

Business Society picks Peckford

from Topics

Newfoundland Premier Brian Peckford will be the guest speaker at the fourth annual UPEI Business Society Dinner on Monday, March 24 at the Confederation Centre of the Arts. The UPEI Business Society is composed of students and faculty members of the Department of Business Administration.

Tickets are $15.00 for the general public and $7.00 for students. They are available from members of the Society.

Mr. Peckford, termed the "Tough man on the rock" by the Financial Post, will speak on Newfoundland's Role within the Canadian Confederation. The 38-year-old Progressive Conservative leader is a native of Whitbourne, Newfoundland. He attended Memorial University of Newfoundland, and graduated in 1966 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Education. A high school English teacher, Mr. Peckford was first elected to the House of Assembly in March 1972 for the district of Green Bay, and in 1973 he was appointed special assistant to Premier Frank Moores. In 1974 he was appointed Minister of the Department of Municipal Affairs and Housing. In 1975 he was re-elected and in 1976 he was appointed Minister of Mines and Energy. He then served as Minister of Rural Development (1978). He was chosen to succeed Frank Moores as Premier at a leadership convention in March, 1979. In the June, 1979 General Election he was returned to office.
