THE KINKORA fiddling and step-dancing contest Wednesday night drew a capacity crowd of over 700 enthusiastic old-time music lovers to the Kinkora Regional High School as some 40 contestants vied for honors in one fiddling event, and four step-dancing divisions. From left to right are the first, second and third place finishers in the ladies' step-dancing event - Carol Arsenault, Summerside; Marsha Perry, Summerside and Betty Ann Egan, Charlottetown.

Ch'town Man Captures Top Fiddling Honors

SUMMERSIDE—Earl Hughes of Charlottetown, on Wednesday night emerged as champion fiddler in the contest held before a large toe-tapping audience at Kinkora Regional High School. The program was sponsored by a the Kinkora High Alumni Association.

The fiddling contest was judged by Toussant Arsenault, Summerside, Johnny Grimes, Fort Augustus and Stephen Toole, Green road.

Eddie Arsenault, of Egmont Bay was a close second and Irving Sonier of Summerside, third. A total of 10 fiddlers vied for honors in this contest.

A pretty Charlottetown lass, Karen MacAleer, stole the show in the step-dancing event for boys and girls 12 years and under. Second was Paul Smith of Kinkora; and third, Jean Smith Covehead.

In the age 12 to 16 division. A Summerside girl, Mona Arsenault, was named winner with Clara Steele, Bedford, runner-up and Paula Corrigan, Pleasant Grove third.

Carol Arsenault, Summerside, captured first place in the ladies division another Summerside girl, Marsha Perry, finished second and Betty Ann Egan, Charlottetown, emerged in third place.

Cyrus Perry, Borden, and Peter Gaudet, Miscouche, waged a close battle in the men's division with Perry emerging eventual winner and Gaudet second. third was Andrew Gallant, Summerside.

The evening's show was climaxed by step-dancing performances by two of the judges in the step dancing contest. Former Island champ Mrs. Mary Kelly, Charlottetown, gave an outstanding performance, demonstrating why she once wore the Island crown. Marcella Gallant Egmont Bay, also performed. Third judge was Desmond Gaudet, Summerside.

One of the special guests, 6-year-old Jackie Flannigan, Charlottetown, drew loud applause as she went through her intricate step-dancing routine to the accompaniment of Lyman Dunford of Charlottetown on the fiddle.

Other special guest performers were the comedian — singing pair Eugene Wynn and Dave Gallant of Charlottetown.

Offensive Weapon Charge Results In 2 Months Term

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

Albert Joseph "Buster" Wedge, Summerside, was sentenced to two months in Prince County jail by Magistrate S. MacDonald yesterday when found guilty of carrying an offensive weapon, namely a sharpened belt buckle.

Crown Prosecutor George R. McMahon, after reading the accused's record asked for the maximum penalty on the charge.

Defence Counsel J. Melville Campbell said that this charge was probably laid because sufficient evidence could not be found to hold the accused on another matter.

The accused was taken into custody on the outskirts of Summerside the morning of Oct. 20 where a roadblock had been set up by the RCMP following breaks at two Mount Carmel stores earlier.

Charles E. Milligan, Borden, pleaded guilty to a charge of impaired driving and was fined $75 and costs.

Ira L. MacDonald, Summerside was fined $10 and costs on a charge of failing to stop for a school bus discharging children.

A woman was fined $20 and costs on a charge of having liquor in her possession without a permit.

A man pleaded guilty of a charge of being intoxicated in a public place, and was fined $20 and costs.

United Fund Donations Said Higher This Year

Orin Simons, campaign chairman of the P.E.I. United Fund told a regular meeting of the board of directors people are giving more this year than last.

He noted that, although returns to date were somewhat slower than last year, card for card they were showing an increase. He stated that of the advance gifts division — Summerside was showing a 23 per cent increase, local business division — Charlottetown a 13 per cent increase, national corporations a 47 per cent increase, professional division — Charlottetown a 3.5 per cent increase, professional division — Summerside a 10 per cent increase and Charlottetown payroll division a 1.5 per cent increase. Only the advance gifts division in Charlottetown has shown a small decrease of 3 per cent and this is due to the transfer of interests of one of the Island's major industries.

The net increase in giving to date is 5.6 per cent. He stressed the need for the outstanding calls to be completed and cards returned to the campaign office in the Dominion Building, Charlottetown.

The agency representatives held a further meeting yesterday to discuss plans for agency participation in an increased publicity program to acquaint the contributors with agency programs. Frank Curtis, president, expressed confidence in the campaign leadership and the people and said he was sure that we would once again have a successful campaign.

Mental Health Workshop Slated

MISCOUCHE — A Mental health workshop will be held in the regional high school here this afternoon at 1:15 for teachers from Summerside to Egmont Bay.

Dr. Malcolm Beck, Charlottetown will be the main speaker.

Presbyterian Men Of Island Elect Officers, Hear Speaker

A large and enthusiastic group of Presbyterian men from all parts of the province gathered Monday evening at the Kirk of St. James for the annual fall rally.

The highlight of the evening was the challenging address given by Rev. Peter Dareh who recently came to the Alberton - Tyne Valley charge from London, Ont. Mr. Dareh was introduced by Rev. Carl Currie of Murray Harbor North.

Mr. Dareh took his theme from Paul's letter to Titus, "A Peculiar People", and said that "The Christian is a peculiar person unto God. He is set apart and purified unto good works."

The speaker was thanked by the president of the Presbytery Council, Andrew Jardine.

The Blessing being asked by Rev. T.H.B. Somers, the assembled group was served a delicious dinner by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Kirk.

The Men of the Kirk led in the devotional period which followed with Christopher Gledhill at the piano. A solo was rendered by Mrs. Gordon Stewart.

The president gave a complete resume of the activities of the year, the open air service at Camp Keir last August being one of the important events.

Charles Bearisto, secretary, read the minutes and Kenneth Walker, treasurer gave the financial report. Wyman Waddell, chairman of the nominating committee brought in the slate of officers for the coming year.

The new officers are: past president, Mr. Jardine; president, J. Malcolm MacKenzie; secretary, J. Stanley Staver; treasurer, David MacLeod. They were installed by Rev. D. A. Campbell of Zion Church.

Summerside Plans Study Of Request

SUMMERSIDE — A request has been submitted by the West Wilmot Water and Sewerage Co. Ltd., to the Town of Summerside, for connection to the town's system's outfall in a proposed new sanitary sewer installation.

The new line runs west from the home of Russell Phaneuf to the town line, encompassing some 28 owners of about 100 sewerage units.

The council is studying the proposal in the light of annual revenue, impact of the new load on the present system and the subsequent effect on future commercial expansion within the eastern portion of the town.
