This information is correct having been gained by competent and trust-worthy advertisers, leaving samples at every house and making careful enquiries.

These families never knew what pure SOAPS meant, until they tried SUNLIGHT and LIFEBOUY.

Why should not others learn and be healthier and happier for the learning.

A WISE WOMAN

Was Mrs. Hattie M. Morris, of Burt's Corners, York County, N. B.

She needed some Medicine for the Kidneys, and she took Dodd's Kidney Pills—She was not deceived by the false pretensions of Imitators.

BURT'S CORNERS, Oct. 30.—Mrs. Hattie M. Morris, of this place, in her capacity of mistress of an hotel and general store, is known throughout this district as a woman of such shrewd business ability as is possessed but by few of her sex. This shrewdness did not desert Mrs. Morris when a little while ago she lost her health. Many women, and men too, for that matter, experiment with the various imitations of Dodd's Kidney Pills, thinking that because a medicine is cheaper, or is put up in the same kind of a box, or bears a similar name, it is liable to be better, or just as good as the original. Mrs. Morris had too much experience, for that. She writes:

"A year ago I had occasion to use some medicine. I resolved to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, thinking they would be what I required, and in that respect I was not disappointed. For some time I had been so run down in strength and ambition that everything I had to do seemed a drag. I had no ambition to get up from a chair to attend to my household affairs, and, though, of course, I had to do it, it felt like a punishment to move. I did not look sickly, being content, but I may say I had no energy to do the smallest thing around the hotel. I used three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and can heartily recommend them for that dull, heavy, do-nothing kind of a tired feeling. They give you the right kind of snap and push, and fill you with a determination to get around and do something. We keep a store here and a hotel, and I can now do my work with pleasure and light-heartedness."

The most critical times in a woman's life are the times which make the girl a woman, and the woman a mother. At those times, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is of incalculable value. It strengthens and invigorates the organs distinctly feminine, promotes regularity of the functions, allays irritation and inflammation, checks anaemia, exhausts drains, and puts the whole delicate organism into perfect condition. Almost all the ills of womanhood are traceable to some form of what is known as "female complaint." There are not three cases in a hundred of woman's peculiar diseases that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will not cure.

AN ALASKAN FABLE.

(Ottawa Journal.)

Little Henri Bonrassa (from Canada): "Oh! Oooh! Yow! Get off my feet, you great big clumsy!" (Boohoos horribly.)

Uncle Sam—"Well, keep out of the way then."

Little Henri (in tears): "You great big stupid, you think you own the whole road, but I've got my rights and I—"

Uncle Sam: "Shut your head, youngster, or I'll kick the stuffing out of you."

Little Henri: "Help! Help! Daddy! Daddy! A bad man's going to lick me! Help!"

John Bull: "Hallo, Henri, what's the matter? Uncle Sam trampling on you? Look here, Sam, that's one of my kids."

Uncle Sam (politely): "Oh, indeed, well, I'm not hurting him much. And you wouldn't quarrel with your own best friend about a trifle, would you?"

John Bull: "Sorry, old fellow, but I've got to stand by the little man."

Uncle Sam: "Well, well, I guess the youth'll have to have a little room. See here, sonny, you ought to be proud of your dad, for sometimes he takes big chances for you. Good-day, John." (Moves off.)

Henri weeps tears of gratitude, and goes on down street with his dad, when suddenly a little Dutch boy plugs the old gentleman with a peashooter. The old man runs after him, and calls for Henri to help catch the scamp. Henri strikes an attitude in the middle of the road. "Never," says he, "never."

There is no precedent. It is not parliamentary. I have not had time to consult my chums. I decline to give color to the idea that I am going to take up your quarrels. Catch him yourself."

As John Bull's coat tails disappear around the corner after the small Dutch boy, Henri bethinks himself and shouts in addition, "Hi dad! If Uncle Sam or anybody else gets after me again, I'll yell and you come quick!"

Moral—All John Bull's kids are not Bonrassas.

The Southern Railway.

Sir,—Mr. D. A. McKinnon has the assurance to claim the most of the credit for the Railway agitation in Belfast and Murray Harbor. I desire to inform him that the agitation originated here years ago when Mr. McKinnon was in swaddling clothes. It was reported here two months ago that Sir L. H. Davies had promised a delegation which waited upon him from Alberry Plains that the work of actual construction would be commenced as both ends this year. The season for constructing a railway past and not below has been struck. People here have concluded that grit politicians are not truthful.

ESTERMED EXCHANGES.

Hamilton Spectator: Today the Buffalo Courier says: "Canada, trusting to the protection of Britains skirts, is inclined to impertinence." And yet, only a week ago, the Courier could not imagine why Canada should makele in the Africa business—why Canada should send men to aid Britain against the Boers. The Courier must know now that Canada is grateful for the protection of those "skirts."

It is Easy to Love

Your neighbor as yourself when your neighbor is a pretty girl. It is just as easy to cure yourself of Catarrh, Bronchitis or Asthma, if you use Gatarhozone, the new medicated air treatment for all diseases of the nasal and respiratory passages caused by germs like Catarrhozone cured by inhalation without danger or risk to the sufferer. It goes wherever air can go and never fails to reach the affected parts. This is why it excels treatments requiring the use of sprays, douches, powders, ointments, &c. which cannot reach the seat of the disease and are therefore useless. For sale at all druggists, or direct by mail, price $1. Send 10 cents in stamps to N. C. Polson & Co., Manufacturing Chemists, Kingston, Ont., for sample outfit.
