

Cecil Dowling Winner Of Island Open Golf Title

Charlottetown Golf pro Cecil (Bobby) Dowling won his second Island Open Golf title in a row at the Belvedere Golf Club on Sunday when he shot a neat 1-over-par 73 which added to his previous rounds of 75 and 76 gave him a title-winning score of 224.

It was the third big championship of the year for Dowling who earlier in the summer won the N.S. open and N.B.-P.E.I. titles at St. John.

Lions Defeat Air Force 8-3

Barry's Lions, Charlottetown's softball champs, drew first blood in their best of five series with the RCAF Flyers for the Prince Edward Island Championship, defeating the airmen at the airport diamond yesterday by the score of 8-3.

Norm Haney, on the slab for the Airforce Nine, gave up only five hits, but the visitors bunched three of them in the seventh inning, and three airforce errors accounted for six runs. Haney had the bases loaded behind him while facing seven of the twelve batters he pitched to in that frame and two of his three walks forced runners across the plate. Altogether Haney issued nine free tickets: To first and struck out five.

Art Ballen was touched for 9 hits, four of them in the ninth inning when the Flyers scored all their runs. He walked only one batter and whiffed seven.

Three Horses Set New Marks On Saturday Racing Program

A large crowd of race fans saw a good card of harness racing at the Charlottetown Driving Park Saturday night and watched three horses race to new individual racing marks.

Colonel Budlong, a big upset winner, lowered his record to 2:15 4-5 in taking the opening dash of the card and paid his backers $54.70 for a win ticket. The Colonel was followed to the wire by Bonnie's Girl and Royal Train.
