No meeting of Mock Parliament to-night. The Lucy Pope is now loading at Railway wharf. The EXAMINER is sprinkled every day with a strong disinfectant. TWENTY BARRELS ONIONS at R. K. Bruce's. The market to-day was fairly well supplied with meat and other necessaries.

THERE were 32 deaths from smallpox in Montreal and suburbs Tuesday.

Two cases of drunkenness at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon.

The City Marshal and Police are actively engaged having all filthy yards cleaned.

THE DAILY EXAMINER is for sale at James McLeod's Grocery, Spring Park Road.

THE route of the Picton extension has been settled by the Dominion Government.

CARBOLIC ACID POWDER, Calvert's Carbolic Acid Soap, Chloride of Lime, Eno's Fruit Salt, arrived to-day at Watson's.

THE only place to get a Fur Felt Hat (French and American), in the latest shape and shade, is at Mrs. R. Young's, 83 Queen Street.

Mrs. R. Young has received her last and best instalment of Hats and Shapes for this season in all shades and styles in Ladies', Misses' and Children's.

THE steamer Carroll, Capt. Brown, sailed for Boston last night with a cargo of 405 bushels potatoes, 591 cases eggs, 1,346 cases canned goods. The Carroll took no passengers.

TRIMMED HATS and Bonnets on hand in great variety, from 50 cents upwards, which must be cleared out this fall. Crape Hats, Bonnets and Ladies' Caps, for old and young, at Mrs. R. Young's.

No smoker who has ever used the "Myrtle Navy" tobacco, for, say a month, ever relinquishes it for any other brand. Its flavor is rich and full, and it never burns the tongue or parches the palate, it is in fact, the ne plus ultra of smoking tobacco.

At the County Court, in Toronto, on the 17th, in the case of O'Keefe vs. Jeffrey, to recover part of subscription promised by defendant to the Brewers' and Wine Merchants' Protective Association, it came out in evidence that the Association had spent nearly $30,000 in opposing the Scott Act in Ontario.

An agent on the estates of the Earl of Kenmare, in the County Kerry, Ireland, has been terribly beaten by a party of men, supposed to be tenants on the estate. Four constables, who were with the agent, were powerless to prevent the outrage. A number of distrainted cattle, seized for rent, were abandoned. Lord Kenmare recently peremptorily refused to make a reduction in the rents of holdings on his estate, and the tenants refused to pay rents.

The death is announced of Rev. Francis Sadlier, S. J., at Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass., after a brief illness. He was born in Montreal in 1852, and was the son of the late James Sadlier, who with his brother, the late Denis Sadlier, founded the well known Catholic publishing house of D. & J. Sadlier & Co. His mother is the well known Catholic authoress, Mary A. Sadlier. Father Sadlier was educated at Manhattan College.

SHIPMENT OF LIVE HEWS.—The Kentville, N. S. Chronicle says: 800 live hews were shipped on Wednesday last from Middleton and Kingston, to take the steamer from Annapolis to Boston. This is but the commencement of this business. There is no duty on the live articles to the States and the move has consequently been started, with what success we have yet to learn. The hews are carried in crates fixed for the purpose, and are expected to make the journey as easy and comfortable as can be.

The Montreal Herald states that the bonds of the C. P. Railway are now selling in London at 101. The Dominion Government holds $20,000,000 of these bonds as part security for its loan to the company. It could by placing these bonds on the market at any time recoup itself for over two-thirds of its loan to the company, and it is not improbable that it may take some such step at a not very distant date. It would still have all the company's lands as security for the remainder of the loan.

THE sad tidings have been received by the Rev. A. J. McFarland, St. John, N. B., that Dr. A. J. Dodds, medical missionary of the Syrian mission of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, was lost from the Cunard steamer Sidon in the Mediterranean on October 27th. The steamer was caught in a cyclone and was wrecked on the coast of Spain, about 50 miles from Corunna. The vessel was a total loss. The crew and all on board were saved, except four passengers, one of whom was Dr. Dodds. The deceased was married to a niece of Rev. Mr. McFarland, St. John, N. B.

DROWNED WHILE TRYING TO RESCUE HIS COMRADES.—Capt. Inness, of the barque Summit Bros., writing to Mr. Harris Reid, Harvey, Albert County, gives the following further particulars of the drowning of his son Charles Reed, second mate. Capt. Inness says: "The accident happened on the 30th September, at 4 o'clock in the morning, during a heavy gale. He lost his own life trying to save others. They were trying to furl the main topsail when Slack Edgett and another man fell from the yard overboard. The mate and myself were trying to get them on board when Charlie came down from aloft, and without stopping to think how a rope over the side and got on it to try and help them, when a heavy sea must have washed him off, for we did not see him afterwards, for it was so dark we could not see who were hanging in at the time. He was a fine lad, and liked by all on board."—Moncton Times.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate, IN REAKICKNESS. S. S. Parker, Wellington, O., says: "While crossing Lake Erie, I gave it to some passengers who were seasick, and it gave immediate relief."

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

THE SUBWAY SCHEME.

SENATOR HOWLAN AT HIS OLD HOME.

A SURVEY DESIRED.

ALBERTON, Nov. 20.

The Court House was crowded last night, to hear Senator Howlan's explanation of his charts and models of the Subway. John D. Woodman, Esq., occupied the chair, and George R. Montgomery, Secretary.

After the Senator finished, — Ritchie, Esq., moved and Hon. R. B. Reid seconded a resolution requesting the Dominion Government to cause a survey to be made between the Capes, with a view of consulting eminent engineers respecting its feasibility, and the cost of the enterprise. The motion was also discussed at length by the before-named gentlemen, Senator Montgomery, Hon. B. Rogers and others.

The meeting was both enthusiastic and unanimous, and at its close a vote of thanks was proposed by D. Montgomery, Esq., and seconded by John P. Brennan, Esq., to which the Senator responded, thanking his old friends and neighbors for their confidence and kindness.

Mr. Howlan speaks at Northam to-night.

THE BULGARIAN WAR.

Reported Servian Victories.

Prince Alexander's Bravery.

LONDON, Nov. 19.

Bulgaria is denuding the Turkish frontier of troops, and is sending all her available forces to the front to combat the Servians.

BELOGRAD, Nov. 19.

A despatch from Tzaribrod says that two Bulgarian battalions were defeated to-day by Servians on the road between Bosniak and Pernick. The Bulgarians lost 200 killed and wounded. The Servians captured 60 prisoners and a quantity of ammunition and provisions.

VIENNA, Nov. 19.

An official Servian report says, accounts telegraphed yesterday that Servian troops menacing Silvenitz were repulsed by the Bulgarians, under the command of Prince Alexander, are false. The Bulgarians succeeded in approaching the Servian position, under cover of heavy fog, but after sharp fighting were repulsed. The Servians drove the Bulgarians to the Slavini entrenchments and, in the whole engagement, had 500 men killed and wounded. The reconnoitering force, sent in the direction of Slavini, skirmished for two hours with Bulgarians, and then retired within the shelter of the Servian lines.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 19.

The Independence Belg publishes a despatch from Sofia, stating that the Servians attacked the third Bulgarian regiment escorting the ambulance train, and bayoneted the wounded soldiers which it contained. The despatch also says that Prince Alexander submits to the Sultan, embodied in the latter's reply to the Prince's appeal for help, and begs the Sultan to aid him at once.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 19.

Prince Alexander, in his request to the Porte for help, states that in compliance with Milan's demand he has withdrawn Bulgarian troops from Eastern Roumelia.

SIMLIA, Nov. 19.

Reliable reports received here state that the Servian loss at Sawintza yesterday was three times greater than that given in official accounts, and actually even exceeded the previous total loss since the outbreak of hostilities. Prince Alexander was in thickest of battle from beginning to end. The Servians noticed that he first rode a white horse and afterwards a brown horse. It is believed the white horse was shot under him.

The Short Line.

OTTAWA, Nov. 19.

The International Railway Company has obtained a contract from the Government to build a short line railway from Montreal via Sherbrook, to ports of St. Andrew's, St. John and Halifax. The limits of the contract are that the road be commenced six months from date, and completed in four years from July next. The company has among its directors, Messrs. McIntyre, Stephen and Angus.

Conditions of Peace.

LONDON, Nov. 19.

The Times says: "It is reported that Turkey and Servia have agreed to arrange the conditions of peace after the capture of Sofia. Turkey prefers a strong Servia to a strong Bulgaria, but also desires to save Prince Alexander's position as much as possible. Servia likewise does not wish to personally humble Prince Alexander."

Toronto News Notes

TORONTO, Nov. 19.

The Grits at an adjourned meeting, to discuss the introduction of party politics into municipal elections, decided after a lively discussion by a vote of 35 to 16, to fight the coming elections on strict party lines. There seemed very little interest taken in the question, as notwithstanding an urgent appeal in the Grit organ, only sixty or seventy were present.

Wm. Sioane, a wealthy farmer, left Lindsay for home on Saturday evening and has not since been seen or heard of. As he had a considerable sum of money with him foul play is suspected.

Within the past ten days four new cases of smallpox have broken out here; two in families where members had previously contracted the disease. The last case was contracted to-day on Sydenham Street. How the disease was contracted puzzles the medical authorities.

A Halloween Outrage—Scott Act Defeated.

TORONTO, Nov. 19.

Richard Stone, a butcher, and other defendants, charged with being perpetrators of the Halloween outrage, in suspending a nude dead body on a butcher hook, were to-day discharged. The detectives are completely baffled in ferreting out the real criminals, who were undoubtedly students. In the Scott Act election at St. Catharines to-day, the Act was defeated by a majority of 587. The contest was very keen.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Subway.

Sir,—In your issue of yesterday I notice a letter signed "Tunnel" from Kensington. In reply permit me to state that I intend holding a meeting at Kensington, and let the writer appear there and he shall be answered personally, as I do not intend to answer anonymous scribbles. I am, Yours respectfully, GEORGE W. HOWLAN.

The Red Token.

(The S. S. Carroll left Charlottetown, P. E. I., for Boston, Nov. 5, 1885.)

Aboard the S. S. Carroll 'mong passengers and crew

A little maiden waved her handkerchief adieu,

While other tokens of departure fluttered by the score.

All of them good-bye signals to friends upon the shore.

Oh! the sad need of separation! souls repine

When the sad hour of departure lifts the darkened line

That Heaven has put for good between all loving hearts

To temper them with sorrow—But, the ship departs

And further yet, from off the shore, the Carroll seeks the stream;

While constantly, and faster now, all the 'kerchiefs' seem

The sorrow emblem truly, of those who now must part

Their motion sadly answering, for many a beating heart.

And now about the centre of the motley groups

Who are still waving handkerchiefs of fleecy white afar,

A bright red spot appears to signal "Here I am!"

Here is your little maiden's silk wrought monogram.

The monogram of L. H. M., might then lie all concealed,

But the red flying silk flag the maiden's heart revealed.

And boldly called for recognition upon all,

Like to the old red line of Jericho upon the wall.

The good ship Carroll then slowly steamed away,

The evening light lighting her on with feeble ray,

Till, by and by, the harbor's hungry mouth was crossed,

And to our sight both red silk flag and ship were lost.
