for school officers in Massachusetts, New York and California, for municipal officers in Kansas and Wisconsin, and in all elections in Wyoming, and Washington Territories. In the latter territory the privilege was conceded as an experiment in 1883 for a term of five years, and on the expiry of the term the legislature has again passed the measure and the governor has signed it. It was tried for a term and some years since made perpetual in Wyoming.

The experience of Massachusetts, where women may vote only for school officers, shows that no very great interest was taken and but few women voted. In the municipal elections of Kansas, a much greater interest was shown. In 86 towns and cities in that State, which held elections last April, the total vote cast was 90,568, of which 64,846 were cast by men, and 25,722 by women.

From this brief recital it will be seen that the movement to enfranchise women is making steady if slow progress throughout English-speaking countries. The big country can scarcely fail to give it a strong impetus, and more rapid progress may be counted on hereafter.

TEA AT MONTAGUE.—Please bear in mind that on the 27th of June next the Tea of the season will be held at Montague, in aid of the Methodist Church, which it is expected will be well on towards completion. Notices of special attractions to the Tea will appear in the papers in due time. lm—mch15

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Denial.

SIR,—In a late number of THE EXAMINER, dated March 30th, 1888, in the account of the Scott Act convictions lately held before the Justices of that village, it is therein stated that the undersigned was convicted and fined $50 or one month in jail, I being the only man of that name in Crapaud or Victoria, I emphatically deny the charge, and said report is a grievous mistake, intentionally or otherwise, and one that if let go uncontradicted is liable to do me and mine a great deal of harm. I have never been engaged in the traffic, nor yet was I ever blamed for selling the ardent. Therefore it would be impossible for me to be before the Justices on such a charge. In fact I have never been before the Magistrates on that or any other charge.

You will therefore see the justice and necessity of rectifying the gross mistake therein published broadcast before the world, otherwise there will be others brought before a much higher Court than the country Magistrate's, and made answer and be accountable for damages sustained by the undersigned. Please give this as wide a circulation in your paper as the slander published about me had, and oblige,
Yours respectfully,
FRANK MCKENNA.

Victoria, Crapaud, P. E. I., April 9, 1888.

[The convicted party was Patrick Mc-Kenna and not Francis McKenna, as inadvertently reported. The person who supplied the information upon which the paragraph was based made a mistake in the first name.]
