While hindered from going about by failing health, she has made many friends during her short stay in the city. She leaves to mourn a family of five sons and two daughters, three sons and a daughter living in Saint Ste. Marie, Ont., and two sons in Fredericton, N. B. A short burial service was held at Mr. McNaughton's residence on Tuesday evening and the body was taken on Tuesday morning's train for interment in Marysville, N. B.

MILLING CO., STARTED—Everyone interested in the development of our Island industries will be pleased to know that the Charlottetown Milling Company has resumed operations again, after being closed for a time on account of circumstances which are quite familiar to the public, a settlement having been arranged with the Canadian Fairbanks Morse Company, Limited. A meeting was held in this city last Monday night when the Company was re-organized with the following officers:—President, B. D. Howatt; vice-president, Colonel H. M. Davison, sec-treas, B. W. LaPage, M. P. P., general manager, George S. Robson, Guelph; directors, M. Waiker and Mr. MacKinnon of Montreal representing the Canadian Fairbanks Morse Company (who are taking stock to the full amount of their interest.) Isaac Carter, C. H. Chandler and R. H. Jenkins of Charlottetown.

On both sides of it were houses belonging to Mr. McDougall, one a new house not completed, the other an old house quickly vacated by the occupants. Those were attached to every available hydrant and the fire got to work with even more of their accustomed energy. The barn soon burned out and the men's efforts were directed towards isolating the fire to this building as much as possible. Within half an hour the barn was over. The barn was completely gutted and the contents of Mr. Crockett's garage and the house adjoining remained untouched. At the time of going to press the fire was completely under control, only smoking embers remaining. The suddenness with which the fire started, and the quick control, will make it a memorable one. The barn contained nothing but some pieces of lumber and rubbish.

There was a large attendance at the Rotary Club last night, when the annual election of officers was scheduled to take place. Usually the club elects the president and officers but on this occasion the president and executive committee only were elected, the executive being delegated to elect later the remaining vice president, secretary and treasurer. Vice president Mayor Jenkins occupied the chair in the absence of President J. A. Clark. Amid applause Rotarian P. W. Turner was elected president of the club for the ensuing year. The following executive was appointed: Rotarians J. A. Clark, (past president), Dr. J. W. P. McMillan, Wm. M. Rowe, R. E. Mutch, T. W. Morris and G. F. Hutcheson. Reports of the retiring president, secretary and treasurer were read and approved. The treasurer's reports how the club to be in a satisfactory financial situation. Reports were unmitigatedly commended by the Rotarians J. A. McMillan on behalf of the Entertainment Committee; by A. Irwin for Public Affairs; and by J. A. Webster for Fellowship. A brief but very interesting address by Rotary was delivered by visiting Rotarian Prof. H. L. Shaw of Dalhousie University. It was decided this year by the Club to offer a cup to be known as the Rotary Cup for the best all-round athlete at the let of July sports. This cup will be the first of many that Rotary will set up for it was also decided to make the gift an annual one—a cup for every Dominion Day sports. This it is hoped will be an incentive to local athletics and it will undoubtedly add to the zest of the coming meet on July 1st. Routine matters of business were disposed of and a discussion followed on various topics, among them that of the advantages of supervised playgrounds. Mr. E. E. Poole of Regina, Sask., was a guest of the club last night.

On the fire was noticed by Mr. J. D. McCormack who was returning home a few minutes after twelve o'clock. Near his house on Riley's Lane he noticed flames coming from the windows and doorway of a barn owned by Mr. Aleck McDougall and immediately sent in the alarm. This barn is situated directly behind Mr. Crockett's fish market on Grafton St. and quite near Mr. Campbell's garage on Pownall Street. Within a few minutes the flames had burst through the roof and when the firemen arrived on the scene the flames were shooting heavenward and had already set ablaze the warehouse adjoining Mr. Crockett's store. The conflagration could be seen for many blocks and very soon a large crowd had gathered. The fire brigade last night a very fierce fire, which broke out about midnight in a barn on Riley's Lane, off Pownall Street, would certainly have swept away many buildings in this crowded section of the city.

A glance through your paper and you jump from New York to San Francisco, Philadelphia to London, or from Montreal to Timbuktu. You know what is going on the world over almost as soon as the events occur. Turn to the advertising columns and you are transported to the grocers, the clothiers, the music store; you visit the factory of a manufacturer, or talk with the maker of a new household appliance. Right in your own arm-chair, unhurried, unworried and without effort, you can make your choice of good merchandise. Merchants and manufacturers who put advertisements in this paper are progressive. They must give good value. They know hat advertising, by increasing the number of sales, will lower prices and give you more for your money. THE ADVERTISEMENTS ARE MILES AHEAD OF "SEVEN LEAGUE BOOTS". READ THEM.'
