THE NEWS.
 It is satisfactory to learn that a junction of the force of General Yule with that of Sir George Stewart White was effected yesterday afternoon. But our despatches indicate that the British suffered more heavily in the recent battles than was at first announced. There seems to be a good deal of uncertainty about the matter. The censorship is evidently to be reckoned with. It is abundantly evident that the British soldiers engaged displayed all their old time bravery and determination, though it is possible that some mistakes in generalship have been made. The main point to be borne in mind is, however, that the enemy has already done his best against a numerically smaller British force, and has been unsuccessful. Reinforcements of the British are even now arriving, and we may await the news of the next decisive battle in the confident hope that victory will continue to perch upon the arms of our countrymen.
 The time lost by reason of the government's delay in deciding to despatch a Canadian contingent cannot of course be recovered. Our Canadian volunteers will, in any case, be late in the field, but perhaps not too late to take part in the final movements.
 In the news of today the chief item of local interest is the enlistment of the Rev. T. F. Fullerton, the able and eloquent pastor of St. James' Church.

PACAUD VS. TARTE.
 It is stated that Mr. Tarte was in Quebec a few days ago trying to persuade other members of Parliament to follow the example of Mr. Bourassa. Whether or not he was successful has not yet appeared. It is certain, however, that the latest development of Tartism does not please Mr. Pacaud, who was recently described as one of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's close friends. La Soleil, edited by Mr. Pacaud deplors the fact that Mr. Bourassa should thus embarrass Sir Wilfrid Laurier who is just now being attacked by a good portion of the English press of the country. "Sir Wilfrid Laurier," says La Soleil, "has not the right to ignore the sentiments and aspirations of the great majority of this country, which is not only composed of English Protestants, but of French Catholics, who are so identified on this point with our parliamentary institutions that they have just as strong a desire to go and fight for the mother country as their English-speaking fellow countrymen." La Soleil also intimates that had Sir Wilfrid Laurier refused to send a Canadian contingent to the Transvaal Mr. Chamberlain might well have asked Lord Minto to dismiss his advisers and replace them by others who would be willing to send troops to defend the honor of the flag that protects them. Had this taken place, Sir Charles Tupper, Mr. Pacaud adds, would have appealed to the people and would have been overwhelmingly returned to power. The article concludes as follows: "The step which Mr. Bourassa has taken is deeply to be regretted, and should cause all French Liberals to rally around our eminent leader more closely than ever before."

There is No Better Furniture
No Furniture Prices are So Reasonable

 The furniture market is flooded with trash—quickly made, light weight stuff presented with the glitter of little price. None of this has ever leaked in here. It cannot. The furniture we sell is, first of all, reliable, carefully and strongly made and neatly finished. We value your friendship too highly to risk it upon trash. Once a patron always a patron here—if excellent quality careful service and reasonable price can combine to clinch the friendship.

fore." Le Soleil appeals to the Quebec people to give a magnificent reception to the volunteers. Tarte seems to be losing his grip,—even in Quebec!
A QUESTION ASKED AND ANSWERED.
 "Will Mr. D. A. McKinnon, Attorney-General, please explain his position in regard to the present License Law?"
 We are requested by an esteemed correspondent to publicly ask this question. But it is not necessary to do so. By the fact of his entering into the Farquharson cabinet, Mr. McKinnon has adopted the policy of the Farquharson Government under which all persons in Charlottetown who provide suitable rooms and pay the Provincial Treasury $200 a year (100 every six months) may sell as much liquor as they can; and there is no stipulation as to quality, or price, or results. The Government takes the money; and the Honorable D. A. McKinnon is a member of the government. It is true that Mr McKinnon shirked the vote on the question; but, by accepting a seat in the Farquharson Cabinet, he has accepted full responsibility for the License Law.

The Boundary Question.
 Commenting on the recent arrangement as to the Alaskan boundary, The News-Advertiser, of Vancouver says: The fact is that with parties in the neighbor Republic so nearly balanced, as they now seem to be in their hold upon the people, President McKinley and his Republican followers dare do naught else than maintain the "status quo" for the United States on the boundary issue, for Western State Senators, Congressmen and electors are so possessed of the wrong idea, that all the Alaskan border territory which their country now occupies—under protest by Canada—is indisputably American and must not therefore be yielded, either as a result of arbitration or of international compromise, that to thwart this prejudiced view of the Western States would cost President McKinley and his party many votes in Congress, in addition to a host of votes at the ballot boxes. Hence there seems to be a scant chance of the making of any attempt on the part of the United States to adjust the difficulty, until after the next Presidential election. And even then the victorious party may be either too weak or too much compromised by pre-election pledges to adopt a free and fair position in the matter. This is a regrettable conclusion at which to arrive, but it seems under the circumstances to be correct.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.
 —It is stated that the Dreyfus trial cost the Dreyfus family $200,000! What it has cost France cannot be computed.
 Halifax Herald: If Laurier and Tarte imagined that they were going to throw any large amount of dust into the eyes of English-speaking Canadians by getting Bourassa to resign his parliamentary seat, they will experience a large disappointment. The trick is too transparent, for, as Tarte has already explained the Canadian government is not sending a Canadian contingent to the Transvaal. All it is doing is to meddle in the appointment of officers and the distribution of patronage, and to pay the passage of such Canadians not exceeding 1,000 as choose to volunteer for the service.
 Mail and Empire: Mr. Bourassa has evidently been induced by Israel Tarte to resign his seat in Parliament with a view to emphasizing the idea that our attachment to Great Britain so far as exhibited is not intended to be permanent.

Challenge.
 Since some of those owning the horses defeated at Souris recently are doing a lot of talking I have deposited $100 with Mr. Chas. D. McKinnon for match races between my horse Prince Regent and Prospector and Progress Lad, races to take place on Souris track when mutually agreed upon. The first race must be with Prospector and the second, a week later, with Progress Lad, each race to be for $100 a side. The races are to be trotted according to national rules, mile heats, best three in five to harness. Each man will pick a judge, and they will pick a third in each race. This challenge will be left open until Monday, 30th inst.
