ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

Learning that Dr. W. O. Rose, who distinguished himself lately at McGill University, was to arrive home on Tuesday evening last, his many friends at Lakesville and North Lake planned a little surprise for him. Accordingly on the evening mentioned they went to his home—the ladies with well filled baskets and the gentlemen with correspondingly large appetites.

It was somewhat late when the Dr. arrived. He was agreeably surprised to find so many friends awaiting him. After a warm shake hands with all, supper was announced. When justice had been done to the good things provided and the wants of the inner man satisfied, Mr. A. F. Rose was called to the chair. After a few appropriate remarks, Mr. F. Baker was called upon, who then, in the name of company, presented the following address: To Wm. O. Rose, M. D.:

DEAR FRIEND,—It is with feelings of unalloyed pleasure that we meet this evening to give you a cordial welcome home. When you parted with us to seek that knowledge and instruction your native land did not afford, you departed laden with the good wishes and fond anticipations of your many friends. Endowed with talents of a rare order, you had taken care to add to these rich gifts the necessary complements of a dauntless energy and an untiring perseverance. Thus fortified, we hoped—yes, we felt sure—your career as a student would be marked with brilliancy and success. It gives us, then, exceeding pleasure and satisfaction to learn that your success is even beyond our most ardent expectations. Within the walls of famous McGill, one of the foremost seats of learning on the continent, you have coped successfully with the foremost genius and talent of this great Dominion. Moreover, what is not less necessary to your success, you have won the respect and confidence of your instructors, inasmuch as they have obtained for you a position of eminence, of distinction, and, we hope of pecuniary profit.

By such achievements you have done honor not only to yourself but to others. You have honored the parents who so carefully provided for your earlier education, you have honored your teachers, from the least to the greatest, who have helped you over the obstacles of the way and encouraged you to strive for the prizes in view, you have honored your native land, adding another name to her long roll of gifted sons and leaving unsullied her reputation as a nursery for genius and a cradle for talent; and now, knowing that you are so well qualified to fulfil the many and onerous duties of your chosen profession, we unite in the hope that you may long be the instrument in the hands of the Almighty Physician of scattering the clouds of anxiety and grief which may, from time to time, hang over many a home,—and of bringing back thereto sunshine, and gladness, and joy; and that your knowledge and skill may, from time to time, stay the hand of the cruel reaper, saving from his merciless sickle many opening buds of promise, and allowing them to grow to a grand and a golden maturity; and now in conclusion allow us to entertain the hope that ere long you may see fit to take up your abode on some portion of this fair isle and devote yourself to the alleviation of pain and suffering, on your native land. We feel sure that whatever portion of this footstool you choose as your field of action, you will act your part with the approval of God and the commendations of men—that the sick and the afflicted will recognize in you, not only the learned and skilful physician, but the kindhearted, the loving and the sympathizing friend.

"We wish you health, we wish you wealth,
We wish you joy in store,
We wish you Heaven after death,
What can we wish you more?"

Dear friends:—This kind reception has quite taken me by surprise and I feel very unprepared to reply to the elaborate and flattering address you have so kindly tendered me. Needless to say I feel highly honored by this fresh mark of your esteem, evincing a deep interest you have always taken in my welfare. This is as highly appreciated by me as any honor my "Alma Mater" could confer upon me.

Referring to my success as a student, I need only say that the Island students have a well earned reputation; and I have only exerted my humble efforts to sustain that reputation.

In conclusion let me thank you most sincerely for all your kind wishes on my behalf, and I hope you may all be spared many years without any need of my professional services.

WILLIAM O. ROSE,
Senior Resident Physician, Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal.
Complimentary remarks were made by the chairman, Wallace Fraser, Jas Dingwell, and J. H. Baker.

After singing And Lung Syne and God Save the Queen, the party broke up with three rousing cheers for Dr. Rose.

No Cocaine in Dr. A. W. Chase's Catarrh Cure

Prof. Heys, Ont., School of Chemistry and Pharmacy, says: "I have made an examination of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure for Cocaine, and in all its compounds, from samples purchased in the open market, and find none present." We offer a reward of $1,000 to be devoted to any charitable institution if any druggist or doctor can find the least trace of the deadly drug Cocaine contained in Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, recommended by all dealers at 25 cents a box, blower included first.

FEEDING PORK.

Messrs. Lowry & Son have issued the following circular:—"We have had endless trouble this spring with soft fed and bruised hogs. The former is accounted for by the feeding of corn and grass the latter on account of rough handling and poking the hogs with sticks, whips, etc. Now these complaints are more serious than farmers think, and will revert each to their detriment in the long run, and we have them to appeal to their better judgment and have them see the matter in the right light. It is quality that is wanted, and Canada's reputation sustained on the bacon markets of the world. This cannot be done otherwise than by the most approved methods. We can assure the farmers that it is to their benefit in every way, as the better quality they turn out the better price they will get. This quality can only be obtained by much care in every detail as to feeding, breeding and handling. Now, in the first place, as to feeding. We would advise farmers to use peas, etc., but to avoid corn and grass. Secondly, as to breeding. The York-hire and Tamworth breeds are acknowledged the exact thing by all experts, as they do not carry much fat and are long and lean, even at 200 pounds weight. We might here say that Ireland gets 10 shillings per 112 pounds, or about 2 1/2 cents per pound, for bacon more than Canada. Why? Simply because they follow out these principles we mention above. Canada can get there if she tries, and each farmer individually should make a strong effort. If hogs were right in this country they would be worth 1c per pound more, as they are in Ireland. Take the Irish principle and watch results. Feeding corn is pennywise and pound foolish, as the United States has already found out to its sorrow.

DAIRY PRODUCE.

Cheese and Butter are Quiet, but Steady.

Cheese exhibits no striking change in Montreal, the tone being fairly steady. At the wharf on Monday some 8,000 boxes were offered and sold, the ruling price being 7 1/2c.

Finest western, colored.....8 1/2 to 8 1/2
" " white.....7 1/2 to 8
" eastern, colored.....7 1/2 to 8
" " white.....7 1/2 to 7 3/4
Liverpool cable, colored.....3's. 6d.
" " white.....3's. 6d.

The butter market rules quiet and steady, as last quoted. There was enquiry for finest creamery, but holders were firm.

Extra finest creamery, boxes...18 1/2 to 18 1/2
" " tubs...17 1/2 to 17 1/2
Ordinary finest creamery, boxes...17 1/2 to 17 1/2
" " tubs...16 1/2 to 17
Dairy butter.....14 to 14 1/2

YOU NEED THE BEST.

The Diamond Dyes Color All Classes of Goods.

Diamond Dyes, as far as general usefulness is concerned, are far ahead of all the adulterated package and soap grease dyes now before the public. These crude package dyes and soap grease mixtures are very limited in their powers. 'Tis true, they give a semblance of color to thin and flimsy fabrics, but when tried on good dress materials and heavier goods, such as flannels, worsteds, tweeds and cloths, they are simply worthless.

The Diamond Dyes, owing to their great powers of penetration, their perfect solidity and depth of shade, their purity and brilliancy, are adapted for all classes of goods from the thinnest gauze to the heaviest tweeds. This great range of work, possible only to the Diamond Dyes, is what has made them so popular all over the world.

If you would do your dyeing work in proper style, use the Diamond Dyes. Avoid all imitation package and soap preparations. The Diamond Dyes are first and best for home use.

LIVE HOGS.

Prices in Montreal and Chicago

At the Point St. Charles Stock Yards, on Monday last, there were 600 hogs offered, which met with a ready sale, and prices were unchanged at 4 1/2 to 5c per lb.

At Chicago, the live hog quotations on Tuesday last were: Light mixed, $3.70 to $4.05; mixed packing, $3.65 to $4.05; heavy shipping, $3.55 to $4.05; rough grades, $3.55 to $3.70 per hundred pounds.

Sometimes it seems to weary woman that she must certainly, give up. The simplest and easiest work becomes an almost insurmountable task. Nervousness, sleeplessness and pain harass her and life seems hardly worth the living.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was made for her. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was made for her. The former is for ill's distinctly feminine, the other for her general system. Together they supply a scientific and successful course of treatment. The "Favorite Prescription" restores healthy, regular action to the organs distinctly feminine. It forces out all impurities, strengthens the tissues, allays inflammation. The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes appetite, helps digestion, promotes assimilation, fills out the hollows in cheeks and neck with good solid flesh and brings back the glad glow of girlhood.

Sent 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, illustrated.
