Skowron Out Of Action Leaves Yankees In Bad Way

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Skowron, who was struck so hard by a pitch that didn't hit him—officially—that his thumb was broken, may not be able to open the season for New York Yankees.

For practically any other club in the American League to lose a man who batted .308 last year and hit 23 home runs would be in the nature of a calamity. Yet Yankees followers dismiss it with a "too bad, ain't it?" attitude.

Skowron is a first baseman of sorts and a third baseman of sorts, you might say. That is, he is acceptable at first base, but no great shakes at the hot corner, where he had been working this spring on the chance he would do a good job there and give rookie Mary Thronberry a chance to take over the first base job.

Thronberry whacked 42 home runs and hit for a .315 average for Denver last year, and such a record rates a good trial by any major league club.

But Thronberry is only a rookie, and with Skowron out of action for a spell all the Yankees have

Jenkins Wins U.S. Ch'ship

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Crew-cut collegian Dave Jenkins performed daring acrobatics with daring speed Sunday night to capture the United States men's figure skating championship.

Highlighted by thrilling jumps in which he whirled around three times in the air, the five-minute free skating performance won for the slight, 20-year-old premedical student the crown his now-retired brother, Hayes, owned the last four years.

His victory before 3,500 fans gave Jenkins a triple crown—victories in the world, North American and national.

Skating queen Carol Heiss reached the same heights Friday

Peter Cooper Cops Open

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (CP)—Grizzled Pete Cooper of nearby Lakeland won the 22nd annual $12,500 St. Petersburg open Sunday, beating Jackie Burke Jr. by four strokes as he toured the 6,215-yard Pasadena Club course in six-under-par 65 for a 72-hole total of 269.

Al Balding of Toronto finished with 280, in a five-way tie for sixth place and collected $302.

night as she won in the women's field.

Remember When

Johnny Risko, the Cleveland baker's boy, defeated world light-heavyweight champion Paul Berlenbach 31 years ago tonight at New York, but the title was not at stake. Risko went no further, and Berlenbach lost the title to Jack Delaney four months later.

MALAYA COUNTS NOSES

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (Reuters)—An army of census-takers Saturday received orders to penetrate Malaya's jungles by helicopter, elephant and bamboo raft for the federation's first complete population count in 20 years. Government officials said the census should be completed by June—well in advance of the Aug. 31 date for Malaya's independence within the British Commonwealth.

Hamilton's Banking System Was Snapped Up By Canada

By GEORGE KITCHEN Canadian Press Staff Writer WASHINGTON (CP)—The United States this year is commemorating the 200th anniversary of the birth of an American statesman who might well be called the foster-father of the Canadian banking system.

He is Alexander Hamilton, a native of the British West Indies who came to the United States in the 1770s, joined in the American Revolution and eventually became first U.S. secretary of the treasury as a member of George Washington's cabinet.

A monetary wizard, he set the young republic up on its financial feet by establishing a strong national banking system, which though it later was discarded in the U.S., served as the model for the Canadian banking community. Hamilton established his bank, known as the First Bank of the United States, in 1791. An institution possessing large capital and many branches, it survived until 1832 when President Andrew Jackson, suspicious that the bank had worked against his election and advocated its renewal, refused to renew its charter and advocated, instead, the system of small local banks which is the American pattern today.

Meantime, in the early 1800s, Hamilton's charter had become the model for the banking system then evolving north of the border.

It formed the backbone for the charter of the Bank of Montreal passed by the legislature of Lower Canada about that time.

A history of Canadian banking issued by the U.S. Senate some years ago said a comparison between the Hamilton charter and early Canadian banking legislation "has shown beyond all doubt that the essential features of their proposed bank charter were framed by the Canadians quite in the spirit and for long and significant passages, exactly in the letter of Alexander Hamilton's provisions for a national bank."

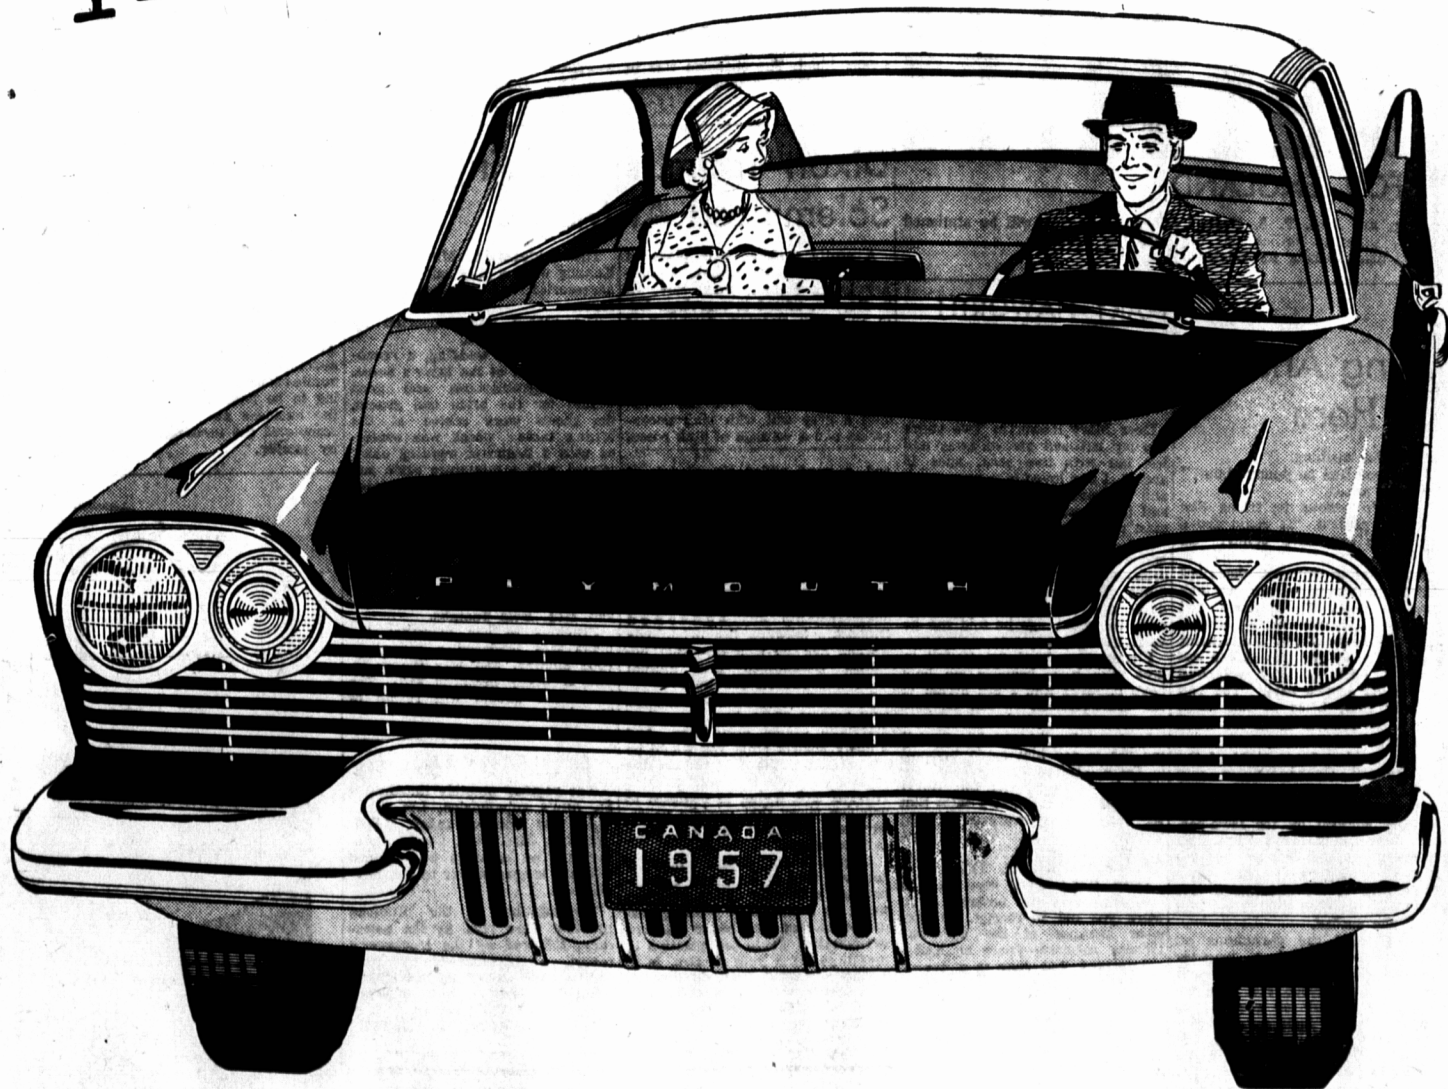

The strength inherent in Hamilton's banking philosophies was demonstrated in the 1930s—140 years after Hamilton set up his system and 100 years after the United States abandoned it. Canadian banks weathered the financial storms of the depression without a single bank failure while American banks, based on the Jackson system of small local institutions, collapsed by the thousands. In the four years from 1930 to 1933, American Bank failures totalled 9,106.

FREIGHTER FIRST AGAIN

TORONTO (CP)—The 2,015-ton freighter Charles Dick berthed at Toronto late Tuesday night to open the 1957 navigation season here and repeat last year's performance. Capt. R. E. Lawson of Toronto brought her in first on the same date last year. The vessel carried sand from Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Ron Delaney Sets Tourney Record

CHICAGO (AP)—Ron Delaney, of Villanova by way of Ireland, set a tournament mile-run record Saturday night of 4:03.8 before 16,000 cheering fans. The time was only two tenths of a second off the American indoor record.

The victory kept Delaney, the Olympic 1,500-metre champion, without defeat in 17 straight races, including 14 at the mile.

Delaney held back in the field of four until the 10th lap of the 11 for the distance on the board oval. Then he sped past Burr Grim of College Park, Md., and won by a good 75 feet.

Ted Wheeler, former Iowa's Big Ten champion, was third and Hungary's Olympic ace, Laszlo Tabori, a poor last.

The meet record was 4:04.2 set by Wes Santee in 1955. Gunnar Nielsen of Denmark is credited with the indoor mark of 4:03.6.
