Minister Foster Safe!

The Ministers at Washington.

Heavy Failure. Thursday's Elections

TORONTO, Feb. 13.—The result of yesterday's elections resulted in the return of five conservatives and one liberal, the conservatives capturing two seats, North Victoria and East Bruce. At the general election East Bruce returned Mr. Traut liberal, by a majority of 114 votes; yesterday Henry Gargill, conservative was returned by a majority of 13. In North Victoria, Mr. Barron, liberal, who was elected at the general election by 202 votes over Col Sam. Hughes, conservative, was defeated. Mr. Barron, it will be remembered, was one of the 13 who voted in the Commons against the Jesuit Incorporation Bill. Col. Hughes is editor of the Lindsay Warder and is a prominent Orangeman. Yesterday Hughes won the seat by 150 majority. In South Victoria the Conservative candidate, Chas. Fairbairn, was elected by a majority of 100; an increase of 75. East Middlesex again returns Mr. Marshall, conservative, by a largely increased majority. Featherstone, liberal, again takes Peel with an increased majority of 58.

SHE WAS HIS SISTER.

The Date was Set for Their Marriage When the Fact was Discovered.

HURON, S. D., Feb 9.—In 1882 a young man, H. H. Williams, came to this city from Illinois He remained until the following spring, when he went further west, accumulated some money and went to Chicago, where he is now engaged in the leather business.

Williams' parents lived near Springfield, Ill. The father was killed in the battle of Corinth. The mother had just given birth to a girl baby.

The shock broke her down and she and the babe went to San Francisco to live with Mrs. Todd, a half sister, leaving young Williams in the care of a family which eventually adopted him. Mrs. Williams died and the girl became known as Helen Williams Todd.

Intimate friends of Mrs. Todd removed from San Francisco to Chicago, and during the winter of 1888 she and Miss Helen visited them.

At a reception Williams and Miss Todd met. The acquaintance rapidly ripened, and there were frequent exchanges of letters. This went on for two years, when Miss Todd went to Chicago to live with friends on Drexel Boulevard, her foster-mother having died.

The friendship between Williams and herself budded into love and blossomed into an engagement, and the date for the wedding was set.

A few days before the event was to take place Miss Todd was looking over a package of old papers left by her foster mother.

These letters gave a faint clue to her brother, and she turned them over to her betrothed and asked his assistance.

An old-fashioned photograph found with the letters matched the one of his mother in his possession, and further investigations showed that the two were brother and sister.

A Clean Bill of Health.

MONTREAL, Feb. 9.—The province of Quebec is given a clean bill of health as far as smallpox is concerned. The provincial board of health has issued a bulletin, stating that there is not one case of smallpox in the province at the present day. There have been 151 cases and 32 cases ended fatally. Not a single case came within 100 miles of Montreal.

Newfoundland to Blame.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—In the House of Lords today, replying to the criticism of Earl Kimberly regarding the absence of any reference to Newfoundland in the Queen's Speech, Lord Salisbury said that the present settlement of the question was not due to the action of the government, but to the people of Newfoundland themselves. The address in reply to the speech from the Throne was moved by the Earl of Dudley and passed the House of Lords

Died in a Ball Room.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 9.—While dancing at the reception given by the Pittsburg club in honor of the re-opening of their new club house, Miss Kittie Shaw, daughter of a prominent physician of this city, dropped dead at 3 30 o'clock this morning.

Miss Shaw was about 23 years of age and a great favorite in her set. She danced frequently during the night and was taking the final waltz when she threw up her hands and fell lifeless to the floor.

A Pointer for Canada.

When the gallant militia of Bridgeport, Conn., started to make a raid on the British ship Glendon for not hoisting the American flag in port, they paused in their mad career when they came to a high board fence which bore this legend: "No trespass under penalty of the law." Here is a hint to Canada should Connecticut troops ever attempt an invasion. Let the dominion authorities appropriate money enough to fence in the border and put up the menacing legend.

No Lent in Quebec.

MONTREAL, Feb. 10.—The following edict has been issued by Cardinal Taschereau: "In virtue of the power accorded us by His Holiness in a decree of the 14th January, commencing 7th February and until otherwise ordered, we absolve all the faithful, clergy and communicants, of the archdiocese, from the duty of fasting and abstinence. Nevertheless, we hope that during holy week, at least on Good Friday, those who can do so without injury to themselves will perform some acts of penance."

A VILLANOUS TRAMP.

He is Supposed to Have Fired a Barn and House Near St. Stephen.

ST. STEPHEN, Feb. 10.—A tramp called at the house of Samuel Pulk at Oak Bay, six miles from town, yesterday afternoon about three o'clock and asked for something to eat. Mr. and Mrs. Pulk and a little grandson were all confined to their bed with grip, and a little girl, who was the only other occupant of the house, told the tramp that he would get something to eat at the next house. She was frightened and ran up stairs. The man swore furiously and went out. About ten minutes later the girl saw smoke issuing from the barn and ran out screaming fire. Edward Gerleeon, who was passing, rushed in. The house also caught fire and he had to carry the old people and the little boy out in their night clothes and wrapped in quilts and lay them down in the snow till further help came. A fierce snow storm was raging. They lay there for half an hour before a team could be got, when they were taken to the house of their son-in-law, Wm. Reed. The house and barn, with all contents, were destroyed. No insurance. Mr. Pulk is eighty-two years old and Mrs. Pulk seventy-three. Mrs. Pulk may not recover from the shock. There seems to be no doubt that the tramp fired the barn as no one else had been there for three hours. The deepest sympathy for the homeless old people is felt and intense indignation prevails. It is said that the tramp was seen coming toward St. Stephen, but he is still at large.

Two Big Failures.

NEW YORK, Feb 9.—Field, Lindley, Weickers & Co., through their assignee, Chas. W. Gould, filed schedules today in the court of common pleas. The liabilities secured are $10,738.95; unsecured, $10,778.46; nominal assets, $19,177.86; actual assets, $39,326.

WORCESTER, Mass., Feb. 9.—Darling Bros. of this city assigned today. The firm for several years have done a large business as contractors and builders in various parts of the country. The failure is said to be due to the fact that the concern had too much of its property tied up in real estate. The total liabilities are $175,000 or $180,000, and assets $200,000. The assignment was precipitated by the failure to meet a note of $2,433 due a New York firm to-day.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—Ex-Empress Frederick will come to Windsor castle in the spring with Princess Margaret, when it is expected the latter's marriage with Prince George will be settled. Canadian Cheese Factories.

Every mail brings encouraging news of the reality of Canada's agricultural awakening, to which we directed attention a few weeks ago. By the last mail comes an interesting statement by the Dominion Dairy Commissioner, in which he points to the "wonderfully-increased interest among the farmers in our work." In Nova Scotia no fewer than eleven new cheese factories were started last year, and already there is a noticeable improvement in the quality of the cheese produced. At one of the factories at Antigonish one hundred cheese were made expressly for export to British markets, and the outcome will, it is hoped, encourage Nova Scotia to rival Ontario in catering for British consumers. New Brunswick farmers are also waking up—though more deliberately, as is their wont; while in Prince Edward Island a Dominion dairy station will shortly be in operation for the demonstration of the best methods of cheese-making in summer and butter-making in winter for British markets. In Quebec experiments have also been in progress. At one of the factories about 250 boxes of various kinds of cheese were made to be shipped to England to illustrate to the dairymen in Quebec that cheese from their factories, when properly made, will fetch the very highest price obtainable in the British market for any imported cheese; and the success which the cheese product of the Eastern Townships attained in London, Manchester, and Kilmarnock, last year, is full of encouragement to that section of Canada. Ontario, we may be sure, will hold her own, and altogether, therefore, the outlook in the Canadian dairy trade industry is full of hope.—London Canadian Gazette.

The Bluett Affair.

In our issue of Thursday we published a short communication from Rev. F. D. Davison in reference to the alleged attempt of Rev. Wm. Bluett, of New Brunswick, to pass in Montreal as an ex-priest. It is to be deeply regretted that only one side of the story was sent to this province. The ambition of an over jealous correspondent to send a sensational despatch sometimes does a lot of harm, and many an honest man has thereby been branded as an impostor or a fraud. Such appears to have been the first cause in the Bluett affair, and it has since transpired that Mr. Bluett never attempted to pass as an ex-priest, and his friends, in letters to the Witness, fully vindicate that gentleman's character. Mr. Bluett was about to lecture to the Orangemen, and some person, who made the announcement of his lecture, rated him a "converted priest" instead of a "converted Catholic." Mr. Bluett rectified the mistake in his lecture. It was a case of lots of smoke but no fire.

In addition to the above oath of allegiance the Mayor has to certify that he is worth at least $1,600 in real estate.
