FRIENDLY COURTESY

Is a Lot of "Little Things"!

The difference at Dominion is Friendly Courtesy... and it is expressed by many different people in many different ways! It may be a willing clerk's helpful answer to your question... prompt satisfaction when an adjustment is necessary... the happy smile a friendly cashier gives you... a little extra service a carryout boy renders... a willing nod from the man behind the meat counter—and so many more 'little things' that turn an ordinary shopping trip into a truly satisfying experience.

It is the sum total of Dominion people helping people... a job they like to do best! Whatever Friendly Courtesy means to you, you'll find it in great quantities at DOMINION, where a job well done is a matter of personal pride with every member of the staff.

Convention Year Opening Monday

By NANCY WHITE

The program planned for the wives of the delegates includes tea at Government House, a visit to the Confederation Chamber and a tour of Convent's Wooden Mills.

Next on the convention roster is the annual convention of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture.

Dated Jan. 29-31, it will be preceded by the Eastern Conference, involving Federation delegates from the five eastern provinces, on Jan. 17-18.

A highlight of the Federation of Agriculture convention will be the attendance of Hon. Harry Hays, federal minister of agriculture.

Hon. Dr. L. George Dewar, provincial minister of education, will be guest speaker at the main dinner, and will address some 100 delegates on the topic: "Southeast Asia—Social, Political and Economic Implications."

This conference will be set up much the same as that of the Dairy Farmers, with a board of meetings Monday and Friday and Tuesday's sessions open to the public.

A board meeting Friday will bring the convention to a close.

Canoe Cove Presbyterian Church Receives Memorials

A memorial service was conducted recently at the Canoe Cove Presbyterian Church by the pastor, Rev. R. L. Gillis, assisted by John MacNevin, chairman of the trustees and Daniel MacNevin, E.D., and treasurer of the church.

Acknowledgement of memorials and their dedication included the communion table runner and a pulpit scarf, given in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander M. MacEachers and son Oliver Compton and daughter Annie Louise by the family; two communion chairs presented by Mrs. Neil H. MacKinnon of Somerville, Mass. in memory of her late husband Neil.

Day Care Pupils Present Pageant

A Christmas pageant was presented by the students of the Day Care and Day Training classes of the Sherwood Hospital Home for mentally retarded children recently.

Parents and friends attended the concert.

About half of these children are severely retarded and only one had previously taken part in a group performance before an audience.

The event was made possible by much practice under the direction of Rev. Walter Reid and Rev. Ross Howard, aided by a training teacher at the home, Mrs. Dorothy Arnold, and Olga Johnstone, teachers at the day care and day training classes.

The two clergy men are giving religious training to the children of the home and those taking classes there.

A social program with a touch provided by the parents completed the program.

L.P. Berrigan Laid To Rest

The funeral for Leo P. Berrigan was held Wednesday morning from the Charlottetown Funeral Home to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. John Cash.

Rev. Charles McCarthy was seated in the sanctuary. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery where the service was conducted by Very Rev. William Simpson.

Members of the Charlottetown postal department, teachers and pupils of Notre Dame Academy grade two and St. Jean School grade four, and members of the Charlottetown Branch, Royal Canadian Legion attended in a nod.

The Legion graveside service was conducted by Harry Mortimer and the Last Post and Reveille were sounded by Bugler David Mills.

Honorary pallbearers were: Premier Dr. P. S. Shaw, Dr. T. L. Farmer, Dr. L. H. Killorn, Dr. M. N. Beck, M. F. Hagan, Malcolm Nicholson, Harold Landry, Wendell Cudmore, E. S. Lord, M. E. Lavigne, Wendel Lee, Donald Ross, Merrill McLaughlin, Michael Murphy, Allison MacMillan and J. J. Connolly.

Active pallbearers were: Alfred Currie, Reginald Power, Kenneth MacNeill, Maurice Berrigan, R. A. MacEachers and J. Fulton Pierce.
