

Docty.

ORIGINALLY PRINTED IN 1859-60.

Women are best, when they are at rest; But when that I pray;

If the weather is bad, all day they grieve; They are best not to rain;

Them most they chide, of this and that; Their tongues also must walk;

Whosoever they will they must always do, And of their bad husbands talk.

When counting the night, it is never right; But ever something to be said;

If husbands be weary, they are so merry, They never come a song.

Those can they chide, while at their side Their husbands rest to sleep;

Why, how you sneer! go lie on the floor." Such is the call they keep.

Some men are best, when they are at rest, If you can catch them still;

When they, they chide and are worse, I have tried, If you grant them their will.

Give them their way, what will they say, And charge their mind at night;

Let them sleep, and you will win That mine was good advice.

SONG FOR THINKERS.

BY CHARLES SWAIN.

Take the spade of Perseverance, Dig the field of Progress wide;

Every rotten weed of action, Every stub and cut of pride;

Every seed that hurts the soil; Tares, whose very growth is toil;

Give the spirit of Education, Broader channels, broader force;

Let the stones of prejudice, Of old wrongs they lack their course;

Soil, for strength in self-cultivation, Words, whose growth is terror;

Class the crooked gear to frame, Make the road to honor straight.

Men are agents for the Future! He who works, no ages win;

Editor harvest words of wisdom, Or the product of his pen;

Follow out true cultivation, When Education's plan;

From the majesty of nature, Teach the mystery of man.

Take the spade of Perseverance, Dig the field of Progress wide;

Every bar to true instruction, Carry out and cut aside;

Feed the plant whose fruit is wisdom; Cease from the grain the common soil;

So that from the seasons of heaven, It may bear the glories of God.

Varieties.

A Hungarian Artist, who a few years ago was an infidel, subsequently a deist, but now a Protestant, has been occupying during the last two years in preparing a Hungarian work for the press, bearing the title, "The Progress of the Human Race, from Infidelity to a firm belief in Natural and Revealed Religion."

It is said to be written with perspicuity and great originality of conception.

About thirty years ago, the inhabitants of the Sandwich Islands were in the lowest degree of barbarism. Since that time there were ten thousand two hundred and one have been gathered into Christian Churches.

There are now in regular standing in these churches twenty-one thousand and fifty-two members, which is more than the fourth of the whole population: the census of 1849 gives but eighty thousand six hundred and forty-one inhabitants. "What hath God wrought!"

Nine ounces, says the Scientific American, of pure fresh lime, dissolved in forty gallons of water, will purify five hundred and fifty gallons of hard water—the precipitate is chalk. It takes sixteen hours for the water to settle, and all the impurities fall to the bottom of the vessel which contains the water. This is a useful fact in chemistry, and is not very extensively known.

A CRIMINAL CASE IN TEXAS.—At a late trial somewhere in Texas, the defendant, who was not familiar with the multitude of words which the law affords for self-defence, after listening awhile to the reading of the indictment, jumped up and said, "Them 'ere allegations are false and that 'ere alleged knows me."

A GOOD ADVICE.—Always do as the sun does—look at the bright side of every thing that is just cloudy, and is good digestion.

Diligence is a fair fortune, and industry a good estate. A good life keeps off wrinkles.

Borax, so much used in washing, is a subcarbonate of soda, and is extensively manufactured in Tuscany, the revenue amounting to ten millions francs per annum.

MATRIMONIAL TROUBLES.—Washington Wilson, of Amherstburg, advertises his wife Mary, for desertion, and says—"The cause of her leaving me was because I broke a pipe of her cousin's, and because I objected to her running to town two or three times a week, and stopping in the houses of her friends."

Every man's fortune is in his own hand; a wise man will control the stars; every way is payable to virtue.

When doves call to us fools without proving us to be, our best resort to prove them to be fools without condescending to call them so.

Since custom is the powerful magistrate of man's life, let men, by all means, endeavor to obtain good customs.

It is a curious fact, recently demonstrated, that if a tree be inoculated with the poison of a rattlesnake, it will live for some time.

He that follows his recreation instead of his business, shall in a little time have no business to follow.

The laboring man in the present age, if he does not read, has more leisure to wisdom than Solomon.

If you can be well without health, you can be happy without virtue.
