

GRAMMING THE GOVERNOR.

A public meeting of the inhabitants of Queen's County is to be held in Charlottetown on Wednesday next, for the purpose of adopting an address to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, congratulating him on his recent appointment to the administration of affairs in this Colony.

WHAT CONSERVATIVES EXPECTED, AND WHAT THEY HAVE GOT.

Mr. James Campbell, of St. Eleanor's, whose name has been used in connection with the appointment to the office of Collector of Excise at Bodeque—a writes a very indignant letter to the Islander, to express his "unqualified contempt at the uncalled for manner in which his name has been posted in the public newspapers."

The large amount of space we are still required to give to the reports of the two Houses of Legislature, preclude our devoting much room to general news, and none to literary selections; while, for the same reason, we are compelled to curtail our own editorial remarks on passing events, and to defer, longer than we would wish, some interesting letters from correspondents on various subjects.

LATE NEWS FROM EUROPE—THE WAR IN ITALY.

The English Mail was received here on Wednesday evening last, via the Georgetown Packet from Pietou—the Steamer having been laid up to be cleaned. Latest English dates are to the 4th inst. The all-absorbing topic of discussion with British journals is the progress of the war in Italy.

THE WAR IN ITALY.

THE BATTLE OF MONTEBELLO.

GENERAL FOREY'S REPORT.

ARMY OF ITALY.—FIRST CORPS.—FIRST DIVISION.—OFFICIAL REPORT OF GENERAL FOREY, TRANSMITTED BY HIS EXCELLENCY MARSHAL BARAGUAT D'HILLIERS TO THE EMPEROR.

VOGHERA, May 20, 1859.—Midnight.

MONSIEUR LE MARCHEL.—I have the honor to render you an account of the combat in which my division was engaged to-day. Informed at half-past twelve that a strong Austrian column, with cannon, had occupied Casteggio, and had repulsed from Montebello the Grand Guards of the Piedmontese cavalry, I went immediately to the outposts on the road to Montebello with two battalions of the 74th, destined to relieve two battalions of the 84th, cantoned upon that road, in front of Voghera, and on the heights of Maduri.

treble limit of our advanced posts, I ordered a section of the artillery to be ranged in order, supported on the right and left by two battalions of the 84th, approaching the brook with their sharpshooters. During this time the enemy pushed on from Montebello upon Ginestrello, and having been informed that they directed their march upon me in two columns, the one by the highway, the other by the embankment of the railway, I ordered the battalion of the left of the 74th to cover the embankment to Cascina Nova, and the other to cover the road, in the rear of the 84th.

THE RETREAT FROM VERCELLI.

TURIN, May 22.—Gen. Cialdini, wishing to take possession of the end of the bridge of Vercelli, which adjoined the left bank of the river, in order by that means to protect the construction of another bridge over the Sesia, moved forward two columns, which, after having passed the river, joined at the same point. The column which crossed near Sesia, on the side next Albano, was attacked by the Austrians in great force, and sustained a fierce conflict at a place called Villata.

AUSTRIAN ACCOUNT.

VIENNA, May 23.—At noon on the 21st inst., about 15,000 of the Franco-Sardinian army attacked our troops, numbering 3,000, at Vercelli. Our men retreated, fighting, to Orfengo. At this place two other Austrian brigades hurried to the rescue, and threatened the enemy's flank, which retired across the Sesia, to the western side of the river.

REVOLUTION IN LOMBARDY.

Revolutionary movements have taken place in Lombardy. Bontemps, the Swiss General, is going to Lugano with the Staff of his division, and all the troops under his command are to follow him.

ERRATUM.—In the 12th line of Lector's letter, published in the last Examiner, for "sheep in wolves' clothing," read "wolves in sheep's clothing."

We are informed that General Williams, by a telegram from Halifax, dated the 15th inst., has communicated to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor that "he leaves for Newfoundland on Friday (to-day), and returns to the Devastation to visit His Excellency in Charlottetown."
